Make the fight within the Party.

This is the caption of a most excellent editorial written by that level headed editor J. A. Bonitz of the Wilmington Messenger of the 19th inst. We only regret that our columns are so short we cannot copy the whole, but every word and line of it we heartily commend to the careful consideration of the Democrats of North Carolina, and especially to the Democrats of Orange and Durham counties.

Every man who claims to be a Democrat is so from a matter of principle because they believe the principles of the democratic party are right and means the good of the citizen and blessing and prosperity of the State. No intelligent man can have failed to see that since the State Government has been entrusted to the keeping of the democrats, its course has been leading upward and onward to success. North Carolina at no period of her existence as a State, has enjoyed a greater advancement in all material wealth, than she has since her destiny was placed in the hands of the democratic party. This is an undeniable fact. Then if we are North Carolinians, if we love North Carolina, if we, at all desire the continued prosperity of our State, why should we let local differences divide us? Why should we become indifferent to the main cause, or help the enemy to destroy the best interest we have. If we are disgruntled at the Fence Law, the Prohibition, or the manner of working the public roads, questions purely local and upon which people of both parties differ, can you be bettered in going to the Republican party? If you are opposed to the Internal Revenue who imposed it upon you? Who used it for 20 years to grind down the people, murder its citizens and in every way abused its trust, but the Republican party. When they were in power did you ever hear a Republican clamor for its repeal. They pretend to do so now, but can you believe they are in earnest? Do you not know that if the Republican party should again come into power they would not repeal the Internal Revenue tax. These promises in this line is far from sincere. Do you not know that if the Republicans should once more have the control of this State it would be a renewed license to repeat the corruptions of 1868-69, can any sane man doubt it, would they not think that their villanies then was condoned or approved of by the people by aiding them to power again.

Democrats! stop and think and ask yourselves the question, can we not reconcile our local differences in our own ranks.

It is true that the Democratic party in North Carolina and generally in the South is thoroughly committed to the repeal of the Internal Revenue tax, it is equally true, also that every Democratic member of Congress from North Carolina have pledged themselves to vote for its immediate repeal, and will do so at the first opportunity. If the delegation in Congress from North Carolina were Republicans would they vote for its unconditional repeal? most assuredly not.

We admit that the Democrats are unnecessarily divided, but purely upon local issues that involve no political principle, "but when State and National questions are at stake, simple local issues ought not to influence any voter who is a true Democrat and certainly ought not to swerve him from the path of his allegiance."

We said in a former issue of the Recorder that there, "must be unity of action and Organization, with it we would succeed, without it, we could not."

We now say to Democrats that if you go to the Independents or Republicans to have your local differences adjusted you will make a grand mistake.

Cooks are popular in Hillsboro, especially if she is a Daisy.

To-day, (Friday the 21st) the President of the United States and his party will stop a few minutes at Asheville and will pass through a portion of North Carolina on his way to Washington, and before this paper is read by our subscribers he will be safe at home. We will be sincerely glad when we hear that he has arrived at home and once more at the head of the Government. We rejoice to know that the chief Executive of sixty-five million of people can travel throughout the country without the fear of danger. It is true, ours is a Democratic country, and the President is simply one of the people; but of late years, it has not been considered always safe for the President to assume that role, and notwithstanding that Socialism is in our midst, we believe the Constitution still prevails.

At Montgomery Ala. the Mayor in behalf of the City Council presented Mrs. Cleveland with a unique and beautiful Souvenir. It was a Jewel case in the form of a bale of cotton 8 inches long. It is made of pure silver and is a very artistic production. On the inside is the following inscription: "Presented to Mrs. Grover Cleveland by the Mayor and City Council as a token of their regard on the occasion of her visit to Montgomery Ala. Oct. 27th 1887."

Our old friend (D. A. Walker) Col. Wm. W. Carraway, U. S. Post Office Inspector, is making his way in Indiana, and as usual, making numerous friends wherever he goes. The "Democrat" and "Republican," both prominent papers in that State speak in high terms of the Colonel.

