THE GERMS OF ANARCHY

SENATOR ALLEN ATTACKED BY SENATOR HAWLEY.

tered by the Nebraskan on the Subject of Receiving Coxey's Army-Looking to Repeal of the State Bank Tax -Much Ado About Nothing. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 20. - Senator Sherman, a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations, introduced, explained, and had passed by the Senate a bill to amend the first section of the Behring Sea act of the 6th inst., by inserting the word: "Inclusive" instead of the word: "Exclusive." As amended, the section reads that it shall not be lawful to kill, capture, or pursue seals within a zone of sixty geographical miles around the Pribyloff islands, "inclusive of the territorial writers, (the three mile Senator Sherman said that he was satsfied that the error had not been made in the office of the Secretary of the Senate, but in the printing office. The error, he added, had already been corrected by correspondence between the State Department and the British Minister.

Senator Gordon offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Finance to report a bill to repeal the law authorizing a 10 per cent. tax on State bank issues and stated some points in support of the proposition. The first of these was that a repeal of that tax would do more than any other possible legislation to bring quiet to the country, to settle the disturbing financial controversy and to relieve the question of its somewhat sectional character. The resolution was referred to the Finance committee.

The Peffer resolution, relating to the Coxey army was again taken up, and a strong denunciation of it and of the speech of the Populist from Nebraska (Allen) yesterday, was made by Senator Hawley, who said:

"Mr, President, I prefer that a Representative of the dominant party should make some observations upon this matter, but the Senator from Missouri yields to me. I am sure that the remarkable ought not to go forth to the country as in any degree representative of the views of the Senate, and it ought not to pass without some conservative comment and dissent. I confess it pained and surprised me very much. I think that there is not a Senator; that there is not a sensible citizen in the United States who does not profoundly sympathize with the tens and hundreds of thousands. and I may say millions of people, suffering in the present extraordinary financial and business crisis. With expressions of impatience or resentment. every kind and thoughtful man will be very patient indeed, nor does any man the world think of restraining or overruling the right of the people in the language of the Constitution to "peaceably assemble and petition for a redress of grievances. He had never uttered a word in the entire course of his career that was not dictated by the kindliest feelings, and always with a desire to do his duty to his country, to his constitu-ents and to the House. He asked, in conclusion, unanimous consent that his remarks as printed be permitted to re-

Consent had been asked that gentlemen be permitted to extend their remarks, and it had been distinctly refused. In the face of that, the gentleman from Alabama had incorporated four and a half columns of the record into an allowance of one minute's time, and then made the Speaker say at the close: "The time of the gentleman has expired. Senator Jarvis will hold the Vance seat until the Legislature meets, when he will drop out and let a Western man take it to fill out the two years which will then remain and he will fight Ransom. Had he not been appointed he would have thus wrestled with Senawords, his plans have not been changed. His commission was issued this morning and bears date yesterday. His open letter to the people, published this morning, is regarded as a bold stroke.

Two attempts have been made to burn houses in East Raleigh. Last night the back and front doors of a large house there occupied by negroes were saturated with kerosene and set on fire. The fire was quickly extinguished, with but little

"Novel Ties."

WE ARE A LITTLE PROUD OF the taste shown in selecting ties. It's the neat odd designs that please-the exclusive novelties. In cheap Neckwear the quality is not so important as the appearance. For those who wish it, we show the combination, good material, neat designs and for those who want pretty designs in cheap material we have provided well. Seeing is believing, why not look at them? Are you interested in Underwear? Negligee Shirts? We have 'em, and in rattling pretty patterns
