The Black and Tan Convention.

On Saturday morning a black cloud with a peculiar smell told the people of Greensboro that the Republican party would hold its convention that day, and at 12 m., ex-revenue officer Bilbro called the meeting to order. Ex-senator Morrow was chosen chairman and ex-revenue officer Starbuck secretary. A committee on credentials was appointed and while absent ex-revenue officer Hoskins showed the crowd that a powerful supply of gas was all that God gave him.—He was followed by ex district attorney Boyd, who spoke of the Blair bill, but failed to tell what grand-son Harrison had done for it. The crowd became very boisterous when he mentioned grand pa Harrison, and a big groan came from the black cloud when the speaker said he was a little better than the nigger. Mr. Boyd spoke at some length; said he fought prohibition a few years ago, and was well informed about the western whiskey. We were not surprised. He said he did not expect to make a speech, and the crowd did not think he went beyond his expectations.

Then came the "tug of war."—Nominations for sheriff were in order and poor Eckle had to die—he was not enough of an ex-revenue. Ex-railway postal clerk Hoskins beat him, as ex postmaster White said, "in the first round." J. W. Causey, who said he knew no party, was nominated for register of deeds, ex-store keeper Hodgins for treasurer, ex-brandy gauger Holton for the Senate, ex-revenue officers Starbuck and Kime for the House, after which the crowd adjourned.

Ex-marshal Keogh is again happy, for if the nigger did beat him in Raleigh he downed him at home. The above is the ticket except two unknown men.—This is the ticket they want the men of Guilford to support, but

WINSTON-SALEM GOSSIP.

Pencil Points of Things Generally in and around the Twin City.

[Special correspondence of the Greensboro Patriot.]
WINSTON-SALEM, Aug. 26.—The attraction here just now is Jumbo Jewett, the 649-pound fat man. He is certainly a human monstrosity, that is about the size of him, and he is gathering in the shekels from a curiosity-loving public.

There has been an abundance of railroad talk here for some time past, but matters have now assumed a business aspect. Not less than 1,000 hands, with all the necessary equipments, are moving dirt now within a radius of ten miles, on our two lines, the Wilkesboro and Roanoke and Southern. The former is to be completed as far as Rural Hall, and trains running by Christmas. There the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. will be tapped and the road extended on, either to Wilkes county or Ashe county—the former, of course, if subscriptions cannot be extended.

By a hurried estimate we readily count contracts already let for the erection of $150,000 worth of buildings in our town—a veritable boom and no mistake. These include stores, residences, tobacco factories, &c.

Next week a special through train will pass through your city freighted with young lady pupils for Salem Academy. The train starts away down in the lone star State. The fall season opens next Tuesday.—The attendance will be the largest for years. An addition, 60x70 feet is being added to the Academy to accommodate all applications, and even now it is the largest female college in the South, and the most thorough.

A large number of our citizens will attend your Firemen's Tournament next month. The Salem company will enter for the prizes, and the boys are practicing diligently. The Winston company will probably bring a reel. By mutual agreement both engines do not leave the town at one time. The last visit to Greensboro was made by the Winston boys, so it is Salem's turn next.

Mr. J. T. Alexander, of Wilkes county, was here this week showing specimens of gold nuggets and dust taken from his mine near Trap Hill, Wilkes county. It is operated as yet on a small scale by J. S. Holbrook & Co., but the returns are gratifying. In two days four men unearthed $8 worth of dust. This, thus far, is about the average returns.

Although our people wanted Buxton for Congress, they acquiesced without a murmur in the action of the convention, and will give Col. Morehead a rousing welcome when he comes this way and a still more effective manifestation of esteem at the polls in November next.

It is reported here that O. B. Watson, Esq. and solicitor Settle came very near getting to an exhibit of muscular power at Surry court last Monday. They held a joint discussion and their retorts became too personal for each other's comfort.

Our Sambo and Dinah population are happy. Watermelons are abundant and excursion fever rages high. Three hundred visited Danville last Monday. Another cargo will excurt to Mt. Airy next Monday.

The Durham folks are after our Dr. Jas. A. Blum to aid in preparing their elaborate exhibit this fall.—The doctor has an enviable reputation in arranging displays for public demonstration. His services would prove a valuable acquisition to our Durham friends.

H. A. Watkins & Bro. make an assignment. The firm is a new one, and the liabilities and assets are about equal.

Quite a number of lots of new tobacco have appeared upon the market. The first installment came in at least a month ago.

