In the absence of developments at the front, interest at St. Petersburg centres in the disposition to be made officers. Rumor has it that Viceroy Alexieff has been reinstated in royal of Russia's foreign policy. Friends of General Kuropatkin are confident that he will be given at least temporary command of the two Manchurian armies. No news later than September 30th has been received from Port Arthur. At the date given the garrison had been inspirited by repulses of the Japanese.

NO ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

St. Petersburg, October 5.-2:05 a. m. A great deal of uncertainty exists concerning momentous changes with which the tongues of every body have been busy in St. Petersburg ever since the formal announcement of the formation of a second Manchurian army. The delay in the announcement of a commander-in-chief of the Manchurian armies, which has been dally expected, is now said to be due to Emperor Nicholas intention to wait until Viceroy Alexieff shall have started for St. Petersburg. General Kuropa'tkin's friends seem more encouraged by the outlook. Those who pretend to know say the Emperor may possibly reconsider his determination to send Grand Duke Nicholas Nicolaievitch.

It is suggested that a way out of the dilemma may be found by nominating General Kuropatkin as commander-inchief as soon as Alexieff departs from the far east, postponing the sending of Grand Duke Nicholas until the second army is actually on the ground.

Among many stories afloat, it is stated that the formation of a third army is now contemplated; that General Linevitch has been offered and declined the command and that it will be given to General Lunbovitski, now commander of the ninth corps.

Two roadways approach Tie pass from the South. One of these roadways is the main highway from Mukden, and the other, which is smaller, starts at Fushun and winds through a hilly country. The Yilu river, which is shallow and is fordable, runs through the town.

The Russians are reported to be fortifying the right bank of the river between Yilu and Tahaitun, 15 miles to the northward.

The Russians are holding Rushun with a heavy force and it is believed they are erecting works along the road from that place to Tie pass.

This defensive work of the Russians and the disposition of their force strengthents belief that General Kuropatkin merely intends to retard Field Marshal Oyama in his crossing of the Hun river and to give battle on the ground which he is now hurriedly for-

The Japanese efforts were directed chiefly against the commanding posttion on High mountain, which faces Pigeon Bay, slightly south of Fort Etse, The mountain is 500 feet high, and if it had fallen, its possession would have given the Japanese a tremendous lever against the chain of inner defenses. The carnage there was terrible and culminated September 22nd, when the Japanese succeeded in reaching and occupying the Russian armored shelter trenches, whence they expected about the next day to storm the summit. During the night, Lieutenant Poggers-ky, of the navy, at the head of a detachment of volunteers, descended the the trenches and blew them up with pyroxylin bombs, producing a panic among the besiegers, who fled, leaving the mountain side strewn with dead.

The Japanese then abandoned further attempts, but after a day or two to recuperate, according to General Stoelsel's second dispatch, dated September 30th they resumed the bombardment of the city and outer works, and began to construct zigzag approaches, evidently getting nearer from which to launch their next assault.

The loss of the water works is not considered vital as there is a fresh water lake and numerous wells, as well as a condensing apparatus within the de-

Everything points to a coming revenge for Liao Yang. The officers and men hope that the period of retreats is past and that they will be led against the enemy. The Japanese undoubtedly intended September 27th to attack in three columns from the collieries at Yentai, along the imperial road, but desisted when they discovered that the Russians fronting them numbered 60,000 men." The correspondent of the Lokal Anzeiger gives a summary of the ostensible strength of the opposing Japanese, which, according to his calculations total 144,000 infantry and 6,500 cavalry and 648 guns.

New York, Oct. 5 .- The first public | and legal acumen are needed to meet reception to Alton B. Parker since his nomination for the presidency, was tendered him tonight by the Manhattan Club. The club house was taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the invited guests. Judge Parker entered the club soon after 8 o'clock, accompanied by William F. Sheehan.

Judge Parker and Judge D. Cady Herrick, Democratic nominee for governor of New York, stood side by side on a slightly elevated platfrom at the east end of the large dining room, flanked by the reception committee.

It was impossible for the Democratic Davis, to be present, but he sent a letter in which he said:

"I regret exceedingly my inability to be present at the receivion to be given by the Manhattan Club to Judge Parker. The occasion will be full of interest to the Democratic party. The Democratic party at St. Louis, in the freedom of its action, took the presiding judge of the highest court of the greatest state in the Union for its candidate, and selected in Judge Parker the ideal citizen for President. ELECTION IN GEORGIA.

