

The Goldsboro Star.

GOLDSBORO, N. C.
SATURDAY, APRIL 8, 1882.

The Colored State Convention has convened and adjourned. Hon. Jno. C. Daney, of Edgecombe, presided, and Mr. A. S. Richardson of Salisbury, was elected Secretary. The first day's proceedings were quite stormy, but after the permanent organization was perfected, and different committees appointed by the chairman, there was a calm, and business moved on with such intelligence as never before graced the proceedings of a colored convention. There were quite a number of good speeches made during the sitting of the convention, and all tempered by words for the good of North Carolina and her people, irrespective of race, color or previous condition of servitude—in short, we believe the convention was a success and will result in much good to the whole people of the State. The resolution introduced by the Hon. Jas. H. Harris, and adopted by the convention, giving encouragement to the independent movement has waked up the native, and put the whole Democratic party in motion. But the result will not be realized until the 2nd day of November, when some anti-Bourbon will invite Governor Jarvis out and down from the lofty seat which he now occupies as Governor of North Carolina.

A SKETCH OF COL. GEO. B. EVERETT'S REMARKS BEFORE THE COLORED CONVENTION, AND HIS REMARKS ON THE CARB AND GENERAL CONDUCT IN GOLDSBORO.

We have some experience in politics, and the underhanded workings of tricksters. But the manner in which the Hon. Geo. B. Everett conducted himself at, and in the colored State Convention in Goldsboro on 29th ult. is with astonishment to many good people in this section of the State, where he had the good fortune to spend his boyhood. He said on the cars when on his way to the Convention—"That he wanted to be treated as a colored man in the Convention and that he wanted the colored men to consider his claims as though he was a negro."—We are sorry to note that the manner in which he acted, it put us more in the mind of a Boss negro at a corn husking than a white man who claims to be Revenue Collector of the 5th District of North Carolina. He nosed around the Convention for two days trying to get a chance to speak, but whether he was a delegate from Forsyth county, we are not advised, though he was in regular attendance of the proceeding of the Convention and shown a disposition at several times to speak when the judiciary resolution was under discussion, however the evening before the Convention adjourned he was permitted a few minutes to address the convention upon the condition of the colored people in the 5th Revenue District of North Carolina.

He said that he was appointed collector of the 5th District about nine months ago—by "Mr. Garfield" and that a respectable colored man by the name of Prof. Chas. H. Moore, of Greensboro, N. C., had been recommended to him for a position in his office as clerk and who is a graduate of AMHERST College, but he was afraid to appoint him to that position. 1st. Because he had a young man in his office that is the son of a widow, who wrote 329 on every street corner in the town of Winston, during the last campaign and that if he should appoint Chas. H. Moore, he was afraid that some of his clerks would steal something and lay it to Moore.

2nd. Several distilleries had been stopped and others dissolved partnership when they learned that a negro had been recommended to a store keepers position—in his District.

3rd. That he had put up a job on one of the Distilleries in his District to force a negro to be store keeper to a white distillery but the negro had let the cat out of the wallet, and he was forced to employ a white man to satisfy the indignant whites that predominated in his section of the State.

4th. That he requested Chas. H. Moore to go to Washington D. C. on his own expences to request the Secretary of the Treasurer and President Arthur to let him remain in his office, because he was the only man in the 5th District who had ever shown a disposition to recognized the true merit of the negro.

5th. That he appointed a colored man to a clerkship in his office the day before he left Winston at a salary of one thousand dollars a year—and that he could not find one in his district and was compelled to telegraph to Charlotte on Saturday in order to get him in his office on Monday, before he left with him to the Goldsboro Convention on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Everett read several copies of letters (he said) he had written to "General Raum" Commissioner of Internal Revenue at Washington. He was not satisfied with reading a certified copy but had an affidavit as long as his district sworn to by himself upon the Holy Avangelist of the Almighty God, that he did write them in which he said many sweet things about the un-republican manner in which the Federal patronage has been dished out in North Carolina.

6th. He said again that he was willing to do anything to keep Keogh, Wheeler and W. P. Canaday off of his back—and would love the negro in proportion to the support he received from them.

7th. He said that the Lord would deliver his enemies into his hands—and quoted at length the verses of the 12th chapter of St. Mark "Render unto Caesar, the things that are Caesar"—we sincerely hope that Mr. Everett will never be persuaded again to surrender his dignity and follow up a negro convention for we feel for any white man, who has nothing more to do than loiter around a colored convention especially where he is not wanted—and may the Lord deliver him hereafter from such a position.

THE USUAL RESULT.

It is not to be denied that a good sewing machine is one of the most important appurtenances of the modern household. We thought we had a good machine in our household until one day the agent of the New Home presented himself at our door and proceeded to deliver an oration upon its characteristic merits.

"But," we answered, "our machine serves us nicely and suits us well, and we do not care for another."

The agent, however, was persistent, and finally begged the privilege of leaving one of his machines with us, "for the ladies to try."

The request was not unreasonable, so we granted it—but more to oblige the agent than anything else; for we really did not want the machine, and had not the remotest idea of buying it.

The machine once in the house, it was natural that the ladies should look it over. They did so, and as a consequence fell in love with it. They say that without the slightest wish to decry or disparage any other machine, this, all things considered, is, in their opinion, the most desirable one to be had.

The upshot of the whole matter was that the old machine was disposed of, and the Light Running New Home installed into our household—a very fair and satisfactory arrangement being made with the agent.

It is pronounced a genuine beauty and a real comfort, and our folks wanted us to tell other folks about it.

This unrivalled machine is manufactured by JOHNSON, CLARK & CO., 30 Union Square, New York, who wish us to say that all who will send for their new illustrated catalogue and enclose their advertisement (printed on another page), will receive a set of fancy advertising novelties, of value to those collecting cards, etc.