We read the DAILY PATRIOT with much interest. Our people are doing the good part by our journals, and to them Winston Salem are indebted for a large amount of their prosperity. This is a broad assertion, but a fact not to be disputed. Let Greensboro do her part for the PATRIOT, and we are confident the results will be returned a hundred fold. It is a bright, wide awake paper, and all who read it so pronounce it.

LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Thurman En Route.

Chicago, August 25.—Judge Thurman and his party on Friday travelled in the private car of General Manager Spicer, of the Grand Trunk Line, and it was understood that they were the guests of the road. However, before reaching South Bend the superintendent of the road managed to get orders to the conductor to collect fare from the entire party. It was a disagreeable task for him, but he obeyed orders, and every member of the party, including Judge Thurman himself, paid for his passage with good solid cash. The parade of to day began to form some time before noon, although 12 o'clock was the time set, and soon after that hour marched through the streets to escort the Judge and his party to the train on which they were taken to Cheltenham Beach. Prominent in parade were organizations of naturalized citizens with mottoes such as "We make citizens legally," "No dynamite in ours," and other expressions of their loyalty to their adopted country. The traveling men and local political organizations, some organizations from neighboring towns, the bands and carriages made up the rest of the procession. Judge Thurman was greeted with great enthusiasm by an immense crowd that filled the sidewalks along the line of march. At the beach a grand barbecue had been prepared at which ten beeves and twenty sheep were served, besides car loads of other eatables and drinkables. No expense had been spared to make the day a grand success.

The Shelby Democratic Senatorial Convention.

Shelby, N. C., August 25.—The Democratic Senatorial Convention thirty eighth district, met at Cherryville to day and was called to order by Capt. J. W. Gidney, who was elected permanent chairman. Jno. F. Leeper, of Gaston, was nominated by acclamation—a good selection. He is very popular in both Cleveland and Gaston.

Hons. R. McBrayer and James L. Webb addressed a large crowd after the convention.

C. M. Lattimers was elected chairman district executive committee.

North Carolina Politics.

Charlotte, N. C., August 25.—The new cotton-mill at Gastonia is complete, the work of putting in machinery being done. It will commence operations the latter part of September.

The Third party has nominated a county ticket in Iredell county. Candidate Walker spoke there some days ago, and organized a club with thirty members. It is said all the leaders are Radicals.

For the past ten days or more great progress has been made in organizing Democratic clubs. Every day new ones are reported, and still the work goes on.

Shot Through a Window.

St. Paul, Minn., August 25.—From Currie, Minn., the Pioneer Press has news of the assassination Wednesday, near Tracy, of Moses T. Lufkin. Lufkin was shot through a window of the house of Eli Slayyers, at which he was a guest. He had had trouble with the Ross and Averill families, and had slander suits pending against them.

Yellow Fever.

Jacksonville, Fla., August 25.—No new cases have been reported to the board of health in this city since 9 o'clock last evening. Quite a number will be reported this afternoon. There is one new case and one death at Greenland. The board to-day rescinded its action declining to furnish the names and residences of the patients for publication.

NEW FALL GOODS.

As the stocks of Spring Goods this season have become exhausted, so much so that it is impossible for customers to get what they want, I have replenished with an

selected to the late Summer and Fall trade. The goods are in the house in shape to furnish all of my trade and the public generally with the very latest styles the market affords, in all of the

with Trimmings to match.

And I can assure all that my

BLACK GOODS DEPARTMENT

is better supplied than ever before with all kinds and prices of Cashmeres, silk warp Henrietta Cloths, Jubilee Cloths, Flannels, Black Silks, and a full line of the latest Trimmings to match.

CLOTHING.

The Clothing Department is better supplied than ever before, as I have closed out most of my old stock. The trade compelled me to fill in ahead of the season, so I have now in stock the largest and best selected assortment of Clothing I have ever offered, and at prices lower than ever before. All I ask is a trial before you purchase.

SHOES.

The Shoe Department is now about complete, and all I have to say is just call in and you will be suited in style and price.

HATS.

If you want a Straw Hat to spice out the season, come in and you can get one very reasonable. I will not say at cost, for you would not believe it, as that is an old song—and not many merchants ever succeeded in selling on such terms.

Fur, Wool and stiff Hats to suit every body.

THE CARPET DEPARTMENT will be complete in a few days, as the order for my fall stock is now in the mills and will be filled in a short time.

I can supply the demand with every thing in the line of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Curtains.

Call and see for yourselves. I have been doing business too long to sing the old song of "Rock Bottom." "Below every one else," "Cost," and many other such straws; but come and see and you will be treated politely and business-like.

Respectfully,

G. WILL ARMFIELD.