"We make sorties frequently driving LITTLE OPPOSITION TO THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATES.

> It Will be a Day or Two Before an Estimate Can be Made as to the Total Vote Polled-Four Constitutional Amendments Were Submitted for Approval.

Atlanta, Ga., October 5.-Elections of state and county officers members of the legislature, judges and solicitors were held in every county in Georgia today. There was practically no opposition to the Democratic candidates for the state offices, nor for county judges or attorneys.

Owing to this lack of opposition the returns from different parts of the state are coming in very slowly tonight. It will be impossible between tomorrow and next day to estimate the total vote polled. It is conceded the Democratic ticket was overwhelmingly elected. In a few counties, Populist candidates for the legislature were voted for, but the opposition was small to the Democratic names. Four constitutional amendments also were placed on the state ticket for approval by the veters. These sough to limit the tax rate to five mills, to allow local taxation for the common schools of the state, to increase the number of counties in the state from 137 to 145, and to increase the number of representatives from 175 to 183. In Atlanta and a number of other cities, Democratic primaries were held, which excited more than usual interest. Atlanta had five candidates for mayor, seeking election on entirely local or factional grounds. The local campaign has been a warm one and brought out a heavy vote. The state officers voted for today were the following:

Governor-Joseph M. Terrell. Attorney General-John C. Hart. School Commissioner-William B Merritt.

He recited one of the prayers in the office of Holy Communion and read the gospel. The celebrant was Right Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, of Missouri, presiding bishop; the gospeller was Right Rev. James Carmichael, bishop co-adjutor of Montreal, and the preacher, Bishop Witliam Doane, of Albany, N. Y. Bishop Doane welcomed the Archbishop of Canterbury and then devoted a large part of his sermon to the divisions in Christendom. He said the barriers would separate the anglican church from other denominations and how they might to some extent be broken down. While the recognition of papal supremacy was impossible, the bishop thought that the church might readily recognize the primacy of the bishop of Rome because of the antiqui- superintendent of the Ashley-Bailey ty of the Roman See. The resolutions were passed after a lengthy discussion in which many of the most prominent foreign delegates participated.

During the discussion, Delegate William R. Creme, of England, took occasion, while favoring the declarations, to characterize the treaty between England and Japan as a blunder, and to charge that this treaty had much to do in bringing on the Russo-Japanese war. Thereupon Great Britain's policy of being a party to the treaty was violently defended by Colonel Brice

Jones, M. P. The deliberative proceedings of the day took on an added interest from the fact that leading Hindoo, Baba Bharati was introduced to speak as the representative of his country. The most intense applause that has been evoked thus far during the convention greeted the Hindoo, who, dressed in the costume of his people, delivered a passionate speech in excellent English, denouncing on the one hand, the attempt of Christianity to thrust Christianity upon India as its religion, and the policy of the English people of India of invading Thibet. It was voted during the session to refer the subject of a reconciliation of France and Germany on the Alsace. Lorraine question to the Berne bureau for study for a special commission.

Frank Duncan and "Kid" Stafford Sentenced to the Penitentiary for Fifteen Years.

Tavares, Fla., Oct. 5 .- Frank Duncan and his partner, "Kid" Stafford, were convicted in the circuit court today of blowing the safe of the Leesburg bank, and were sentenced to the penitentiary for fifteen years-the full limit for that offense. Sentence on Duncan was suspended, and he was turned over to the Alabama authorities to be taken to Birmingham, where he was convicted of the murder of two policemen and sentenced to hang.

When captured, the prisoners were well armed and a bottle of nitro glycerine was found in their possession. They claimed that the bottle contained medicine, but Detectives Ahn and Badie Badiker this morning paced some of its contents under a stump and blew it to atoms, startling the town with the explosion.

When the prisoners were taken back to fall they, with the detectives and sheriff, were standing in the corridor, Duncan drew from his pocket a bottle of nitro-glycerine, raised it aloft and with an oath said: "Turn us both loose or we will all go to hell together."

Detective Ahn levelled his pistol at Stafford who sank to his knees and begged him not to shoot. Duncan gave up the bottle out of consideration
