The Campaign is now about open-Maics are running high .-Northstanding this, prices are the regree. They are now lower of Will. Actifield's than usual. eder to enable candidates of parses to make a good canvass, be has reduced the prices of his whole line of Cothing lower than ever before; and also to enable the people to go nicely dressed up and feel as well as any of the candidates before the election and a great deal better than alout twothirds of them will feel after the result of the count becomes fully known. He now proclaims to ev m bely-candidates, voters, lades and children-that they can buy more Shors, Dress Goods, or any thing he keeps, for a little rea dress, than ever before. So do be for totall in and let him prove predicts to you before you buy. Helias reduced the prices of all le Summer Goods, Straw Hats, litting, &c., &c., not to cost, but mything he can get for most of them in order to clean up to make lic. nomfor a Fall stock. So remember this when you want to buy.

Some sure things and some in doubt

It is a sure thing that Grover Cleveland has been nominated for President on the Democratic ticket, and another pretty sure thing is that Blaine has positively refused the nomination on the Republican his not a very sure thing who will be the Republican nominee, and another uncertain thing is, aftenall the bastle over nominations, who will be elected; and another deplorable uncertainty is whether the candidate elected will, in mamy respects, please the party that places him in power.

But a sure, certain and fixed fact is, that G. Will. Armfield has one of the largest stocks of Cloth. ing, Shoes, Hats, Dry Goods, Carpets &c., in the State, and notwithstanding this is campaign year and people have no great surplus of honey, he intends to do his usu a amount of business if prices are any inducement to buyers. DAILY PATRIOT.

GREENSBORO, N. C.:

SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1888.

UNDER THE CANVAS .- If the en tire State of North Carolina had been searched from sea to mountain no more suitable place for an encampment for the military of the State could have been tound than Seaside Park, on Wrightsville Sound. The Park includes about fifteen acres of ground, a part of which is shaded by large oaks. The rest is open ground, sloping gradually to the sound. In this beautiful grove the tents, &c., are stretched. The drilling and dress parades will take place in the open field, which affords ample space for handling the troops. Within sight of the Park is the sea. Bathhouses have been built on the Sound near camp for the accommodation of the encampment. Just across the Sound-one mile-is the fine hotel near the beach, built by the Seacoast Railroad Company, which is now open to the pub-

At an early hour this morning the encampment was opened with the usual ceremonies. The reading of orders, programmes, &c., clearly showed in the beginning that the boys were not to have a frolic or picnic. This calling to gether the troops means business, as it should. Why call men from store and farm and shop and office for a dozen days at large expense unless some real good is to come from it? Through the courtesy of the officers in command your corres pondent obtained the official reports of each regiment and company, as follows: The First Regiment, Col. Cotten commanding, has in camp seven companies, numbering two hundred and eighty six men.

The Second Regiment, Col. W C. Jones commanding, has five companies, numbering two hun dred and nineteen men.

The Third Regiment, Col. J. D. Glenn commanding, has seven companies, numbering two hundred and thirty-nine.

Fourth Regiment, Col. J. T. An thony commanding, has seven companies, numbering two hun dred and nine men. From these figures you see there are nine hundred and fifty three men. This does not include all of the officers and musicians.

Large crowds witnessed the dress parade this afternoon, and expressed themselves as being proud of our State Guard, and well they may be, for finer look ing, better drilled soldiers would be hard to find. Brevet Lieutenant Col. Carl A. Woodruff, 2d Artillery, of the United States Army, detailed to visit and inspect our troops, is here, the guest of head quarters. He expressed himself as highly pleased with our military.-Cor. of the News Observer.

ACCIDENT TO CAPT. STRUD-WICK .- We greatly deplore an accident to Hon. F. N. Strudwick which came near terminating fa tally. From the Durham Recorder we learn that on Tuesday night he was riding in the suburbs of Hillsboro when his horse passed partly over a well which had some thin plank lying across the top. The horse and rider were precipitated into the well, a distance of 30 feet, Mr. Strudwick Ifalling first, then the horse with his hind feet first. The well is caved in at the bottom, so that it is not thought A large lot of Seersucker Coats that the horse fell on him. At first Dr. Strudwick thought he was fatally injured, but we are re-Glores, to be closed at less than suring and that he is thought out suring and that he is thought out of danger.-Raleigh News Observer.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

He Died Game.

MONTECELLO, N. Y., July 20-Jack Allen was hung in the court house at 11.45 o'clock today for the murder of Ulsura Ulrich at Jeffersoaville last October. Allen had an iron nerve and sang and prayed under the gallows in a strong clear voice. He asked for a glass of whiskey which was refused him. He put the noose around his own neck and said "let her go Gallagher." The sheriff then pulled the lever and Allen's body swung in the air. His pulse stopped in 11 minutes and his heart ceased to beat in 12 minutes. He was cut down after hanging 143 minutes. The body was then given to the undertaker and interment took place in the potter's field immediatly after the execution. He was an Englishman 34 years of age, and came to this country two years ago. He had no friends here and did not write to his English friends about his trouble. Since he has been in prison Allen had tried the insane and religious dodges in vain.

A Fracas at Matthews.

MATTHEWS, N. C., July 20 - This afternoon an intoxicated man named Hartis insulted and attempt ed to throw down Mr. J. T. Morris who was peaceably passing in front of him. Mr. Morris promptly knocked him down, when Har tis jumped upon him and commenced pounding him in a fright ful manner. They were then separated and arrested. Hartis' wounds are painful but not serious.

The Question Decided to.day.

Washington July 20.—The tariff discussion in the House terminated on the 19th, yesterday, and it only remains for Mr. Mills, Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, to make the brief closing speech at 11 a. m. to morrow (Saturday) and thereupon the vote on the bill will be taken. The result is, of course, a foregone conclusion-but what a relief that the long drawn tariff fight is now at an end!

Fatal Explosion.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20-The explosion of a steam pipe that surplied the engine from , the boilers caused the death of seven men of the crew of the tug boat Convoy at 1.40 o'clock this morning. The accident occurred twenty six miles up the river near West Port, Ind., and most of the men were asleep at the time.

A Democratic Chief Justice.

WASHINGTON, July 20-Melville W. Fuller was today confirmed to be Chief Justice. The speaking on the case was by Messrs. Edmunds, Evarts and Stewart in opposition, and by Messrs. Farwell and Cullom in defense of Mr. Fuller. The Democrats did not speak.
