Attentions to the Duke. [Baltimore Sun.]

Washington, April 24.-The Duke and Duchess of Veragua were received this afternoon by the President and Mrs. Cleveland in the Blue Room at the White House. The reception was entirely without formality. The ducal party came over from the Arlington in two open car-riages. They were accompanied by Mar-quis Barboles, the Duke's brother, and the Duke's son, Don Christopher Co-lumbus y Aquilera, the Marquis de Villalobar, secretary of the Spanish royal commission, and Commander and Mrs. Dickins. The Duke wore a uniform and the grand collar of the Order of the Golden Fleece. The Duchess, who wore a quiet costume of black lace over blue satin, ornamented by an order, that of the Lazo-de-Lama, the insignia of all the ladies in waiting to the Queen. A Negro Saturates With Oil the Clothing of His Sleeping Daughter and Sets Them on Fire.

[Special to the Messenger.] FAYETTEVILLE, April 25 .- A warrant was issued to-day for the arrest of Edinbro Scurlock, an old negro, on the charge of burning his daughter. The horrible deed was committed on Sunday at his home two miles south of this city. The old man is said to have saturated the clothing of the girl and the bed on which she was sleeping with kerosene oil and stuck fire to it, thinking it was his wife. The girl was horribly burned, and to-night it is reported she is dead. Scurlock cannot be found.

the Dimitri Donskoi, with the Russian Vice Admiral Koznakoff on board, awaited them at anchor off Quarantine. As the Philadelphia in the lead neared the Sandy Hook lightship at 1:50 p. m., the fog whistle of the lightship gave a series of welcoming toots, but the big white flagship swung round in majestic silence, and, crossing the bar and entering Gidney's channel, set the pace at a good ten and a half knots an hour, the Newark following close in her wake and attained regulation distance behind. Once fairly in the channel the Philadelphia signalled the fleet to proceed down and allowed all the American fleet to round the lightship first. Then the Blake and other Britishers followed, column alternating till all had safely rounded and entered the channel. Then the big guns of the Miantor o nah boomed welcome, but the Hook was passed in silence. The leading vessels of the fleet turned the Southwest spit about 2:45 o'clock and entered the main ship channel. It was still raining, but the weather was not so thick as to seriously impede the movements of the fleet. A Big Failure.

SIOUX CPFY, Ia., April 25 .- D. T. Hedges, the largest financial operator here, filed an assignment this afternoon for the benefit of creditors. There are no preferences. The failure is attributed to the bad state of the money market and the inability to sustain the Pacific Short Line and the Sioux City and Northern railroads on individual credit, None of the local banks or merchants are involved. Much paper was issued through the Union Loan and Trust company and that company may suffer. Soon after the filing of Hedges' notice of assignment the Union Loan and Trust company also closed its doors, and the secretary issued the following notice:

Governor Carr Addresses the Negroe -Propositions for a Settlement From Them-These Rejected and Others Made by Mr. Bryan, Which are Accepted-The Troops to be Withdrawn. [Special to the Messenger.] NEWBERN, N. C., April 25,-The Governor went over to James City this morning and addressed the people, who received him cordially and listened to him with earnest attention. They then appointed a committee of conference, which came over and through their counsel, J. E. O'Hara, opened negotiations with Mr. Bryan for leases. A proposition to lease for one year was made accept. He then offered to make them three year leases. This was accepted by their counsel, subject to the approval to-night was given to decide the matter. movement of troops will be made at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

To-night at 10:30 o'clock J. E. O'Hara reported to the Governor that the people would accept Mr. Bryan's terms, which are that they will pay 50 cents, 75 cents and $1 per month rent for three years. At the end of three years they have the privilege of removing their houses from Mr. Bryan's lands. The troops will probably be withdrawn Thursday morning.

[By Southern Press.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 25 .- It is apparent that the squatter question at James City will be settled and that trouble will be averted, as expected. The troops are still on the ground, but the latest advices from official sources say that the indications point to a peaceful settlement and that the negro tenants will probably lease the property from

