GREENSBORO, N. C. THURSDAY, SEPT. 20, 1888. Z. W. WHITEHEAD, ED. AND PROP-J. H- MYROVER, ASSOCIATE LEDITOR

1 week El month. -3

tal money order, express, or in registered letter Only such remittances will be at the risk of the publisher.

diversified business interests of progressive Greens-boro: the Agricultural, Industrial and Horticul-ural interests of Guilford county, the Fifth Con-gressional District and the "Old North State" for-ever.

pressed by correspondents.

pharge.

to the victor belongs the spoils."

pired, charged transient rates for the time actually published. Advertising rates furnished on application at this office.

of candidates for office, will be charged for , a advertisements.

day, November 6.

of life, in order to benefit the rethe condition of every 31st man. demonstrate clearly the fallacy of this claim of the protectionistprices are regulated by the laws of fellow's face; it was very white, and I think he was more frightened than I was. I gave him all the silver I had about me; he said "Good night" civilly enough, and started off towards London.

and before I went to bed I drew the man's face very carefully. The next morning I went to Bow street with my drawing, hoping it might be recognized by the officers there, but no! The face, they said, was

"If you will leave the likeness scarcely passed before I was called

A pretty woman said the other

INSANITY .- Thirty years ago insanity was almost unknown among

Cleveland, writing an open letter which gives the "reasons for the faith that is within him." Here follows one extract:

Republican friends, as I have no interest in Canada, and as I own large saw mills and timber lands in the States, that they do not see how I can vote for Cleveland, and allow lumber to come in to be sold duty free in our markets. My answer is: there a hundred persons who need to use lumber to one en. gaged in manufacturing it. Ought the government to compel the hundred to pay more for their lumber in order that the one may be benefited?"

We have for a long time contended that it was at least a sound economic argument against protection-even if the selfishness of the view taken placed it on a lower and less patriotic plane of reasoningthat over 95 per cent. of the American people were asked to submit patiently to a tariff which compels