LATEST NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

A Watery Grave.

Chicago, October 6.—Two men jumped into a sail boat at the life saving station yesterday at noon and started for South Chicago. When off Thirty-Ninth street their boat capsized and soon after sank with them.

Didn't Know It Was Loaded.

Cumberland, Md., October 6.—Jno. Miller, aged 16, and Alfred Groas, aged 14, were accidentally killed at Hyndman, Penn., last evening, by a premature discharge of a gun in the hands of a brakeman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

His Body Cooked.

Denver, Col., October 6.—Sam. C. Pratt met with a terrible death yesterday in the Hot Springs at Nevada. He went down to take a bath and was found a few hours later lying parboiled upon the bank. He died in a short time. It is believed that he plunged into the water, not knowing its intense heat.

Leap for Life.

Birmingham, Ala., October 6.—Fire broke out in McClellan's hotel at four o'clock this morning. Loss $20,000. J. A. Weatherly, of the Evening Chronicle, his sister and niece, jumped from the third story veranda, a distance of fifty feet. Weatherly sustained fatal injuries. His sister broke her leg and sustained internal injuries. The niece only sprained her ankle.

Democratic Demonstration.

New York, Oct. 6.—The Democratic parade of down town business men and exchanges Cleveland and Thurman clubs set for tonight has been postponed on account of the rain. Notwithstanding the inclement weather, several thousand people assembled in front of the sub treasury this afternoon to listen to addresses by Secretary Fairchild, and Congressman Wilson, of West Virginia. The meeting was however postponed till next Saturday.

Cross and White.

Raleigh, N. C., October 5.—The second trial of Chas. E. Cross and Samuel C. White, president and cashier of the State National bank of this city, in the Superior court ended to day, resulting in their conviction on two charges of forgery. Cross was sentenced to six and White to five years at hard labor on the public roads.

Both appealed to the Supreme court. New indictments against them are to be tried at January term of the Superior court of this county.

Her Husband Killed Her.

Lancaster, Pa., October 5.—The coroner's inquest on the body of Mary Dellinger, found yesterday on the banks of the Little Conestoga creek, has been continued to Monday. The evidence against her husband, Calvin M. Dellinger, who was arrested last night on suspicion, is accumulating, and the popular impression is that he is the murderer. Dellinger was divorced from his first wife last year. The testimony in the divorce proceedings shows him to have been very brutal to her. Dellinger is still in jail.

Horribly Mangled.

Minneapolis, Minn., October 6.—Passengers on the Northern Pacific train, which arrived in St. Paul Thursday morning, tell of a horrible deed which occurred west of Fargo. They say two men, apparently harvest hands, boarded the train at a small station and engaged in an altercation with the train hands over their fare. One of the men was thrown from the rapidly moving train, while the other clung to the seat and begged for mercy. The passengers interfered and saved his life. The train was then backed up, and the victim was found—He presented a horrible sight, being a mangled, shapeless mass.—As far as can be learned there have been no arrests made.

STATE NEWS.

REUNION.—The re-union of the 6th N. C. Regiment and other veterans at the Durham Exposition, on the 11th of this month, promises to be a grand feature of the military day. A cordial invitation is extended to all veterans, and we hope Chatham veterans will appear in strength.—Chatham Home.

RAILROADING.—A crowd of 24 railroad hands, with 18 carts and two wagons, with two or more women as cooks, all in charge of Ben Henderson, passed through from Spartanburg to Winston. In addition to these, another crowd of hands, numbering about 200 in all, arrived in Winston Saturday and on Monday morning began work on the R. & S. in a vigorous manner.—Statesville Landmark.

GOING TO THE EXPOSITION.—The Forsyth Riflemen have decided to attend the Durham Exposition. They will leave here on the morning of the 12th of October. We hope all of our business men who have any of the members of the company employed will if possible let them off on this occasion, so they may be able to make as creditable a showing as possible in number.—Twin-City Daily.

THE GOVERNOR'S GUARD.—The Governor's Guard will go to Durham this week to enter the military prize drill contest. Of course it is highly important that the company go with as full ranks as possible, and it is hoped that every member of the company will be allowed a leave of absence. Let the employers give the boys a day and let Raleigh be well represented.—Raleigh News and Observer.

HOW MANY LADIES?—Last night Brother Burkhead & Co. were to have orated—they distributed their hand bills inviting the Ladies. The Plant calls upon the Progress to state how many ladies responded. Sanderlin and Waddell had the gallery of Stokes Hall full of ladies. The Plant can hear of but few, if any, of the ladies who sympathize with the Assassins, but we do know of many who give them ZIP.—Durham Plant.

A RUMPUS.—At Walnut Cove a few nights since there is said to have been a considerable rumpus among the hands at work on the Roanoke & Southern road at that point. An attempt was made by these hands to liberate the convicts at work on the C. F. & Y. V. Road who are confined in the stockade there. An unsuccessful assault was made on the stockade, and one of the guards badly beaten by the negroes.—Winston Sentinel.