[New York World of yesterday.] NEWBERN, N. C., April 24.-Five companies of the State Guard arrived to-night and are in camp on the East Carolina Fair grounds at the edge of Newbern and on the spot where the James City negroes were removed during the war. James City is on the Trent, river, and fled from all parts of Eastern Carolina to Newbern for protection, as this city was one of the two which were entirely under combined naval squadrons of the Old control of the United States Army. and the New World took possession of the Lower bay of New York harbor this afternoon. The belated flagship of the Russian squadron, moved out of Newbern across Trent were placed, Considerable attention was paid to them by Northern people who were then in Newbern, and soon the negroes came to the conclusion that the land on which their humble homes were erected had been given to them by the Government. A town council was elected, a mayor appointed and a regular city government instituted, but the land does not belong to the occupants, at least such is the decision of the Supreme court, The land was owned by Mrs. D. V. Shepard, who was of a philanthropic disposition. She never molested the squatters. After her without reference to formation. The death the property reverted to Mr. James vessels of the starboard column slowed A. Bryan, who tried to disabuse the negroes of the false belief which prevailed. They would not be persuaded, and he safely crossing the bar before flood tide, 3:37 o'clock p. m., the squadrons of each of Mr. Bryan and it dragged through the courts until, three years ago, the Supreme court decided that the property belonged to Bryan. He had valued the land, according to the tax-books, at $1,-000. It is now thought to be worth between $75,000 and $100,000. Bryan undertook to arrange amicable terms with the negroes, but they would not believe that their homes were owned by him, watched the proceedings with interest, feeling that some day serious trouble would ensue. The trouble has come. A month ago the Sheriff sent three deputies to dispossess the negroes, but the latter resisted so strongly that the officers left. Since then Mr. Bryan has offered to give the James City people their churches, school houses, and public buildings, to charge only $1 per month est houses, but the people tenaciously cling to the belief that they are being wrongly dealt with and that the Government will ultimately come to their relief. They have said they would lose their lives in the attempt to keep their houses, and refuse to listen to the advice of their preachers and the more intelligent of Newbern's negro citizens. Some of the more violent negroes have threatened that they will, if driven from their homes, burn the city of Newbern. This state of affairs, a town of 2,600 negroes openly defying the law, led the Sheriff to call on the Governor for troops to aid him in performing his duty. [Newbern Journal of yesterday.] That the people of James City have stubbornly held out against the execution of the law by ordinary process until this point is reached is a reproach not only to their character as citizens but to their intelligence likewise.

The colored population of this section are peaceably disposed, but their action in James City by openly defying the law and assembling in a number of upwards of a thousand at a given signal at the approach of the sheriff to execute the law shows them as a law defying people. The good people of Craven county much preferred an amicable settlement, as did Mr. Bryan, and a great deal of time was granted in hope that such terms might be reached, but to no avail, and as a result, they are forced to yield only at the point of the bayonet. Matters have reached this point from

Though they were polite to the sheriff himself, their gathering en masse at the ringing of a bell, plainly a preconcerted signal (even those in the startly and rushing over employments instantly and rushing over to join the crowd) and then giving the sheriff's deputies to understand that whoever entered a house would do so at the peril of his life was as palpable a resistance as was necessary—the violence did not have to be applied to make it so—and this action on their part left nothing to do if bloodshed was to be avoided but to come upon them with an overpowering

The Disorders in Ireland. BELFAST, April 25 .- To all outward appearance, everything is quiet, but there is an increase of bitter feeling between the Unionists and Nationalists. More Catholics were driven away from Queen's Island at midnight last night at 6 o'clock p. m. Monday and is due in and this morning by Orangemen, the total number ejected exceeding 800. Unionist leaders publicly condemn the rioting and the members of Parliament from Belfast have signed an appeal for peace and tolerance. Grand Master Kane has issued a half hearted appeal to the Orangemen, in God's name to standsteady "until their leader blows the trumpet," when all over 16 years of age are to prepare for battle in behalf of faith and freedom. REJECTED.

At the Cabinet meeting this afternoon Secretary Carlisle brought up the prop-osition of the New York bankers to supply, under certain conditions, the Treasply, under certain conditions, the Treas-ury Department with gold. It was very thoroughly discussed and finally re-jected. What this proposition was is not known here, as Secretary Carlisle declined to make its terms public. It was not, however, considered advanta-geous to the Government. This was the geous to the Government. This was the culmination of several propositions sub-mitted, one of which was declined last Saturday. A counter proposition was then made by the bankers to the Secretary of the Treasury, which was received last Monday. This was also rejected, and in turn the Secretary submitted a and in turn the Secretary submitted a proposition to them which they also refused to accept. All negotiations, therefore, between the Treasury Department and the New York bankers are off, at least for the present, and Secretary Carlisle will look in other directions to continue to produce the treasure and The tinue to replete the treasury gold. The administration does not desire to issue bonds and will not do so, except as a last resort. That time, in their opinion, has not yet arrived, and if their efforts to obtain gold one greeneful will not to obtain gold are successful, will not soon be reached. Representative Wise, of Virginia, called on the President this morning and presented a petition signed by the bankers and business men of Richmond asking the President to issue bonds to relieve the financial situation. The President dent received the petition but gave no indication of what his purpose will be in the direction following the suggestions
