

THE GOLDSBORO HEADLIGHT.

ESTABLISHED 1887.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, APRIL 27, 1893.

VOL. VI. NO. 33.

Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the liver. If the liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head full or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirit is depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general despondency and the blues. The liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons' Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested it personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Trembling Chills, it is the best medicine the world ever saw.—H. H. Jones, Madison, Ga.

AFTER THE SPOILS.

Bill Arp Has a Few Remarks to Make About Office Seekers.

That man is to be pitied who is constrained to seek an office for a living. And yet there are some good men who do it. I know some whom office fits and adorns. General Young for instance—for he is a courtly gentleman and will represent our government in a courtly and gracious manner. He will keep the peace without humbling our national pride. He would have kept it with Chile if he had been there, instead of Egan. I have great admiration for such men and am glad to see them get office. Office that exercises their grace and gentility—office that does not require much work, but is a kind of genteel sinecure with abundant perquisites. We regret to lose him from Cartersville, to miss the genial welcome with which he greets his friends, but if he wants the office we want him to have it. He deserves anything that he will ask for, and Mr. Cleveland has made no mistake in this case. Now, if he will keep up his reputation for sagacity and appoint Bascom Myrick and John Temple Graves and Camilla Underwood to the places they seek, the good people of Georgia will approve it. I am no politician, but I know our prominent citizens and what they are worth. Suppose Mr. Myrick was for Hill. He was not an offensive partisan, and if every Hill man is to be boycotted, then Mr. Cleveland will have to build up a party of his own, and a good many of us will be left out. Mr. Cleveland said that a public office is a public trust, which means that a public trust should have no revenges—no friends to reward or enemies to punish. If Mr. Cleveland refuses to nominate Mr. Myrick simply because he was a Hill man, it will mortify his friends in Georgia, of whom I was one—not the first one, perhaps, but one from the beginning. It already mortifies me that Mr. Cleveland has refused Mr. Myrick to bring the files of his paper for inspection. It is said, too, that John Temple Graves' application hangs fire because General Gordon is mad with Graves for supporting Pat Calhoun for the Senate. I do not believe it. General Gordon is not that kind of a man unless he has greatly changed. He used to be large-hearted and liberal in his charity to all his fellow citizens. He had no petty animosities and never nursed his revenge to keep it warm. Newspaper reporters hunt up sensations and write many things from rumor that are not true and their victims are kept busy denying their false accusations. May the good Lord deliver us all from their gimlets and daggers and insinuations, and hence I do not believe that General Gordon is fighting Graves because Graves preferred Calhoun. We would rejoice to see John Temple sent to Switzerland and I wish that I could go, too, and with him climb the Matterhorn and hear him apostrophize that historic and beautiful country in one of his sublimest flights of eloquence. Then there is my friend Underwood, who is the best all round man I ever knew, and I believe could fill any place respectably. He has filled many from the chaplain of a regiment down to the editor of a country newspaper and did it well. He is the loving husband of one wife, the father of eleven children—most girls—the best Baptist preacher I ever heard, the best farmer and gardener, and with all a most genial companion—and yet he wants to go to Havana for what I don't know unless he needs the money that is in it or wants to convert its sunburnt people to Christianity and immerse the whole island to make sure of their salvation. I don't know whether he was a Hill man or a Cleveland man nor do I care. I do know that he is fit for the office. Neither of these men are professional politicians. They never degraded themselves by cavorting around and laying plans and scheming for their own personal advantage. What a pitiful spectacle it is to see some of our Georgians wrangling in the fifth of crumination and excommunication in order to get office at Washington. The Atlanta papers are full of the strife that goes on from day to day and if I were Mr. Cleveland I would say "Gentlemen you are not the men I am looking for," and I would select some good men who have made no noise and kicked up no dust about this business. There are plenty of good men in Atlanta who would fill those offices but whose modesty and conservatism forbid their asking for them. As a general thing it is the loud-mouthed, noisy politicians who seek the offices and get them. I was glad to read that Mr. Cleveland was going to break up the slates and take a hand in the appointments. Of course he can't do it all, but he can find out where the rings are and break them. These political rings that parcel out the offices in secret conclave are the curse of our Georgia politics. It is said that the ring is already formed, that is to fill all our offices from governor down, and it includes the successor to Senator Colquitt. It was

A NATION'S DOINGS.

