steps also both to raise a fund and, if possible, to secure the final sepulture of the Great Leader in the chief city of Virginia.

That is the real grievance of some other Senators who antagonize Mr. Cleveland we have no doubt.

The last report we notice as to the Blaine movement in Indiana is that it is not in good faith, but is in the interest of Judge Gresham against Harrison.

It is manifest now that the Prince of Wales has lost ground in the good favor of the Scotch people.

Col. James N. Lipscomb, a prominent South Carolinian, died a few days ago at Bryson City, N. C.

The Fayetteville Observer may rest assured that the talk it refers to about papers here has not been heard of in this part of the State.

The township across the river from Weldon voted against the proposition to subscribe $30,000 to build a railroad from Garrysburg to Jackson in Northampton county.

The assessments generally over the State so far as reported show an increase we believe.

"The great snows and storms which feed the sources of the Missouri, Yellowstone and Platte send through the secret channels of the earth stores of living water, fresh and wholesome, for the parched plains.

Possibly the most inviting portion of the world is Southern California. It is the Italy of our Continent as to climate.

But all this was wrong. The demagogue was mistaken once in his calculations. The great surplus left by a Democratic Administration but a little over two years ago is "gone gimmering, a schtick-ty-ty-ty, the wonder of an hour."

The news from Washington is that the Billion-Dollar-Congress has literally bankrupted the United States Government, and that the expenditures for June thus far are in excess of receipts $8,188,864.

The New York Tribune thinks education is very much needed in the South. Of course it is, and the South is surpassing the more favored North in this most important matter.

Now that the robbery is complete and the bottom is knocked out of the Treasury, the President of the Republican party and his happy family are to hold a solemn pow-wow over the bankruptcy, and possibly to pass a resolution that the shower is slight and will soon be over.

It is this Benjamin Harrison, the head-centre of all the wrongs and crimes involved in the waste, the national bankruptcy and the pension steal, who is seeking endorsement of his party in a second nomination, and who wishes to ask the American people once more to put him in position to finish the job of ruin and degradation and scandal.

Only defeat can come to the grand party of principle and reform by divisions in it—by a withdrawal of such numbers as shall give success to the old entrenched enemy of the country, and, consequently, of the farmers.

An united party will bring victory to the Democratic standard in 1892.

A divided party in 1892, simply means four more years of force bills and usurpations and high taxes, that grind and impoverish, and waste and peopulation and bankruptcy.

In the mean time Harrison and his set will stare each other in the face and talk over the best plan to bamboozle the country and make it believe that all is well.

But there is an empty treasury and there are great grinding taxes, and there is wide-spread discontent. The only real safety lies for all the people who are sick and tired of Radical misrule and abuse and incompetency to rally as one man around the banner of the Democratic party—the party of the people and by the people and for the people.

THE MONUMENT MOVEMENT.

It is pleasant to know that all of the cities were not neglectful of holding a meeting to raise funds for the Jefferson Davis monument fund.

Savannah moved and sends out 500 citizens to canvass the city for it. Richmond, the historic city, took that the bounties of each sugar maker will be about $28,000.

The newspaper men have been doing some "tall talking" at the expense of that very able and true Democratic reformer, Mr. Mills, of Texas.

It seems that the several interviews from time to time that have appeared in Cincinnati, St. Louis and New York dailies were lies out of the whole cloth.

It is no wonder that Representative Mills is indignant. The other day Shepard's sheet, the N. Y. Mail and Express—a bitter, false, truculent Radical exponent—published an interview.

Mr. Mills has taken the trouble to explain. He says: "The authority for this interview is this: On the corner of — avenue and Fourth street I met the correspondent of the Mail and Express. He extended me his hand. I shook it cordially. He asked me a question. I said: 'I am not talking politics now,' and passed on. Not one word written by him ever came from my lips. Not one word ever came from my lips on any subject. I only repeatedly declined to talk and passed on."

STATE PRESS.

Every farmer in North Carolina should ask himself these questions. Has there ever been a convention of the Democratic party that did not fully recognize the rights of the whole people?

It seemed certain that the Alliance can get two of its measures—the free coinage of silver and the reform of the tariff—through the next Congress.

THE PRESIDENTIAL BEE IN POLK'S BONNET.

A report from Atlanta is to the effect that Mr. L. L. Polk, is "in the hands of his friends." It has been strongly suspected for some time by many that an enormous bee was singing under his bonnet, and that he was listening with unrepressible delight to the music of its little song.

Do we need the union of all our forces? Do the needs of the country demand the union of all our forces? Can we win with disunited and contending factions?—Progressive Farmer.

Senator Edmunds was in North Carolina recently and was interviewed. He thought Cleveland would be the Democratic candidate next year, and that if Blaine had health he would be elected if "he was the nominee of the Republican party."

The wheat crop of 1891, promises to be very large—larger it is thought than even the great crop of 1884, when it reached the vast figures of 512,765,000 bushels.

Three-fourths of your ailments arise from Liver troubles, which Simmons Liver Regulator surely cures.

Pleasant to the taste and readily taken is Simmons Liver Regulator. Rheumatism was so bad that James Irvin, of Savannah, could hardly walk from pain in his shoulder and joints of his legs.

One of the most tricky forms of legislation the Republicans in the last Congress were guilty of was the bounty they voted to American Sugar planters.

Senator Barbour does not like Mr. Cleveland and wants another man for the Presidency. The cause of the Virginian's opposition is said to be by the Savannah News that was "not allowed to run the Cleveland administration to suit himself."

TO RESTORE THE HAIR

When it has become prematurely thin or gray, the best dressing is Ayer's Hair Vigor. This preparation cleanses the scalp of dandruff, heals itching humors, and supplies nourishment and vitality to the hair-roots.

"Nine years ago, at the age of 45, I was nearly bald, my hair having, from some unknown cause, fallen out gradually. We had found Ayer's Pills such an effective general remedy that when I needed a hair-restorer I naturally turned to Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used this and a new growth of hair started. My hair is now as heavy and firmly set as in youth."
