In Making Answer to the Peace Terms Proposed by President McKinley.

AN EARLY ANSWER EXPECTED

A Call at the State Department from the French Secretary of Legation Starts a False Rumor...The Delay Ascribed to Sagasta's Efforts

Washington, August 6.-Just a week certainly be made, for the sentimental ago today, Ambassador Cambon received from the president the terms of meace that would be granted by the | tion. United States. When the state department closed its doors this afternoon, the Spanish government had not sigto accept these conditions. Every day during the past week an answer has been expected and that same feeling of expectancy prevailed at the close of of the week. It is significant that all responsible government officials are satisfied that the reply will be an acceptance of our terms when it does

About 2:30 o'clock Secretary Thiethe state department, thus giving rise to the supposition that he was seeking to make an appointment for the ambassador to meet the president to deliver the Spanish answer. This, however, turned out to be erroneous. M. Theibaut's business being connected with some of the recent seizures of French merchant vessels by the blockading fleet, and relating in no way to the Spanish peace negotiations. The fact that Secretary Day, who had contemplated a trip to Atlantic City this afternoon, did not leave town, was also the basis for another guess that he had notice that the Spanish note was coming immediately and that his presence would be required here. As a matter of fact, the secretary was detained beyond his train by his reception of the Italian ambassador, who had a long conference over the Cor-

The expectation of an early answer is still cherished, and it was the belief of the officials when the day closed that there is no likelihood of its receipt by the president before Monday. It was rumored in some quarters that the Spanish government had sent along a notice that it had accepted the principal American terms and would be prepared to make final answer Monday, but the French embassy, which would be the only recipient of any such notice, gave a very quick and effective denial of this story.

While all this delay is deprecated, it is realized that Sagasta probably is making the struggle of his life to bring the Spanish party leaders to the point where they will agree to stand by him in his acceptance of the terms of peace. This fact tends to secure the indulgence of our government in some degree and this is more readily extended in consideration of the fact that so far from having surrendered any advantage in agreeing to discuss terms of peace we are gaining something substantial every day in the prosecution of the campaign as revealed by the reports from Porto Rico. The naval plans of operations are also moving steadily forward, and, notwithstanding statements to the effect that the projected cruise against the Spanish coast by the eastern squadron has been abandoned, Secretary Long stated this afternoon that no change had has reached the department respecting the management of the Porto Rican campaign, a tribute to General Miles' men without doctors or medicine, nor is the inward movement of the American army delayed by the lack of artillery, owing to General Miles' insistance upon keeping his artillery in the very vanguard and giving personal attention to the commissary and quartermasters' departments.

Excuse for the New York Regiment at Santiago.

Washington, August 6.-Secretary Alger said today that the information reaching him showed there were extenuating circumstances in the case of the troops of the Seventy-first New York regiment accused in General Kent's report of not advancing promptly to the attack on Santiago. Men returning from Santiago told the secretary of the irregularity amid the noise and confusion of the opening of the engagement when the enemy was directing a heavy fire against this point of our lines and a number of our troops carried black powder guns instead of the more serviceable Krag-Jorgensen. While the secretary does not seek to justify the regiment, he feels that they are entitled to have their course viewed in the light of all the adverse circumstances which operated against them at the time of the Speaking of the Porto Rico campaign, the secretary said that the entire force there would be supplied with Krag-Jorgensen guns or else smokeless powder to use in such few Springfields as might be carried in connection with the Krag-Jorgensens. The purpose, however, is to arm the active troops as rapidly as possible with the high class modern arms.

The idea rather gains ground that the navy's active part in the war is nearly over.

Rear Admiral Sampson, as he watched the flames at Camp McCalla light the hills paid high ecomiums t the marines, which were echoed by all the naval officers. Admiral Sampson said: "I don't know what we would have done without Guantanamo bay, which is better as a harbor and base than Santiago or any other place in south Cuba. Nothing could have been better than the results accomplished by the marines backed up by the ships; and in their next undertaking they will doubtless do just as well."

The Frolic has arrived from Key West.

Chief Master-at-Arms Gratz, of the battleship Oregon, yesterday committed suicide by shooting himself.

The Scorpion has arrived from Cienfuegos. Lieutenant Commander Marix confirms the previous reports of starvation in that section of the coast. The blockading work is tedious, but is effectively performed. The men bear the dreary routine and the continual wallowing of the small boats without a word of complaint. entenant Commander Marix said that Naval Cadet Combs, who has not yet graduated, but is doing duty on the Scorpion, is down with malarial fever. While the Scorpion was off Manzanillo, with the temperature at 105 degrees, "General quarters" was sounded suddenly. Cadet Combs rushed from his sick bed to his station, stark naked, but with his sword buckled around his waist. This plucky young officer will have to be sent home to recuperate. The incident is merely characteristic of the hard, unheralded work done with quiet bravery and endless patience aboard the small craft doing blockade duty on the Cuban coast.

It is hoped that the international relations wil soon assume a phase that will enable the fleet to take either aggressive action or a much needed rest in drydocks.

Prntection for the Clergy in the Philippines.

Washington, August 6.-Inasmuch as it has been stated that the archbishop of Manila has been directed by the vatican to place himself and his clergy under the protection of the American commanders it may be stated that such protection wil be afforded on exactly the same terms and conditions that will be extended to the tions and to all non-combatants in Manila and the remainder of the Philippines. It is known that the insurgents have particularly singled out the Catholic clergy as the objects of their vengeance, without doubt inspired by the powerful assistance afforded to the Spanish cause by the priests and the friars in their efforts to repress the rebellion in its earliest stages. However, so long as the clergy refrain from taking up arms in the Spanish cause the American commanders, naval and military, will afford them such protection as the rules of civilized warfare requires.

Captain Clark Invalided Washington, August 6.-A good deal of concern is felt at the navy department at the break down of Captain Brown Clark of the Oregon. Not the slightest information has reached here as to the nature of the captain's illness: all that is known is that Commodore Watson, his immediate superior, ordered a medical board to examine him with the result that he was condemned and ordered home. It does not follow from this that the captain's collapse is permanent and his splendid physique and usual vigorous health afford reasonable gound for the belief that he will regain his health in the north. Captain Barker, who was in command of the Newark, has been assigned to the command of the Oregon in place of Captain Clark.

Help is wanted when the nerves become weak and appetite fails. Hood's blood rich and pure.

Rumors That the Cabinet Has Accepted the Peace Conditions Laid Down by our Government.

Madrid, August 6 .- The Spanish reply to the United States, which, it has been learned on high authority, accepts the American peace conditions, has been completed and will be submitted to the queen regent this morning, previous to this afternoon's cabinet meeting.

Strictly Business

The publisher of a newspaper has one thing to sell and one thing to rent. He has his newspaper to sell and a part of his columns to rent. Can anyone tell who he should be expected to give away either one or the other? He can do so if he chooses, and as a matter of fact he does furnish a good deal of his newspaper space rent free. But it does not follow that he should be expected to do so. It should be recognized as a contribution, exactly as the giving away of goods by merchants would be. But, strange to say, it is not looked upon in that light at all. Yet every one knows that the existence of a newspaper depends upon the rent of a rortion of its space and the sale of the paper, the same as a merchant's success depends upon the sale of his barges early today and transferred to Sarsaparilla gives help by making the goods instead of giving them away .-Chenos Gazette.