The News From Everywhere Gathered and Condensed.

A portion of Pennsylvania was visited by a big snow storm Saturday. Falling under a train near Altoona, Pa., Friday, C. L. Lloyd, a brakeman, was cut in two. A premature blast with dynamite, caused the death of three railroad workmen near Pittston, Pa., Saturday. George Ross, a 13-year-old boy, had both eyes knocked out by William Eckhardt in New York city, Friday. Gargling his throat with ammonia by mistake, Sunday night, caused the death of Chas. Piring at Camden, N. J. For placing arsenic in the coffee of three relatives, Viola Thompson, aged 14, was jailed Monday at Cape May, N. J. By the explosion of a powder magazine at Lima, O., Tuesday, Clark Robinson and Benjamin Dowe lost their lives. Emory Clark and Samuel Percy were killed Saturday in a boiler explosion at a twine mill near Providence, R. I. Despondent from ill health, Dr. J. W. Stafford, of Graham, W. Va., blew his brains out before a mirror on Saturday. While jumping from a train at St. Clair, Pa., Monday, John McKee, was struck by another train and instantly killed. In attempting to ford the Juniata river at Flowing Springs, Pa., Monday, Murray Jekes and his horse were drowned. Lewis Thomas, colored, killed Stephen Catchings, also colored, at Atlanta, Ga., Sunday night, the result of jealousy. Dr. W. S. Cardwell, a prominent physician of Lebanon, Ky., committed suicide, Sunday night, by taking morphine. Harry Haring fatally shot Annie Kurtz at Allen, Pa., Thursday, because she refused to marry him and then shot himself. The explosion of a boiler in a saw mill at Rossville, O., Saturday, caused the instant death of Harry Rex and Edward McClary. Having confessed embezzlement of $700 from his employer, Ludwig Marsch, a New York clerk, shot himself at his desk Saturday. While playing in a lumber yard at Richmond, Va., Friday, Ollie Brown, aged 12, was crushed to death by a piece of timber falling on him. A mob of twenty-five lynched Hannagan Thornton, colored, at Morrilltown, Ark., Tuesday night, for murdering constable Charles F. Pate. At Centerville, W. Va., Thursday, by the falling of an engine tank, J. V. Dennison was instantly killed and four others were seriously injured. Craved by grief over the recent death of her husband, Mrs. Frances Harris, committed suicide with poison at New Haven, Conn., Saturday. While Mrs. James Doby was handling a gun to her husband from a window at Suwanee, Ga., Friday, it was discharged and she was killed. A cyclone passed through portions of Texas, Mississippi, Arkansas and Wisconsin, Thursday, destroying whole towns and killing many people. In attempting to board a running passenger train at Bloomsburg, Pa., Friday, Walter Savage was thrown under the wheels and horribly mangled. Insane from illness, Rev. S. D. Roberts, of Lincoln, Neb., a prominent Methodist divine, left home last week and was found Monday almost famished. Resenting a drunken cowboy's shot into the house, John Anderson, the groom, put fatal buckshot into three serenaders at Charivari, Kas., Monday night. Andrew Campbell, a farmer at Bangor, Mich., Monday, shot and killed his former wife, from whom he was recently divorced and then took his own life. The clothing of Mr. Claus Frahm, an invalid at Hastings, Neb., caught fire Friday and she jumped into a bath tub to quench the flames and was drowned. During a fit of mental derangement, Tuesday, A. Bevins threw himself under a Southern Pacific train at Portland, Oregon, and was ground to death. Lee Newell and Leon Styles were burned to death Saturday in the calaboose at Stanberry, Mo. They fired the building in the hope of gaining their liberty. Nine men were instantly killed and six others seriously injured on the line of the drainage canal at Rome, Ill., Monday, by the falling of a massive iron crane. John Driscoll, of Buffalo, N. Y., crawled into a freight car, and when found at Pittsburg, Pa., Tuesday, he was nearly dead, having been six days without food or water.

