GENERAL REMARKS.

Revenue Stamps may be used iniscriminately upon any of the matters or things enumerated in schedule B, except proprietary and card stamps, for which a special use has been provided.

Postage stamps cannot be used in payment of the duty chargeable on instruments.

It is the duty of the maker of an instrument to affix and cancell the stamp thereon. If he neglects to do it, the party for whose use it is made, may stamp it before it is used; but in no case can it be legally used without a stamp; and if used after the 30th of July, 1864, and used without a stamp, it cannot afterwards be effectually stamped. Any failure upon the part of the maker of an instrument to appropriately stamp it, renders him liable to a penalty, of two hundred dollars.

Suits are commenced in many States by other process than writ, viz: summons, warrants, publication, petition, &c., in which case these, as the original process, generally require stamps.

Writs of scira facias are subject to stamp duty as original processes.

The jurat of an affidavit, taken before a Justice of the Peace, Notary Public, or other officer duly authorized to take affidavits, is held to be a certificate, and subject to a stamp duty of 5 cents, except when taken in suits or legal proceedings.

Certificates of loan in which there shall appear any printed or written evidence of an amount of money to be paid on demand, or at any time designated, are subject to a stamp duty as Promisory Notes.

The assignment of a mortgage is subject to the same stamp duty as that imposed upon the original instrument; that is to say, for every sum of five hundred dollars, or any fractional part thereof, of the amount secured by the mortgage, at time of its assignment, there must be affixed a stamp or stamps, denoting a duty of fifty cents.

When two or more persons join in the execution of an instrument, the stamps to which this instrument is liable under the law, may be affixed and cancelled by one of the parties.

In conveyances of real estate, the law provides that the stamp affixed must answer to the value of the estate on interest conveyed.

No stamp is required on any warrant of attorney, accompanying a bond or note, when such bond or note has affixed thereto the stamp or stamps denoting the duty required, and whenever any bond or note is secured by mortgage, but one stamp duty is required on such papers, such stamp duty being the highest rates required for such instruments, or either of them. In such case a note or memorandum of the value or denomination of the stamp affixed, should be made upon the margin or in the acknowledgement of the instrument which is not stamped.

Demorest's Monthly Magazine, and the DAILY MORNING STAR will be sent to one address for $9,50 per year. Send orders to the "STAR" OFFICE.

GENERAL ORDERS.

HEADQUARTERS SECOND MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., MAY 30TH, 1867.

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 32.

I. Any citizen, a qualified voter according to the requirements of the "Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States," passed March 2d, 1867, and the Act supplementary thereto, passed March 23rd, 1867, is elligible to office in the provisional government of North and South Carolina. All persons appointed to office will be required to take the oath prescribed by the Act aforesaid, and to file the same duly subscribed and sworn, with the Post Commander.

II. All citizens assessed for taxes and who shall have paid taxes for the current year are qualified to serve as jurors. It shall be the duty of the proper civil officers charged with providing lists of jurors, to proceed within their several jurisdictions, without delay, and ascertain the names of all qualified persons and place them on the jury lists, and from such revised lists all jurors shall be hereafter summoned and drawn in the manner required by law.

III. All citizens are elligible to follow any licensed calling employment or vocation, subject to such impartial regulations as may be prescribed by municiple or other competent authority, not inconsistent with common right and the constitution and laws of the United States. The bond required as security shall not exceed the penal sum of one hundred dollars. One or more surities, being citizens and worth in the aggregate double the amount of the bond over and above just debts will be sufficient.

IV. The mayors of cities and other municiple and town officers, and all sheriffs, magistrates and police forces are required to be vigilant and efficient in maintaining order; and in the discharge of their duties they will be expected to co-operate with the military authorities.

V. Post Commanders may summon to their aid whenever the ordinary means at their disposal shall not be sufficient to execute their orders, such of the civil officers and as many of the citizens within the territorial limits of the military post as may be necessary; and the neglect or refusal of any person to aid and assist in the execution of the orders of the commanding officer will be deemed a misdemeanor punishable by such fine and imprisonment as may be imposed by a military tribunal, approved by the Commanding General.

VI. No licence for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon or to be drank on the premises, shall be granted to any person other than an inn-keeper; the number of such licences shall be determined and the fees to be charged for each licence shall be prescribed and collected by the municiple or town authorities and appropriated exclusively to the benefit of the poor. If any person shall be found drunk on the premises where liquor is sold the licence may be revoked by any magistrate. The tax imposed by the internal revenue laws of the United States is an additional charge, and does not excuse the party from the observance of local regulations nor exempt him from the payment of such other licence fees as may be imposed by municiple or other competent authority.

VII. All contracts hereafter made for the manufacture, sale or transportation, storage or insurance of intoxicating liquors shall within this Military District be deemed and treated as against public policy, and no civil action, suit or proceeding for the enforcement of any such contract shall be entertained in any court.

VIII. In public conveyances on railroads highways streets or navigable waters, no discrimination because of color or caste shall be made, and the common right of all citizens therein shall be recognized and respected.—The violation of this regulation will be deemed a misdemeanor and render the offender liable to arrest and trial by a military tribunal to be designated by the Commanding General, besides such damages as the injured party may sue for and recover in the Civil Courts.

IX. The remedy by distress for rent is abolished. Where lands are leased or let out for hire or rent, cotton corn or other produce of the same, when severed from the land, may be impounded; but the same shall not be removed. And cotton corn or other produce so impounded, shall be held as security for the rent or hire so claimed, and may be sold in satisfaction of any judgement for the same: Provided, that any unsatisfied claim for labor bestowed upon the cultivation of such cotton corn or other produce, shall in no case be postponed to any demand for rent or hire; but to the extent of such claim for labor, there shall be a lien on such cotton corn or other produce, having preference over any claim for rent or hire.

By Command of Maj. Gen. D. E. SICKLES:
J. W. CLOUS,
Capt. 38th U. S. Infantry,
A. D. C., & A. A. A. G.

H'DQ'RS POST OF GOLDSBORO',
Goldsboro', N. C., June 7, 1867.

To DANIEL COGDELL, Esq.,
MAYOR OF GOLDSBORO', N. C. SIR:—Major C. E. Compton, Commanding Post of Goldsboro', N. C., directs me to inform you that Par. VI, General Orders No. 32, dated Head Quarters, 2d Military District, Charleston, S. C., May 30th, 1867, nullifies all existing licences for the sale of intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon, and to other than Inn-keepers, and to request, respectfully, that this order be enforced by the civil authorities of the town.

I am,
Very Respectfully,
Your Ob'd't Servant
D. B. WILSON,
2d Lieut. 40th U. S. Infantry,
Post Adjutant.
