PUBLIC OPINION.

Chief among these causes are inthe wants and increasing the comgreat degree the obstructive methods stock 1,134,476. of tariff mongering legislation,— Philadelphia Record, Dem.

In a financial article the New York Tribune states that "in a whole generation of continuous protective dus ties here and continuous free trade caipts - bales. in Great Britain prices of American products have been reduced almost exactly as much, in spite of the addition of duties said to be intolerable to consumers, as prices have been reduced in Great Britain during the same time." This fact demonstrates that there are far more potent inflaences than the tariff in governing the prices of commodities—a truth which the Protectionists obstinately

The Haymarket massacre and the experience of Chicago with sgitators like Parsons and Spies should warn our authorities to prevent the imbe denied that we have in our large cities a dangerous class ready to follow any leader who will furnish ops portunities for pillage, murder and incendiaries on a large scale. It is a foolish policy to temporize with these public enemies. Their meetsings should be availabled. these public enemies. Their meets ings should be prohibited, their societies broken up, their newspapers suppressed and their leaders locked up. Especially should Chicago guard its peace and order this year. The World's Fair will draw hosts of people to that city, and there will be much to tempt the so-called Anarychists to indulge their thirst for blood and thievish propensities.—
