

THE HEADLIGHT.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF WAYNE COUNTY

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Oct. 27, 1892

LOCAL NEWS.

It is now about time for Dr. Exum to ask: "Where am I at?"

Register before it is too late. The books will be closed Saturday noon.

The public debate at the Y. M. C. A. hall has been postponed for tonight.

Mrs. N. J. Horne, of Magnolia, is in the city visiting her son, Mr. Wiley G. Horne.

The Odd Fellows' Orphan Home, near this city, now numbers fourteen inmates.

If "Tax Payer" will give us his name we will publish his timely communication.

Cotton was selling here yesterday at 7 1/2 cents. There were many sales on the market.

Dr. J. M. Parker, the well known dentist of this city, left yesterday on professional business for LaGrange.

The first touch of winter was given us Monday and ever since overcoats and fires have been greatly enjoyed.

The Republicans and Third partyites are whooping up the matter of registration. Democrats, see to it that you are not left.

While cutting up an old boiler Tuesday, Mr. Horace E. King had his right eye badly injured by one of the rivets striking it. It was a close shave.

We are glad to know that the condition of Mrs. Dr. M. E. Robinson is more favorable since yesterday, and hopes are now entertained for her ultimate recovery.

Our former townsman Mr. Chas. H. Stansell, now a resident of Guyton, Ga., has temporarily returned to this city for the benefit of his health, and is welcomed by his many friends.

Our Register of Deeds issued the following marriage licenses this week: Levin J. Bedford to Miss Martha Kirby, Mike Owens to Miss Lossy Arnett, W. L. Scott to Miss Martha O. Minshew.

At the Republican speaking here last Saturday it was very noticeable that the Third party and the Republicans in this county are working harmoniously together, resorting to anything to beat the Democrats.

A young man from Stony Creek township took out a marriage license Tuesday, but not being certain of getting the girl, on account of parental obstinacy, he requested us to withhold his license for the present.

A destructive fire visited Kenansville Saturday night, laying in ashes the hotel and the entire block of stores and dwellings. The fire originated in the roof of Mr. E. A. Farrior's residence from a defective flue.

Gen. W. R. Cox and Mr. Jas. P. Edmondson, a seventy-year-old farmer from Johnston county, spoke at Princeton Monday, and at Beulah, Tuesday. They dispensed sound Democratic doctrines and made many converts.

Notwithstanding the fact that so many new dwelling houses have been built here this year, the demand is largely in excess of the supply. Many people are prevented from coming here because they cannot obtain a place to live.

After a five days illness with pneumonia, little Annie, the two-and-a-half year old daughter of our townsman Mr. E. M. Denning, departed this life Sunday morning at 3 o'clock. The funeral was held from the residence on William street, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. M. D. Hix, officiating.

A correspondent from Clinton sends us the following: While John B. Robinson and Ad. Sutton, two colored men, were setting up with a corpse Friday night, they became involved in a dispute, whereupon Sutton struck Robinson with a pole on the head, causing a fracture of the skull, from which he died soon after.

The celebration of Columbus Day by our citizens last Friday was carried out on an elaborate scale and will be pleasantly remembered for years to come by those who witnessed it. All honor to the efficient management and our patriotic citizens.

A good crowd of Third partyites were in the city Monday to hear Marion Butler, but he gave them the "go by," bound for Greenville. Yesterday he spoke at Snow Hill and had his hide peeled off by our eloquent townsman, Chas. B. Aycock, Esq.

A grand Democratic rally will be held at Wilson next Thursday, at which Hon. Matt. W. Ransom will address the people on the political issues of the day. It will be a grand affair and ought to be attended by thousands of people from far and near.

There is not a candidate in the Democratic county ticket who does not commend himself to popular support and the suffrages of the people. They are men of character, integrity and intellectual qualifications, and well fitted to discharge the duties of the respective offices.

The funeral of the late Fab. E. Sasser, will be preached by Rev. W. H. Pucket, of the Smithfield circuit, on Sunday, November 5th, at Ebenezer church, Fork township, at 3 p. m. The following Friday all the effects of the deceased will be publicly offered for sale.

The Atlantic Coast Line R. R. and associated system with their accustomed liberality, have agreed to furnish tickets for the grand Tobacco Exposition and Land Sale at Rocky Mount, on November 2nd and 3rd, at half price, or at the rate of one fare for the round trip. Let no one miss this grand opportunity of seeing the great progress of this wonderful Eastern Carolina town.

