THURSDAY, -- DEC. 1, 1887.

The 50th Congress will convene on the first Monday of December. If the Democrats are wise and wish to continue the Democratic administration, they will at once, modify the Tariff so as to benefit the poor and laboring classes, and reduce the surplus in the Treasury.

There can be no defence made for a party who would uselessly wring money in the way of taxes, from the poor and laboring people, simply to be laid up at Washington to induce wild and dishonest legislation.

There is a dearth of money in the country. The people are suffering for it, every interest lags for the want of it. The Tariff and the inaction of Congress are to blame for it. The party in power are responsible for its continuance and must in the end pay the penalty unless the country is relieved.

Recantation.

We see that Dr. D. C. Kelly Treasurer of the Board of Missions of the M. E. Church South, has written another letter recanting and withdrawing a portion of his articles written for the "American," some time ago relative to his attitude in the Miss Abbott case.

Query. Is he Spiritually or carnally convinced of his error?

Memorials of Greatness.

The Wilmington Star says: May Black Clayton, daughter of the late Judge Jeremiah S. Black, has published a volume of reminiscences, of her father, together with two speeches of great interest—one on the relations of the State and Federal Powers; and another on Railroad Monopoly. Of course we are interested in this publication as we are in all that concerns the fame and personality of one of the greatest men of his time—one of the ablest lawyers and statesmen of this country. Judge Black was a master with the pen. At his death the ablest men admitted his greatness in statesmanship and at the law. His published works are a treasury of profound thought, wise admonition, splendidly invective, corrosive irony, and massive eloquence. They are a monument of great powers wisely directed, and of his love of virtue, country and political honor. He would have made a great President, a great Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, a great Senator, a great Cabinet official. We honor the memory of this noble, honest, candid, patriotic, trustworthy, staunch man—this illustrious American. He is one of "those simple, great ones, gone forever and ever by," we fear. We doubt if such men are bred now; men of the profoundest convictions; of sincerest manhood; of noblest aspirations and ideals; of thorough devotion to principles; of unswerving integrity and entire manliness both in life and motives.

Dover, N. H. Nov. 22.—Mrs. Mary E. Dow, a wealthy lady living here, applied to the supervisors to-day to be qualified as a voter that she might cast a ballot for school committeemen. She was informed that they doubted if she was eligible. Mrs. Dow quoted a law enacted some time ago which had become a dead letter, and after consulting legal authority gave her a certificate and she cast her first ballot this afternoon, she being the first female to vote in this city.

Not wishing or in any way, intending to be profane. Next year we can and will be thankful that our country has triumphantly passed through another national contest, and the occupant in the White House is the same and will be for four years longer. Sabbath.

The result of the local option election in Atlanta the other day was in favor of the Wets by 1000 majority. The probability is now there will be a Whiskey drank in Atlanta.

The Democrats have nothing whatever to gain by adopting a cowardly and truckling policy in the Fiftyeth Congress. They should go earnestly and honestly to work, to redeem the reform pledges made in the Chicago platform. Nothing less than this will satisfy the country. Nothing less will put the party on winning ground in 1888. A party which shows no disposition to make good its promises cannot win the confidence of the people or retain their support.—Daily Hornet.

These are the sentiments we have often urged and do now fully endorse. It is just as important for parties to be faithful to their obligations and promises as it is for individuals.

Recorder.

Heri Most, the New York Anarchist is now on trial in New York for a speech recently delivered. This speech is said to be of the most inflammatory and incendiary kind, and calculated to do great harm.

It seems that nearly all the large cities in the North and West are infested with these devils. If the Military authorities in these cities were to give these devils a dose of grape and canister they would do the world and the balance of mankind a great favor.
