DEAR CHILDREN:—St. Matthew's Sunday school sends you $1.32 but no letter, and I fear you get tired of my monotonous statement of the case which is only varied by the chance of my seeing or not having seen the messenger who brought it.

The next offering came from that ever faithful contributor, No. 281, who says: 'Dear Aunt Beckie: The seventh day of the week reminds me of my duty to the Cot fund. Enclosed herewith postoffice note for two dollars. Faithfully yours, "Messenger 282."'

You evidently bear in mind the Apostolic injunction, 'On the first day of the week let every one of you lay by in store as God hath prospered him.'

The whole trouble, like all other public and private ills, grows out of the lack of individual obedience to the plainly written law of God.

Thank you very much for the copies of the "Churchman" so kindly sent. I enjoyed very much "what I could understand of the proceedings of the General convention. Tho I do heartily wish they would let the prayer book entirely alone. Don't you? Have you seen a copy of "The Messenger of Hope," or, may I have the pleasure of sending you one?

The third letter came from one very good friend from Goldsboro, who is building up a very pretty muster, roll for us down there. I think we will have to promote her to the rank of "Recruiting sergeant," and even give her "Pressgang" latitude if she likes.

"Dear Miss Cameron:—I send from three of my class a small amount, 50c, and wish it was more! Lottie Slocumb sends to. Yours Respectly,

I am very much obliged to you my little lassie, not only for the pennies but for your interest in the work, that is great thing to me. I have a most distinctly feminine disinclination to assuming responsibility, or in any way standing alone. I never get "sufficient unto myself," and my courage follows suit with that of "Bob Acres" when the interest and moral support of others is withdrawn, or appears to be from the Cot.

I never wondered that the Amalekites prevailed when Moses lost the support of the hands of "Aaron" and "Hur."

The last letter came from dear old Wilmington and the writer says: "Dear Miss Cameron: Enclosed please find 25c, with love and best wishes for the Cot. Your friend,

As it is impossible to conjecture even the status of the "friend," I must content myself with saying thank you, both for the quarter and the love. I like to know just who are my friends and helpers in the Cot building. Slow snail that it is. Who would have supposed it would have taken any such time to make up a bed for one little string of a child! Why if it was for Goliath of Gath it couldn't be a longer job. Hommer, we are growing, and a great deal faster than we did some time ago, and I am not going to be ungrateful and quarrel because we are not rivals of Jack's bean stalk.

I cannot write you a long letter this time because I have been very sick for the past two weeks and writing makes me very tired. Last month we received twenty-one dollar and nine cents in contributions, and there were twelve new names written on the roll. There is a great improvement, and equals all we gained from April to October. So you see we really are growing, though we have collected one hundred dollars less than I expected. I thought we would average three hundred a year, and we only lack three weeks of the end of our second year, and have only paid in five hundred dollars. Though, of course, it will be something more than that before the year goes quite away.

I should like to tell Rev. Mr. Wooten how sorry I was to see the misprints that quite spoiled what I said to him in my last letter. I thought I had grown accustomed to being mangled by the type, but I find I still flinch a little. Goodbye dear children. Your loving, AUNT BECKIE.

All contributions for the "Bishop Atkinson Memorial Cot" in St. John's Hospital, Raleigh, should be sent to Miss Rebecca Cameron, care of Dr. William Cameron, Hillsboro, N. C.

The death of Jennie Washington, an old slave of the Washington family of this city, was reported in this city from Washington, D. C., Friday. A few years ago she secured employment in that city and subsequently married and settled there. Her remains were brought here Saturday and interred in the old family burying ground near this city.

GOLDSBORO DEPARTMENT.

OFFICE IN THE OPERA HOUSE.

This department of the Daily Messenger is put in type at Goldsboro, every day, and forwarded by the Southern Express Company to Wilmington, each evening, for the forms of the paper of the next morning, thus adding to the Messenger the features of a Goldsboro daily local newspaper, and the best that emanates from that city.

GOLDSBORO JOTTINGS.

Mr. C. S. Wooten, of LaGrange, was here Saturday. Cotton brought from 9.75 to 9.90 in this city Saturday.

Mr. Julius Stevens, of Grantham's was in the city Saturday. Dr. A. C. Davis, of LaGrange, paid our city a visit Saturday.

Mr. Levi S. Rickland, of New Hope, was in town Saturday. Mr. Wm. R. King, of upper Bregden, was in town Saturday.

Miss Bell Spier, of this city, is on a visit to friends in Tarboro. We are pained to learn that Mr. W. A. Denmark is getting no better.

Trade in Goldsboro was very good Friday, whereof our merchants were glad. The MacCullins opera troupe passed through this city Friday, enroute for Wilmington.

A large crowd of people, (white and colored) were in the city Saturday, and trade was active. The Board of County Commissioners will meet in call session Monday, to consider the Zion Reid cart-way matter.

Rev. J. J. Harper, of Johnston county, passed through the city Saturday to fill his his appointment at LaGrange to-day. Mrs. Will. Hunter, and the children, two bright lovely boys, have gone down to visit parents and grand parents near LaGrange.

Mr. W. R. Allen has returned from Raleigh where he had been during the major part of the week attending the Supreme Court. Rev. Father Fred. Price, of New-Berne, was here Saturday and to-day looking after the spiritual interest of the "faithful of the city."

