know not whence I came; I know not whither I go; But the facts stand clear that I am here In this world of pleasure and woe,

And out of the mist and murk Another truth shines plain: It is in my power each day and hour To add to its joy or pain. I know that the earth exists;

It is none of my business why, cannot find out what it's all about; I would but waste time to try. My life is a brief, brief thing. I am here but a little space: And while I stay I would like, if I may, To brighten and better the place

The trouble, I think, with us all, Is the lack of a high conceit each man thought he was sent to thi Spot To make it more sweet,

How soon would be gladden the world, How easily right all wrong; If nobody shirked and each one worked To help his fellows along. Cease wondering why you came
