I all William Spicer, be tood over many things.

There is nothing more pure in heaven, And nothing on earth more mild, More full of the light that is all divine Than the smile of a little child.

The sinless lips, half parted With breath as sweet as the air,

O little one, smile and bless me, For somehow—I know not why—
I feel in my soul when children smile

That angels are passing by. I feel that the gates of heaven

Are nearer than I knew,
That the light and the hope of that sweeter world.
Like the dawn, are breaking through.
