Under Sealed Orders.

Out she swung from her moorings, And over the harbor bar; As the moon was slowly rising She faded from sight afar,

And we traced her gleaming canvas By the twinkling evening star. None knew the port she sailed for, Nor whither her cruise would be: Her future course was shrouded er manre course was smeasure.
In silence and mystery;
he was sailing under "sealed orders,"
To be opened out at sea.

So souls, cut off from moorings, Go drifting into the night, Darkness before and around them, With scarce a glimmer of light; They are acting under "sealed orders," And sailing by faith, not sight.

Keeping the line of duty
Through good and evil report,
They shall ride the storms out safely.
Be the passage long or short;
For the ship that carries God's orders
Shall anchor at last in port.