The Chick Medicine Company, after a stay of nearly three weeks in the city, have left for Fayetteville to begin a two weeks engagement at the Opera House. Every member is a born comedian and their nightly entertainments have greatly pleased our citizens. The remedies they sold while here, have been a great boon to the sick and afflicted and have given entire satisfaction in every instance, in fact, doing more than claimed for.

The Republican harangue, by ex-Judge David M. Furches and others on the Republican State ticket, at the court house Saturday, was listened to by a small audience, mainly composed of negroes. While the Democratic party came in for a great deal of abuse, the Third party offspring was gently patted on the back.

It was very noticeable, that at every fling made toward the Democracy, the Weaverites were the first to vigorously applaud the speaker.

Our county candidates have been hard at work during the campaign. We are glad to note that while they have stood firm and plied vigorous lies, they have maintained a thoroughly genteel and manly course, which is even appreciated by their opponents. In Fork township last Thursday, Annanias L. Swinson, in his attempt to answer certain charges brought against him in these columns, became very boisterous but was promptly squelched by Mr. W. R. Allen. They spoke at Indian Springs yesterday and to-day they will speak at Seven Springs.

The Third Party in Song.

During the performance of the Chick Medicine Company, Saturday night, Mr. Harry F. West, one of its members, "brought the house down" when he added the following popular local hit to the famous song, "Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-aye:"

A Third party ticket is in the field, Composed of men who turkeys steal; Mariam Butler tried to speak, But R. B. Glenn knocked him off his feet; Old Pat. Exum has skipped the State, No more he'll hear the billy goats bleat; Turn-coat Butler has run out of lies, And now from a Democrat he flies.

Chorus:—Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-aye. In next November there'll be a race With Ben and Grover to set the pace; For the White House chair they will chase To see who'll get that coveted place; But oh, what a glorious time up there, When Grover Cleveland takes the chair; We'll dig a grave and dig it deep, And put old Weaver and Fields to sleep. Chorus:—Ta-ra-ra-boom-de-aye.

Gone To His Reward.

The sudden demise of Mr. Emil Rosenthal which occurred Friday night at 11:30 o'clock, of heart failure, was startling to our community the next morning, in-as-much, as the deceased returned from New York Friday evening apparently hale and hearty, having been there to visit his son Albert, who is at school. He attended religious services at the synagogue that night and seemed to be in the best of spirits. At 11 o'clock he retired and a few minutes later he complained of a pain at his heart, and expired in his arm chair soon after before medical aid could be summoned. He was 60 years of age.

Mr. Rosenthal came to this State from Bavaria, Germany, when a mere youth and established himself in business at Raleigh. He afterwards moved to Wilson and in 1882 came to this city, when he became a member of the firm of H. Weil & Bros., a house second to none in this section of the state. He leaves a large amount of property, the accumulation of his industry and frugality.

Kind, considerate, generous to a fault, Mr. Rosenthal gathered around him a large circle of friends and in the family circle was endeared by a noble father's love. He leaves a wife, two sons and a daughter to mourn his demise, and in him the community loses a citizen, whom it could not well spare. His remains were taken to Baltimore Sunday morning where the interment was made in the family burying ground that afternoon, in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends.

Weaver, The Tyrant.

EDITOR HEADLIGHT:—Mr. C. A. Bundy of Lemay, P. O., Johnston county, to satisfy himself and neighbors that the record of Gen. Jas. B. Weaver, Third party candidate for President, as shown up in the Atlanta Journal and the Press generally, was not "a pack of newspaper lies," wrote to Pulaski to know the truth of the matter and received the following letter, the original of which is in the hands of Mr. E. J. Holt, of Smithfield, N. C.

Pulaski, Tenn., Oct. 8th, 1892. C. A. Bundy, Esq.

Dear Sir:—Yours of the 3rd inst. to hand and in reply will state that Mr. D. K. Cox was arrested at the instance of J. B. Weaver while at Pulaski and treated with every indignity until paid out of prison by the citizens of this county and I am informed by his son that when D. K. Cox died that he still wore upon his ankles the imprint of the shackles put upon him at the time.

In addition this outrage and all others published in the press is "but a drop in the bucket," to the whole amount of devilment done by him during his brief authority both here and at other points in Tennessee.

Respectfully,
J. B. STACY.