ALL OVER THE STATE.

A Summary of Current Events for the Past Seven Days.

The Guilford Greys, of Goldsboro, have disbanded. A destructive cyclone visited Wrightsville, near Wilmington, Thursday night. Winston has a letter carrier who uses a horse in making his rounds and another a bicycle. A colored woman named Patterson was jailed at Hillsboro, Monday, on the charge of infanticide. An old lady of eighty years resides in Cabarrus county, who has never seen a town or a train of cars. Burlington will hold an election on the 6th of June to issue $20,000 subscription to the Burlington and Southwestern railroad. J. W. Morgan, aged 70, of Brunswick county, committed suicide Thursday by taking laudanum, caused by family troubles. For being "tired of this world," Lawson Eagle killed himself in Cabarrus county, Sunday, by taking an overdose of laudanum. A colored employe at a saw mill in Pitt county was literally cut to death, Saturday, while attempting to step over a log in motion. A negro named Bullock, of Alamance county, was jailed at Graham, Tuesday, charged with making a criminal assault on a white woman. In a dispute between two colored men in Yadkin county, Saturday evening, one named Martin was struck in the head with a hoe and killed. Rosetta Redwood, colored, of Halifax county, who had been missing from her home since March was found Tuesday by fishermen in the Roanoke river. In Asheboro, Sunday, the three-year-old child of B. Burnett was burned to death. It had been left in the room alone for a short time and its clothing caught fire. Fire at Kinston, Thursday evening, destroyed ten residences and a colored church within two hours, causing a loss of nearly $20,000. The fire originated in the church. Walter Taylor, a colored boy aged about 14 years, was jailed at Wadesboro, Tuesday, on the charge of committing an assault upon an old colored woman in Anson county. Three stores at Conover, Catawba county, were broken into, Monday night, but all the thieves carried off was 17 cents from one store and a box of cartridges from another. William B. Pnett, aged 35, committed suicide at his home in Caldwell county, Sunday morning, by blowing out his brains with a pistol. Too much whiskey was the cause. Beginning to-morrow, Charlotte will be made a first-class money order office and will be made a depository for the various money order offices in the surrounding country. Will Means, colored, was jailed at Concord, Saturday, for attempting a criminal assault upon a white lady, Mrs. Melton, after forcing an entrance into her bedroom Friday night. At Charlotte, Thursday, a difficulty occurred between John R. Eddins and his clerk, Chas. Stone, in the former's book store, in which Eddins was severely wounded in the head by an ink stand hurled at him by Stone. A fight took place at Salisbury, Thursday, between Mayor T. C. Linn and Alderman D. M. Miller, resulting in bruised faces. No weapons were used, but Miller drew the mayor of having drawn a pistol and a pair of brass knucks on him. The members and minister of the colored Methodist church at King's Mountain, were disturbed Sunday night by an intoxicated negro, Zeke Rhyne. His conduct was very bad, as he cursed the minister in the pulpit and interrupted the services. All the suits against the R. & D. R. R., growing out of the wreck at Boston's bridge, near Statesville, on August 27th, 1891, in which 22 persons were killed and 30 wounded, have been compromised. This wreck cost the company at least $100,000. Gov. Carr has made requisition on Sam. Tillman, of South Carolina, for Gov. Cannon, a negro who stands charged with the double crime of burglary and assault with intent to commit rape at the house of Mrs. Julia E. Brown, in Robeson county. Adjutant General F. H. Cameron states that the board of officers recently ordered by the Governor to inspect the camp grounds at Wrightsville found them in such condition that they were forced to report adversely as to the fitness and condition for occupancy during the present year. At Kernersville, Saturday, Henry and Joe Dickens, two brothers, and Adrian Walker, engaged in a shooting match. They fell out about who was the best shot and Henry Dickens shot Walker twice in the breast. Strate to say the wounded man disappeared and has not been seen since. The Dickens brothers have been arrested.
