She then proceeded still no quorum, and a call of the House on her way and was lying at Piney Point | was begun. This showed 252 members at 1:30 o'clock this morning, twelve present, and Mr. Bland moved to dismiles from the mouth of the Potomac. Some attempts to create alarm yesterday and this morning on account of the failure to hear of the Violet's arrival at Norfolk fell very flat in Washington, particularly at the White House, where the President's plans were known. The officials of the light house board were aware that the Violet would not Norfolk, at the earliest, before to-day, as the captain had no idea of leaving the Potomac, if at all, before this morning. Mr. Pence said he would gladly explain if his previous explanation and apology to the House did not cover this. The gentleman from Indiana, by his vote on the Wilson repeal bill last fall had contradicted all his previous records on the silver question, and now, with certain other gentlemen, in view of the approach ing election, in his opinion, was in favor of the Bland Seigniorage bill. Mr. Cooper replied that he had, previously to this Congress, voted for the ree coinage of silver, but the charge that his change of opinion on that question was due to the influence or comnand of the President, or of any personwas unjust and untrue. The gentleman from Colorado was an extensive owner of stocks in silver mining companies, and had a direct personal interest in the result of pending legislation. If he would read the laws of his country he would learn that he had no right to take part in the legislation upon the subject

Mr. Cummings relieved the situation and raised a laugh by remarking that if it were in order, it would be a good time for some gentlemen to apologize for their attacks upon the New York Democracy. After the call of committees for reports, Mr. Bland moved that the House go into Committee of the Whole upon his Seigniorage bili, and that general debate thereon be closed at 3 o'clock to-morrow. GLADSTONE RESIGNS.

His Resignation to Take Effect at Easter-The Premiership Offered to and Refused by Lord Roseberry Then Accepted by Earl Spencer.

EDINBURGH, Feb. 27,-The Evening News declares that Gladstone has resigned, to take effect at Easter; also that the Premiership was offered to Lord Roseberry, who declined it and it was then offered to Earl Spencer, who accepted it.

Though the condition of Gladstone's eyes is regarded as a sufficient reason for his wishing to lay down the cares of office, it is not believed to be the real reason for his resignation, if the present report that he has resigned is true. sical power he is unable to withstand the acceptable to his constituents in Hardiman county, Tennessee. The bird shooting season, which ends to-morrow, has not as a rule been satisfactory. In some sections partidges have been scarcer than in many years. Mrs. Cleveland Delights Washington

Washington, Feb. 27.—Washington society is delighted that the absence of the President enables Mrs. Cleveland to appear at entertainments outside of the Executive mansion. She was the guest Market and immediately returned to the of Mrs. Harri t Lane Johnston at an amateur performance last night when the actors in costume were presented to her in her host's box. This afternoon she attended an entertainment for the benefit of a free kindergarten at the residence of Mrs. Hearst, the widow of the California Senator, and she expects to look in upon the "Midway Plaisance concert" for a charitable purpose to-mor-
