WHITE MAN'S RALLY

A Rousing Time in the Fifth Ward Last Night-Mr. J. L. Croom Comes Out for White Government-troatan Indians Attend and Make Speeches

A white man's rally was held last night at the stand at Seventh and Castle streets, and the Fifth Ward whooped it up in the enthusiastic manner which has inspired the boys during this remarkable campaign. Rosin barrels at Front and Market streets were lighted early in the night to advertise the meeting, and at several places around the stand there rosin barrels glow to the occasion. A crowd of about 400 or 500 went out to hear the speakers. Among those in attendance were about a dozen Croatan Indians, who were escorted from up town by a delegation of Fifth warders. The Indians are from Skuffletown, Robeson county, and they are here attending the United States court. They went to the meeting wearing white government buttons, and they enthusiastically entered into the spirit of the

At 8:30 o'clock Mr. M. F. Dowling, in a ringing speech, introduced B. G. Empie, Esq., who ably presented the issue of white government and created enthuiasm for the cause. The crowd lustily cheered his remarks.

The next speaker was Iredell Meares, Esq., who spoke for more than an hour. He made a magnificent speech and the crowd gave his utterances the heartfollowing letter, which was wildly applauded: "To My Fellow Citizens of Wilming-

Washington, Novmber 2 .- The war | It has been stated that the assembly investigating commission held a session here today for the purpose of hearing the testimony of Major Henry Romeyne, a retired army officer. He said that he had asked at the beginning of the war for a military assignment to go to the front in his capacity as an officer, but it was refused and he then went as a correspondent of a iest applause. Mr. Meares read the weekly newspaper. His testimony covered the embarkation of the troops at Port Tampa and the campaigning in Cuba. He said that when he went to "I expected tonight to address you Port Tampa, the bank of the canal the event of his leaving Washington at Che Foo, are coaling to their fullthere was covered with troops. The commissioners insisted upon a reply, and Mr. Romeyne replied that he did not think the preparation was such as it should have been. "There stitution and establishing a permanent was," he said, "a lack of surf boats, and also of order and of preparation for landing. When the landing was undertaken the troops left the ships indiscriminately, parts going at one time and other parts at other times.' He told of the effort to tow two lighters over to Cuba, but said that one was lost and that it was the general impression that it was lost on purpose because it retarded the progress of the execution of that policy. Senor Quesada is satisfied that this will be the course of the Cuban assembly when it begins work, and it is tice. probable that he made this view known during a recent interview with Secretary Hay at the state department. In to attend the assembly at Santa Cruz del Sur, it will be with the special purpose of securing co-operation between the authorities here and there and the Cuban assembly, Mr. Quesada said:

In response to a question from General McCook, Major Romeyne said that while it was difficult to land any thing, ambulances and wagons could have been landed as easily as the artillery. He had seen only one ambulance at the front at the battle of El Caney and it was not used for conveying the wounded to the rear.

"It is only the first step toward a regular and constitutional form of government and it will give way later to an assembly truly representative of all the people of Cuba. For the present President Masso has called together this provisional body, which is necessarily crude, because of the unsettled condition of affairs in Cuba. It is, however, not a military assembly, only eight or ten out of a membership of forty-eight from the military ranks. The others are from civil life, doctors, lawyers and planters, and represent the best elements in the community. This assembly will not form a constitution, but will provide for a constitutional convention which will take up the important work of framing a con-government for the island.' With this programme in view, it is hardly expected that the question of annexing Cuba to the United will assume large proportions for the present, but will remain in abeyance until the Cuban government is sufficiently well established to permit it to express the wishes of the people of Cuba on the question of annexation.

Washington, November 2.-The critical situation of affairs between France and Great Britian is exciting lively interest among members of the diplomatic corps here, and on some of the phases of the controversy appears to be more exact than coming from Paris and London. The dispatches today attached much significance to the absence of Baron Courcel the French ambassador, frem London and it was stated that France would show her animosity by not continuing an ambassador at London.

The journal official received at the French embassy however, says that as ambassador for London to succeed Baron Courcel, was officially gazetted on September 21st. M.