CHEERING NEWS.—From all sections of the State the press brings the most encouraging and satisfactory news of the campaign. The Democracy is fully aroused, and the people are alive to the importance of maintaining Democratic ascendancy in North Carolina. They well know that Republican success means ruin, and it is a calamity, the mere apprehension of which awakens their energies and inspires their determination to secure the success of the Democratic ticket.—Wilmington Messenger.

NO JUDGE RUSSELL LAST NIGHT.—Handbills were struck off yesterday announcing that Hon. D. L. Russell would speak at the court house last night, and at the appointed hour a small-sized crowd was on hand. The brethren in black were there, notwithstanding the opinion of the Judge that they are "largely savages." The Judge, however, was not there. For some reason which was not explained he failed to show up. The crowd was, however, entertained by Messrs. J. C. L. Harris, John Nichols and Henry Keith. The most striking feature of the evening was the lack of enthusiasm.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Eastern Carolina Fair opens in Goldsboro on Wednesday next, 10th, and promises to be the best ever held.

Killed Themselves.

Wavra, Depot, Me., Oct. 6.—Geo. Williams, of Warren, and Edward Davis, of Union, took time ture of acouite last night, and died within two hours.

"TWO SOULS WITH BUT A SINGLE THOUGHT."

"I want to see the day come when placing my right hand on the head of a little white child, and my left hand on the head of a little colored child, I can pass them into Sunday School together."—Oliver H. Dockery, Republican candidate for Governor of N. C.

"Down with the White Man's party." "That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality."—7th plank of the National Prohibition platform and slogan of the organ of the Prohibition party in North Carolina.

White or black—it matters not—where do you stand?

A CARD.

Having other business that will largely occupy my attention and probably call me away from the city at intervals during the next week, I have arranged with Mr. A. B. Frey, of Millersburg, Ohio, to be in charge of my jewelry store. I have recently from Ohio, Mr. Frey is a Virginian and a gentleman whom I am proud to introduce to my customers. He has a thorough knowledge of the jewelry trade. If you want a new watch, or the time piece you have needs repairing, call and make his acquaintance.

The ladies especially will find him courteous and attentive. He will sell them new goods or repair their broken jewelry at the lowest prices possible for fine quality and superior workmanship. The science of optics is one of Mr. Frey's specialties. A careful study and long experience have made him one of the best practical opticians in the country. If you require an expert to fit you with a pair of spectacles or eye-glasses, don't fail to call and see him, and no matter what the defect of vision may be, if it is possible to receive assistance from the use of glasses, he will supply you with just what is best suited to your eyes. Engraving is another specialty, and in fact for anything you ordinarily require at a jewelry store you cannot go wrong if you call. Very Respectfully,
JNO. J. THORNTON.

An Old Man restored.

DAWSON, GA. June 30, 1887.—Being an old man and suffering from general debility and rheumatism of the joints of the shoulders, I found difficulty in attending to my business, that of a lawyer until I bought and used five bottles of B. B. Botanic Blood Balm, of Mr. T. C. Jones, of J. R. Irwin & Son, and my general health is improved and the rheumatism left me. I believe it to be a good medicine.

NEW FALL GOODS.

The stocks of Spring Goods this season have become exhausted so much so that it is impossible for customers to get what they want. I have replenished with an selected to the late Summer and Fall trade. The goods are in the house and ready to furnish all of my trade and the public generally with the latest styles the market affords in all of the with Trimmings to match.

I can assure all that my

BLACK GOODS DEPARTMENT

is better supplied than ever before with all kinds and prices of Cash Merces, silk warp Henrietta Cloths, Gingham Cloths, Flannels, Black Silks, and a full line of the latest Trimmings to match.

CLOTHING.

The Clothing Department is better supplied than ever before, as I have closed out most of my old stock. The trade compelled me to do so in ahead of the season, so I have now in stock the largest and best selected assortment of Clothing I have ever offered, and at prices lower than ever before. All I ask is a trial before you purchase.

SHOES.

The Shoe Department is now about complete, and all I have to say is just call in and you will be satisfied in style and price.

HATS.

If you want a Straw Hat to spice out the season, come in and you can get one very reasonable. I will not say at cost, for you would not believe it, as that is an old story—and not many merchants ever succeeded in selling on such terms. Fur, Wool and stiff Hats to suit every body.

THE CARPET DEPARTMENT will be complete in a few days, as the order for my fall stock is now in the mills and will be filled in a short time. I can supply the demand with every thing in the line of Carpets, Oil Cloths, Rugs and Curtains.

Call and see for yourselves. I have been doing business too long to sing the old song of "Rock Bottom," "Below every one else," and many other such straws; but come and see and you will be treated politely and business-like.

Respectfully,
G. WILL ARMFIELD.
