The Executive Committee of the County Sunday School Convention met at the reading room of the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday morning and decided to hold the convention August 18th. Mr. R. E. White, of Durham, State Visitor was present and made some very excellent suggestions. Committees on location, program and advertising were elected, after which, the meeting adjourned.

The first Cleveland-Carr club in the State was formed in this city Thursday night when a large number of our citizens assembled at the court house to ratify the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson. A meeting has been called for to-night at 8:30 o'clock, when the reports of the Committee on Constitution and By-Laws, and the Committee on Permanent Organization will be received.

A colored man named Sam Frazier, aged 38 years, living on Mr. D. N. Southerland's plantation in New Hope township, was killed by lightning Sunday night at 11 o'clock while asleep in bed. The lightning struck two trees in front of the house, passed beneath the building and came out in the room just where the bed was located with above fatal result. His wife who occupied the same bed was badly stunned from the flash.

A Delightful Resort.

The citizens of Goldsboro and vicinity who intend going this summer to some resort for health or pleasure will not find a better and more delightful place than Carolina Beach. This "Coney Island of North Carolina" is becoming more popular every day, judging from the large number of visitors already there at "The Oceanic." This hotel is conducted by the ever courteous and obliging Phil Wright, which can easily be accounted for why the tables are constantly loaded with the substantial and luxuries of the season.

Carolina Beach is reached by a very convenient boat schedule from Wilmington. The palatial steamer "Wilmington," under command of that ever obliging and whole-souled gentleman, Capt. J. W. Harper, glides smoothly but swiftly along the waters of the grand Cape Fear and after a delightful sail of a little over an hour—a distance of about 15 miles—you are met at the wharf by a train of airy summer cars which after a breezy ride of about ten minutes will deposit you almost in front of the great Atlantic Ocean.

The surf at Carolina Beach is the best we ever saw and every evening it is literally lined with bathers. We spent Friday night at "The Oceanic" and to the credit of the hotel be it said that we were not pestered by a single mosquito or fly. In fact the guests told us that these insects are rarely ever seen there. The hotel has been so changed and improved that old patrons will hardly recognize it. Mr. J. D. Smith, a Wilmington boy, is the chief clerk, whom everybody who has been to Carolina Beach heretofore knows as a most clever and accommodating gentleman. Mr. J. A. Burns, of Fayetteville, who easily tips the scales past 200 pounds is the proprietor of this famous hotel.

Augusta Female Seminary.

One of the best known institutions of learning for girls and young ladies, is the Augusta Female Seminary of Staunton, Va. This old and favorably known school, during the thirty years that it has been under the management of Miss M. J. Baldwin, whose fame as an educator extends not only over the entire South, but also over many of the western and northern States, has reached a degree of prosperity seldom attained by any college, and during the past session, has drawn pupils from twenty-four States. The Seminary has long been noted as a refined Christian home for girls, for the healthfulness of its location, its beautiful and extensive grounds, and above all, for its extensive course of study, and the thoroughness of its teaching. The buildings are convenient and comfortable, and during the past session an elegant gymnasium, well equipped, and a swimming pool have been added. The terms are very low for the advantages offered. For years the institution has been filled to its utmost capacity, and parents and guardians are urged to write at once for a catalogue, which gives the full details.

Resolutions of Respect.

Adopted by the Young People's Temperance Association of Stony Creek, Wayne county.

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God in the execution of His holy and righteous will, to remove by death, our beloved brother, Stephen Howell, who was one of the oldest members of this society. In his daily life the manifestations of a thoroughly temperate man were vividly exemplified; while in his death was lost a devoted christian and temperance worker. He left behind him an example which is commendable and truly worthy of imitation for both the old and the young.

RESOLVED, 1. That in the brother's demise this Temperance Society has lost one of its shining lights and the surrounding community one of its best and most benevolent citizens. His love and charity toward his neighbor are standing illustrations of his piety. Knowing that "wine was a mocker and that strong drink was raging" his advice was always to shun the bitter cup in which was secreted the demon of drunkenness.

2. That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him, who performs his wondrous works for his own glorification, we thank God for his life and example among men, knowing that he has reaped the reward, which awaits only the true and faithful.

3. That this society tenders its love and sympathy to his bereaved family, praying the blessings of high heaven upon them, that they may see by an eye of faith through the dark misty clouds of bereavement a loving and sympathizing Saviour, who will never leave nor forsake them; but will be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

4. That these resolutions be made a part of this Temperance Society record, and a copy be sent to the bereaved family and also to THE HEADLIGHT for publication.

NORA F. SMITH,
Committee.

A drug clerk recently wrote to the famous newspaper correspondent, Eleanor Kirk, that he did not think it wrong to substitute witchhazel for Pond's Extract. She replied as follows: "This is cool. According to such logic a dry goods dealer could justify himself in sending unbleached muslin when one has ordered cambric. It is a question involving the right of the purchaser to the article he wants. When I send for Pond's Extract and am furnished with water-flavored hamamelis, there will certainly be some words spoken."
