When the steam fire engine comes what will our City Fathers do with their $2200 soda fountain?

Echo answers what. The devil of this office suggests that it be charged to full capacity and the town mules and Sylvester Pate be attached to it, and have it hauled to the various speaking precincts to furnish gass for the democratic orators in Wayne county during the campaign.

Therefore be it enacted by the City Fathers or Aldermen of the town of Goldsboro, that the soda fountain, two mules and one corporation negro, by name Sylvester Pate, be and are ordered to be mittee. And by this committee empowered to use said fountain until after the final count, or until the 20th day of November, 1882. Raleigh, June 15, '82.

GOLDSBORO NORMAL SCHOOL.

The first session of the Goldsboro Normal School, for colored teachers, for the counties of Greene and Wayne, will begin on Tuesday, the 13th inst., at the Colored Graded School building, in this city, and continue four weeks.

The following teachers have been selected and the annexed Programme arranged: Prof. E. E. Smith, of the Goldsboro Graded School, Principal; English, Latin, French, Spanish, German, Italian, Russian, Greek, Hebrew, Arabic, Persian, Chinese, Japanese, Hindustani, Malay, and other languages, Calligraphy, and other subjects.

Mrs. G. T. Wasson, History, (U. S.) History.

Mr. J. C. Stevens, of the Goldsboro Graded School—Arithmetic, Orthography, Penmanship. Lectures of School Government will be delivered.

Among the distinguished educators expected to lecture during the term are Hon. K. P. Battle, President of the State University; Rev. H. M. Tupper, President of Shaw University; Hon. J. C. Scarborough, State Superintendent of Public Instruction; Prof. N. R. Roberts, of Shaw University, and Prof. W. R. Harris, of St. Augustine Institute.

It is expected that every colored teacher and person looking forward to teach in the near future will be present.

ED. T. ALBRITTON, Co. Supt. Greene. C. B. AYCOCK, Co. Supt. Wayne.

For the first time in the history of Wayne and Greene a Normal School for the instruction of colored teachers, opened its session of four weeks on the 13th of June, with eighteen teachers present.

The worthy County Superintendent of public schools, Mr. C. B. Aycock, was present, and delivered an able, instructive and eloquent address to the teachers, which was received with marked attention; and be assured ye enemies to popular education, that with such a chief at the head of school affairs in this county, we cannot fail in the effort of improving the youth of said county. The young men and women should interest themselves in the cause of education.

The teachers have heard during the session, instructive addresses from such distinguished gentlemen as Prof. E. E. Green, of Wilmington; Hon. John C. Dancy, of Tarboro; Chas. N. Hunter, Esq., of Raleigh Banner, and Prof. Moore, of Wilson.

The teachers seem now to appreciate the necessity of improvement among themselves.

The STAR urges every person that instructs the youth, not only in Wayne and Greene, to take advantage of every privilege offered by the government tending to raise the standard of education among them. Be ye assured, that any person seeking to instruct the youth in the future must be up with the times or the wheel of progress will grind the would-be instructor into powders, and none but those persons truly interested in the proper training of the youth can seek preferment from the more intelligent in the near future.

Too much cannot be said in praise of our honored County Superintendent; he has shown himself the friend of education, and in the establishment of the Goldsboro Normal School he has enshrined himself in the hearts of the friends of education in this county.

The address has had the wholesome effect of causing the school to increase at the present time of going to press to thirty-five teachers, eager for improvement.

A BRIDE NOT TWELVE YEARS OLD.

In the northeastern portion of this county, on Monday last, there was a romantic matrimonial sensation which is unparalleled in the history of the county, and so far as we know in the State. We briefly give the facts as they have been detailed to us from reliable sources. They are about as follows: It seems that one Louis B. Fosky, a young man about 22 years of age, had been playing the devoted to Miss Martha, daughter of Mr. Wade Evans—for some time, whenever an opportunity presented itself, although she was a child under 12 years of age. Indeed his attentions to the girl had become so marked as to arouse the suspicions of the parents, and to cause them to be on the alert. But Monday last her father being engaged in shearing sheep at his brother's, a short distance from his home, Miss Martha took advantage of his temporary absence, and met her would-be liege lord at Mr. Tom Bennett's, a neighbor's house, about two miles from her home. The necessary license had previously been obtained, and the justice of the peace, J. C. Thompson, was sent for. Upon seeing the extreme youthful and child-like appearance of the would-be bride, it is said that Mr. Thompson declined to perform the ceremony until assured by Mr. Bennett, at whose house they were, that the father had consented to the marriage.

Judge Thompson then proceeded to tie the knot, and about ten minutes after the couple had been pronounced man and wife, the vexed father, who had been notified of his daughter's absence from home, appeared upon the scene. The groom was standing in the doorway, and, as the father, wild with anxiety, attempted to enter the house, the groom drew a pistol, and, it is said, snapped it at Mr. Evans, whereupon Evans ran upon Fosky, seized the pistol and wrenched the same from his hand, proceeded to pommel him with it over the head. Fosky succeeded in getting away from Evans, however, and ran into the house. The girl bride in the meantime had gone out the back door and was walking in the direction of the parental home she had abandoned but a short time before. The groom, seeing her movements, attempted to follow, but Mr. Evans, leveling the pistol upon him which he had but a few moments before wrenched from his hand, commanded him to stop, which he did. Mr. Evans then overtook his daughter and accompanied her home, where she still remains.—Eastman, Ga., Times.

CREMATION.

The Pennsylvania University in West Philadelphia has established a crematory, and the bodies dissected by the students are reduced to ashes very quickly, and at little expense. The Philadelphia Board of Health has under consideration a proposition to cremate the bodies of small-pox patients who die at the hospital, thus averting the danger of infection to the living while burying the dead.

It seems, says the Philadelphia Times, that the hanging of Guiteau is not to remove the ill-starred Guiteau family from public notice.

A late report from Milwaukee indicates that Mrs. Scoville Guiteau's sister, has applied for a divorce at Waukesha from her husband, Gorge Scoville, on account of failure to support her properly. He will resist the application for the divorce, but desires a separation. He claims that she left an unpaid board bill at the Astor House when she left there on the day she was to deliver her lecture. Two or three very bitter quarrels are described as having taken place between the couple, in one of which Mr. Scoville threatened to jump overboard from the boat on which they were crossing the lake.

SAMARITAN NERVINE Cures Alcoholism, Drunkenness and the habit of Opium Eating. These degrading habits are by far the worst evils that have ever befallen suffering humanity. Thousands die annually from these noxious drugs. The drunkard drinks liquor not because he likes it, but for the pleasure of drinking and treating his friends, little thinking that he is on his road to ruin. Like the Opium Eaters, he first uses the drug in small quantities as a harmless antidote. The soothing influence of the drug takes strong hold upon its victim, leading him on to his own destruction. The habits of Opium Eating and Liquor Drinking are precisely what eating is to aliment veins, as over-eating first influences the stomach, which redoubles its cravings until it paralyzes both the stomach and appetite. So every drink of liquor or dose of Opium, instead of satisfying, only adds to its fierce fers, until it consumes the vital force and then itself. Like the gluttonous tape-worm, it cries "Give, give, give!" but never enough until its own rapacity devours itself. Samaritan Nerve gives instant relief in all such cases. It produces sleep quiets the nerves, builds up the nervous system, and restores body and mind to a healthy condition.
