WASHINGTON, April 18 .- The resolution offered last Saturday by Senator Peffer, for the appointment of a select committee of of nine Senators to provide for a full and respectful hearing of the persons 'and organizations now on their way to Washington to present their remonstrances to Congress, was laid before the Senate, and Senator Cockrell moved to refer it to the Committee on Rules. Senator Peffer demanded the yeas and nays on the motion to refer, but, before the vote could be taken, the hour of 1 o'clock, arrived, and, under the arrangement, the Tariff bill was taken up.

Senator Morrill addressed the Senate. He began his speech by a promise that he would not "weary the unoccupied mahogany chairs Anderson while asleep in his bed and his of Senators, but would observe comparative barns are burned .---- The publishing firm of Senatorial brevity." He knew how vain it which Mark Twain is a member makes an would be for him to seek to "deprive the cigar symposium of its usual quorum in the cigar symposium of its usual quorum in the coat room." His speech was one of sarcastic ridicule of the attitude of the Democratic party towards protection and free trade, as exemplified in the pending Tariff bill. At the close of Senator Morrill's speech, which he read from printed slips, notice was given by Senator Mills of his intention, to address the Senate on the Tariff bill next Tnesday.

Senator Turpie, Democratic of Indiana, spoke in favor of the bill. Senator Cameron followed in a prepared speech in opposition to the Tariff bill Senator Quay resumed the speech which he had begun last Saturday, against the bill. The funeral train arrived just after dawn from Raleigh with the semmittees of both Houses of Congress, the Governor and other officers of the State, with three cars of distinguished friends of the dead Senator.

Notwithstanding the late hour when the train passed Hickory, Morganton and other stations, large crowds passed into the funeral car to view the remains. The body was deposited in the First Presbyterian church at o'clock, and from that time until 11:30

The crowds that thronged the stations along the way to Asheville delayed the train by their urgent demands to see, at least, the casket and they piled the funeral car with magnificent floral offerings. Each hamlet added beautiful flowers marked "From the Ladies to Our Zeb," and when Asheville was finally reached, and the fu-neral car was opened for the last time, it re-quired the aid of a company of militia to remove the floral tributes. The Asheville Light Infantry escorted the remains from the train to the church and mounted guard over them, while the reverent crowds passed over them, while the reverent crowds passed to take a last look at the beloved familiar face. The scene was very touching when the Confederate veterans took leave of their old commander. After these came several of the Senator's old slaves.

Stocks and Bonds in New York-The Grain and Provision Markets of Chicago.

NEW YORK, April 18 .- The market opened irregular, owing to a belief that considerable gold would be exported and the loss of $126,000 in the earnings of the St. Paul road for the second week of April. The bulls in the Industrials, however, did not permit their opponets to make much progress at this time and they took hold of Distillers, Chicago Gas and American Sugar, and put them up to 27, 673 and 981 respectively. This checked the declining tendency and a firmer feeling prevailed, and the shorts, who had been putting out contracts with more confidence than of late, started in to cover. This was primarily due to a decline in the actual rates of Sterling exchange, a result of recent bond purchases for Euro-pean account, which has increased the supply of bankers' bills. Bankers who had provided for gold exports by Sat-urday's steamer, said they would ship securities instead, and the morning estimate of a $5,000,000 effiux was materially reduced It is tolerably safe to say that unless the Sterling exchange market stiffens considerably to-morrow or Friday, very little gold will go forward this week. The early advance was equal to # to 1# per cent. in the Industrials and to 1 to 1 per cent. in the rail-ways. A sudden break in General Electric of nearly 2 points to 40%, due to the execution of stop orders, unsettled matters during the afternoon and the early gain was generally lost. NAVAL MATTERS.

The Amount Less Than the Estimates-The Old Hartford to be Preserved-Other Terms of the Bill.

WASHINGTON, April 18 .- The Naval Ap propriation bill as roported to the Hous to-day carries an appropriation of $25,280,-966, being $2,670,313 less than the estimates, and an increase of $3,176,905 over the appropriation for the current fiscal year. The appropriations for the increase of the navy cover only armor and armament and construction and machinery. For armor and armament the estimates called for $6,500. This the committee reduced to $4,000, 000. The large amount asked for in the estimates is due to the fact that nothing was allowed for this purpose in the bill for the current fiscal year, although the estimates called for $2,000,000. The appropriation was not made last year, as unlooked for delays in the manufacture of armor made the appropriation of the prior year sufficient for

DRESS GOODS-It is a practice, unfortunately too frequent, for dealers to mark ficti-tious and fanciful prices on certain goods as a basis, for reductions and a text for advertising. This is sometimes done on a large scale. Positive evidence of this method confront-ing the retail buyers should prompt them to rebuke and remedy the humbug by trading elsewhere. Novelty Suits from $5 to $10, no two patterns alike.