We hope, before many months shall have rolled by, to see a nice, beautiful, "lovely to behold" M. E. church built in the Webbtown section. Miss Bettie Best, of Shine, Greene county, was in the city Friday, shopping. Her many friends here are always glad to see her.

Mr. W. A. Turk was in this city Friday, on his way to Wilmington, to attend an important railroad meeting. Mr. Turk is of the Richmond and Danville Railroad. Messrs. Charles Dewey and Arnold Borden returned Friday morning from Newberae, where they had been as Directors, to attend a meeting of the Board of Atlantic and North Carolina railroad Thursday.

The people here rejoiced with our neighbors of Petersburg, Va., in their recent glorious victory over Mahone and all others of like kit and kin, and too we sympathize deeply with her in the vast amount of property destroyed by the immense conflagration of Wednesday night.

Rev. W. W. Rose, who has been in the city since Wednesday, assisting Rev. M. M. McFarland in the revivalistic work at St. John M. F. church, left Friday afternoon for his work on the LaGrange Circuit. He will preach his last sermon at Lenoir Institute to-day.

The people of this city and section, and of Wilson, Kinston, Newbern and other places along the railroads leading into this city, will all come to this city next Saturday night to witness Frederick Warde, Goldsboro's favorite tragedian, in his wonderful dramatic piece, "The Mountebank." It is a piece of the highest dramatic order, and can be witnessed with impunity by the most refined.

The Messenger Opera House, J. A. BONITZ, Proprietor. Mr. Bonitz takes more than ordinary pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Goldsboro, and the surrounding country, the appearance of the distinguished tragedian

FRED. WARDE, Supported by an excellent company, in D'Ennery's powerful four-act romantic drama,

The Mountebank, Saturday, Nov. 16, which will undoubtedly prove the fashionable dramatic event of this season.

ADMISSION RATES: General Admission, 75 cents; Gallery, 50 cents; Reserved seats at Robinson's drug store, $1.00

Special Railroad Rates: Special excursion rates have been arranged for the occasion over the W. & W. Railroad, and Mr. Bonitz has chartered a special train to come up from New Bern on Saturday evening, and to return immediately after the close of the performance.

The W. & W. Road will sell tickets from Rocky Mount and Warsaw and points inclusive. The round trip fare from New Bern (including admission to the Opera House) will be $1.50; from Kinston $1.25, and from LaGrange $1.25.

Sunday night—Union mass meeting at St. Paul M. E. Church. Address by Rev. J. F. Crowell of Trinity College.

Week day services, daily prayer service for christians at 8 o'clock in the morning. Gospel meeting for men at 8 o'clock at night, with sermons by the pastors. Monday night, Rev. J. S. Dill; Tuesday, Rev. J. C. McMullen; Wednesday, Rev. S. H. Isler; Thursday, Rev. R. A. Willis; Friday, Rev. M. M. McFarland.

All the services will be held at the rooms except the mass meeting Sunday night. The secular work of the Association, and lectures be omitted for the week. Col. Swift Galoway got back home Friday from his trip to Jacksonville, Onslow county, where he had been to attend the superior court and Mr. R. W. Nixon likewise.

The New Discovery: You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is.

A man with a pinchback watch called it Faith, because it was without works, and therefore dead. The Fruit of Violence. In no case is the folly of violence in medication more conspicuously shown by its fruit than in the effect upon the intestines of excessive purgation.

Convincing Proof. In many instances it has been proven that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm), made by Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga., will cure blood poison in its worst phases, even when all other treatment fails. A. P. Brunson, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I had 21 running ulcers on one leg and six on the other, and felt greatly prostrated. I believe I actually swallowed a barrel of medicine. In vain efforts to cure the disease. With little hope I finally acted on the urgent advice of a friend, and got a bottle of B. B. B. I experienced a change, and my despondency was somewhat dispelled. I kept using it until I had taken sixteen bottles, and all the ulcers, rheumatism and all other horrors of blood poison have disappeared, and at last I am sound and well again, after an experience of twenty years of torture."

Robt. Ward, Maxey, Ga., writes: "My disease was pronounced a tertiary form of blood poison. My face, head and shoulders were a mass of corruption, and finally the disease began eating my skull bones. My bones ached; my kidneys were deranged. I lost flesh and strength, and life became a burden. All said I must surely die, but nevertheless, when I had used ten bottles of B. B. B. I was pronounced well. Hundreds of scars can now be seen on me. I have now been well over twelve months."

We read of a Kentucky man who was paralyzed by a mosquito bite. It is a wonder that the bite didn't paralyze the mosquito.

From Ocean to Ocean. Over thirty-two years ago, Mr. Alfred Speer, of Pacific, imported from the banks of the Douro, in Portugal, a few of the Port Grape vines, and commenced careful experiments for the purpose of producing a first-class American Port, both fermented and unfermented. He has been eminently successful, and now Speer's wine and unfermented juice is known from ocean to ocean, and endorsed by the best medical talent in the world as the best now produced for the use of invalids. For sale by druggists.

The Maryland oyster-packers have formed a Trust and advanced the price of oysters.

The usual treatment of catarrh is very unsatisfactory, as thousands of despairing patients can testify. A trustworthy medical writer says: "Proper local treatment is positively necessary to success, but most of the remedies in general use by physicians afford but temporary benefit. A cure cannot be expected from snuffs, powders, douches and washes." Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy which combines the important requisites of quick action, specific curative power with perfect safety and pleasantness to the patient.
