Writes Postmaster J. C. Woodson, Forest Hill, W. Va., "I had a bronchial trouble of such a persistent and stubborn character, that the doctor pronounced it incurable with ordinary medicines, and advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and one bottle cured me. For the last fifteen years, I have used this preparation with good effect whenever I take and I know of numbers of people who keep it in the house all the time. not considering it safe to be without it."

"I have been using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in my family for 30 years, with the most satisfactory results, and can cheerfully recommend it as being especially adapted to all pulmonary complaints. I have, for many years, made pulmonary and other medicines a special study, and I have come to the conclusion that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral occupies a position pre-eminent over other mediines of the class."-Chas. Charlotte News: A meeting was at Huntersville, Saturday, to protest against the working of the public roads in Charlotte township. Here we have an exhibition of animosity of the county against the town that has worked so much detriment to both. The people who were in that meeting are just a little too impatient. The object of the county road system, is not to benefit Charlotte alone, but the whole county. All the roads connot be built in a day.

Gastonia Gazette: An aged colored man, well known as "Big Jim Wilson," died near Old Furnace last week from the effects of freezing. He was about 70 years old. Thursday night, the 15th inst., he went to a neighbor's. Returning he got within a hundred yards of home and became disabled, whether from cold or other causes is not certainly known. His wife sat up all night awaiting his return. He was found next morning nearly frozen to death. By Saturday he was thawed, but he died on the following Wednesday without having spoken at any time after he was found.

Roxboro Courier:: We learn that Mrs. M. J. Walters' loss by fire, which we reported last week, will reach The fire is said to certainly be of incendiary origin. --- Mr. Charles F. Long, who has been in and around Roxboro for several days looking after his trade, met with a very painful, though not serious accident yesterday evening. He and Mr. George Thomas were scuffling, and in some manner Charlie struck his hand against a lead pencil and drove it clear through it, going in on the back just below the thumb and coming out below the base of the second finger in the palm of his hand. He pulled the pencil out, but a piece of the lead broke off, which he had to have a physician to cut out. It was a very painful accident.

Statesville Landmark: The statistics gathered by Mr. W. W. Turner and printed in another column, make very interesting reading. From these we earn that $19,890 worth of flour, and $20,955 worth of meat were sold in Staresville and Mooresville last year. This, as he says, is a low estimate, for it does not include the country merchants, many of whom undoutbedly buy outside of Statesville and Mooresville. ti does not include the country merchants, many of whom undoutbedly buy outside of Statesville and Mooresville.

Thus we see $40,845 were paid for flour and meat in this county last year, and of this amount it is estimated that the farmers themselves paid $22,756.—

Paine's Celery Compound the Greatest of Remedies.

Influence of the Nerves on Various Diseases -- The Way Frank Bair, of Chicago, Regained His Health--Prof. Phelps' Wonderful Prescription.

Increased cares and duties, increase in nental strain, lessened physical labor and reased mental work, have been gradually giving us bodies in which the nervous elenent predominates.

Diseases are to-day as different from diseases of a century ago as is their treatment. While the average individual now does more nental work, we are not as well able to bear the strain as they were. Nine tenths of us neither eat, sleep, exercise, bathe, or recreate ourselves in a proper way. It is all hurry and turmoil. Little When the album blood—the nutritious principles of the blood—the western agent of the great firm of Nash, health suffers. If nervous power be depressed, then the food is imperfectly digested, assimilated, and converted into blood and tissue.

There is the cause in a nutshell of half the diseases and illness in the world.

Here is the cure—the greatest medical discovery of modern times—the remedy first prescribed by the greatest physician of this

"I have used Paine's celery compound for the past six months, and must say that it has helped me wonderfully. I had pain in my back and chest, and faint, tired feelings at the stomach, and when I would eat the taste would make me deathly sick. I became very weak, and lost about 29 pounds. After having used a few bottles of Paine's celery compound I am feeling better than I have in all my life." Try it.
