THE DREYFUS CASE

How the French Officials were Led to Suspect This Officer

London, January 19.—With every show of authority, the Pall Mall Gazette this afternoon prints prominently an article purporting to give the inwardness of the Dreyfus case, and explains that the document, in addition to the "bordereaux" on which the government found the prisoner guilty...

"Nine or ten months before the arrest of Dreyfus, Von Funckle was suddenly removed from his post. The explanation of his removal is of the highest importance and throws a curious light on the Dreyfus case and explains in some measure the attitude of the government. I have the facts on indisputable authority that when his predecessor, Baron Von Heune, left Paris, he handed Von Funckle a list of persons in France who were in relation with the German intelligence department...

THE FIGHT FOR CUBA

RENEWED BY THE DEMOCRATS IN THE HOUSE

Several Amendments According Belligerent Rights Offered to the Diplomatic Appropriation Bill—All Defeated by Strict Party Vote on Points of Order

Washington, January 19.—A spirited debate was precipitated in the senate today by the introduction of a resolution by Senator Hoar, providing for an inquiry by the committee on postoffices and postroads concerning the recent order of the postmaster general reducing the force of letter carriers in several cities of the country.

Senator Hoar declared that the order had had the effect of a dynamite bomb in creating consternation among business men throughout the country, while apparently all that was needed by the postoffice department was an appropriation of $150,000 to fully maintain the efficiency of the carrier service.

Mr. Dinsmore, of Arkansas, the leading minority member of the committee on foreign affairs, replied to him and Messrs. Adams, republican of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Cuban subcommittee on the same committee, a democrat, of Kentucky, and Wheeler, democrat, of Kentucky, also addressed the house during the general debate.

THE PARDON MILL

AGAIN STARTS UP UNDER LOGE HARRIS' MANAGEMENT

Lee's Birthday Observed—Superintendent Mewboorne Will Soon Start the Penitentiary Shirt Factory—Sudden Death of a Negro Convict—Butler's Paper Says Russell Must Remove President Hancock—A Curious Label Suit Between Newspapers. Charges of Cruelty to Convicts.

Raleigh, N. C., January 19. Lee's birthday, a state holiday, was observed here by the closing of the banks and the capitol and the display of state flags on the latter. The various departments were open however. At the public schools there were exercises appropriate to the day.

Superintendent Mewboorne, of the penitentiary, said today, "I will in about ten days, or when all the cotton is picked, have all the female convicts sent from the farms to the penitentiary, so they can work in the shirt factory. There are about twenty of them. I think the penitentiary the proper place for them. I think, with the open weather, cotton picking can be finished in ten days. The crop is 3,000 bales; on the Caldonia farm alone 1,800. I do not think we can permit any state convicts to work on railways this winter."

Senator Butler in his paper today editorially calls on the governor to remove Robert Hancock as president of the Atlantic and North Carolina railway, saying if the facts are as reported Hancock is a man of no public reputation, and that he is sure if the governor, upon investigation finds the facts to be as stated he will remove Hancock at once.

The Bell Telephone Company in exceptions to the railway commission's order reducing rates says the two new commissioners are not the legal ones. This takes advantage of the fight of J. W. and John Wilson.

The night guard is taken off now at the railway commission office. The Baptist State mission board last evening appropriated $7,500 for its work. Two months ago it appropriated a like sum.

THE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Banqueting, Speeches and Music.—The Steady Growth of a Noble Order.—Among the Mill Men—News Notes. (Correspondence of The Messenger.) Fayetteville, January 19th, 1897.

Cumberland lodge No. 5, Knights of Pythias, entertained delightfully a large number of their friends last evening in their castle hall; it was a gathering of the representative men of Fayetteville, and with the occasion of the assemblage, invested the event with no little interest.

It was purely a social coming together, there being no Pythian exercises and the blessing of God having been invoked by Rev. I. W. Hughes, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, Chancellor commander H. L. Cook very graciously welcomed the guests, with most happy response by Major E. J. Hobb and Mr. I. A. Murchison. The great sliding doors were thrown back, and the visitors were ushered into the enjoyment of well-filled tables of substantial and delicate viands—oysters, turkey, ham, fragrant coffee, whence they returned to their seats in the hall to a pleasant diversion with a good cigar and a few minutes of friendly converse.

The programme was then continued, with short appropriate talks as follows: Mr. Q. K. Nimocks, a synopsis of the early history of Cumberland lodge; Rev. Mr. Bishop, the minister of the Gospel in Pythianism; Dr. J. W. McNeill, the good accomplished by Pythianism; Mr. J. H. Myrover, the public opinion of Pythianism; Colonel W. S. Cook, the Endowment Rank of Pythianism; Mr. S. W. Tillinghast, the Pythian goat (full of genuine humor); brief and eloquent replies were made to calls upon by Revs. Dr. L. L. Nash, J. H. Hughes and Major R. R. Huske. Professor E. L. Remsburg's "Big Six" orchestra furnished fine music during the evening, and it was very enjoyable throughout.

Fayetteville feels a just pride in the order of the Knights of Pythias, its splendid personnel, its phenomenal growth and prosperity, and the great good which it has accomplished. The Manchester cotton mill lying on the line of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railway, ten or twelve miles from Fayetteville, was sold yesterday afternoon, the "knock-down" bid being made by Mr. I. A. Murchison, $8,500. The property is considered very cheap at this price; and, with the application of additional capital, energy and good business methods, could be made a profitable investment.

The new Phoenix cotton mills company has increased its membership and capitalization, and with such men as Messrs. Herbert Lutterloh, E. and L. A. Williamson and W. A. Holt exercising supervision over its interests, its success seems assured. The wedding cards of Mr. John Underwood and Miss Annie M. Kyle, bearing date Wednesday 26th inst., have been issued. Mr. Underwood is well known in insurance circles as special agent of the New York Life, in which he has a good business, and is an ardent democrat, holding the position of president of the Young Men's club in the last campaign. Miss Kyle is a Fayetteville favorite—lovely both in character and in person.

Your correspondent has been shown the picture of a monument recently placed by Mr. E. L. Remsburg over a grave at Florence, S. C., which is quite "a feather in the cap" of this city. The order was received from Chicago, and the monument is erected to the memory of T. W. Talbot founder of the National Association of Machinists. The workmanship is superb, and particularly interesting is the fact that the beautiful design is that of Mrs. Remsburg, an accomplished woman of rare artistic gifts. The city graded schools celebrated General Lee's birthday this morning by attractive exercises, concluding with a short address by Mr. J. H. Myrover.

Fresh Discoveries in the Klondike. Seattle, Washington, January 18.—The news brought by the treasure laden miners who have arrived from the Klondike on the steamer Corona is important, chiefly in that it is confirmation of the discovery of the great mother lode. Welch, Coffin and Hart are authority for the statement that the original strike was made at the upper end of claim No. 20, Eldorado, while two stringers, one at No. 27 and another yet lower down, were subsequently located. Throughout the district the discovery is accepted as assurance of the permanency of the district as a rich gold mining field. Powder creek an affluent of Quartz creek has been having a boom, pans of $3.75 and $4.00 being a common thing. One of the first men to stake ground on Eldorado and the very last man out of the Klondike county is Andrew Olsen, known as "The big Swede." He is notable as being the owner of the claim on which the biggest Klondike nugget has yet been found. The lump of gold was valued at $38.