We see from the Wilmington Star that a number of young men have formed a class, in the "Loisettian School of Physiological Memory or Instantaneous Art of Never-forgetting."

We would be glad to see about 400 persons about here who have promised to subscribe to the "Recorder," form just such a class, they might be enabled to remember their promise.

It is a fact that the moon will get full twice during the present month, on the first and thirty-first. She will come mighty near doing the same thing in December—but she won't.—Plant.

Then the Moon will be an exception to the general rule, for December, about the 25th thereof, a great many people get full more than twice.

The dirty scamp of the Menneapolis "Tribune" now admits his error in his vile slander upon Mrs. Cleveland upon the occasion of her visit there a week or two ago, and asks pardon for the same.

The steamer "Regulator" of the Clyde line of 850 tons was burned at Wilmington on the 20th inst. cargo of cotton, naval stores and lumber, valued at $50,000 was entirely lost.

A Prolific Family.

The St. Louis Republican says: A remarkable group of ladies are Mrs. Norman Taylor, of Norborne and her three married daughters. Mrs. Taylor has herself twice given birth to twins, a boy and a girl on each occasion. One of the daughters, Mrs. Preston S. Pounds, of Norborne, married in 1874, is the mother of eight children, three of whom were delivered at a birth. These triplets, two girls and a boy, are now 6 years old and are as healthy, strong and bright as any parents could wish their children to be. At birth the boy weighed eight pounds and the girls seven and six pounds respectively. Mrs. Pounds is 33 years old, six feet in height, and weighs 170 pounds. Her husband is three years older, five feet high, and tips the beam at only 130 pounds. Mrs. Pounds's sister, Mrs. Henry Shaffer, is the mother of a pair of hearty girl twins, now 9 years old, and the third sister, Mrs. Robert Turner, of Stafford county, Kan., has a son and daughter born on the same day, who are now 8 years old and may live to be 100, so far as perfect health and physical soundness are concerned.

Here's Pounds of girls and Pounds of boys, Pounds of yelling and Pounds of noise, Pounds of Paragoric and other Stuff. Mrs. Pounds has pounded Mr. Pounds enough. Recorder.

A call for help from Tampa Fla. comes, asking aid in behalf of the Yellow Fever sufferers:

[For the Recorder.]
Hidden History.

EDITORS OF THE RECORDER: Last July sixty-six years ago, Judge Murphey, dating from Haw River July 20th 1821, writes to Gen. Joseph Graham: "I entreat you to continue your narrative, and give to it all the detail your memory will enable you to give; and notwithstanding you have filled 20 sheets, fill 20 more. I am in correspondence with several gentlemen on these subjects, as well as other parts of the history of North Carolina; but from none have I received communications so circumstantial, connected, and interesting as from you. I wish you to progress through the Revolutionary war, and I will submit to you heads for a further narrative, embracing the prominent points of our history since 1783."

"We want some great stimulus to put us all in motion, and induce us to waive little jealousies and combing in one general march to our great purpose. I hope the evidence will spare your life 'till something can be done for the honor and glory of North Carolina."

Judge Murphey and General Graham both died before they had time to finish their contemplated labors of love to the State. Judge Murphey was engaged in writing its history, and Gen. Graham, engaged in furnishing his narrative of personal experience and observation in the memorable invasion of the British in 1780-81. Correcting the mistakes and errors of Johnston and other historians who had given the credit, and praise due to North Carolina, to Gen. Pickens and South Carolina. I beg you Messrs Editors to publish the correction of these errors by Gen. Graham, you will find them in the files of your own paper printed before either of you were born. It will be hidden history revealed, for the injustice of history to North Carolina was not known until the exposure (or correction) of Gen. Graham. And here let me say some one who took part in the late war, as Gen. Graham did in the old war, must correct the injustice and wrong done North Carolina, by historians and Editors of the late war.

The young man Berry Taylor aged about twenty years, who was run over by the cars at the Fair grounds last Wednesday died the next day at St. John's Hospital in Raleigh. This is indeed, a sad and melancholy death.
