SENATOR PROCTOR DRAWS UPON THE BIBLE FOR HIS TARIFF ARGUMENT.

The Wool Schedule Bill Under Discussion—Many Amendments to the House Adopted—The Five Minutes Rule for Debate on the Indian Appropriation Bill—Mr. Richardson's Explanations. SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The Senate passed to-day from the region of debate that of action on the wool schedule of the Tariff bill. The talking continued from 10:30 to 3:30 o'clock, but none of the speeches presented anything very new or remarkable, except a short one by Senator Proctor, who made good use of his Bible reading to illustrate his view of the attack upon the wool industry of the country.

He discovered in the murder of Abel "a keeper of sheep" by Cain, "a tiller of the ground" by the first Adam, and a "sheep" in the sheep industry, and he predicted that in this case "a mark would be set" upon the Democrats, and that they would be forced to cry out: "My punishment is greater than I can bear." This and other biblical references and quotations were greatly enjoyed on the Republican side of the Chamber, and in the galleries. A gentleman in the gallery on the Republican side of the Chamber, and while all of these amendments were rejected, one of them came near being offered. It was an amendment offered by Senator Peffer to substitute the McKelvey classification on woolen goods (reducing 50 per cent) and the same on other goods.

Among the bills reported was one for a public building at Chicago and one authorizing the creation of a national monument on one of the public reservations in the city of Washington. Mr. Outhwaite reported a resolution from the committee on the Indian Appropriation bill under the five minute rule until 3:30 o'clock when the Senate adjourned. A short executive session, adjourned until tomorrow, was held.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. Among the bills reported was one for a public building at Chicago and one authorizing the creation of a national monument on one of the public reservations in the city of Washington. Mr. Outhwaite reported a resolution from the committee on the Indian Appropriation bill under the five minute rule until 3:30 o'clock when the Senate adjourned.

By a vote of 128 to 63 Mr. Outhwaite's demand for the previous question was seconded, but on the passage of the bill the yeas and nays were ordered and resulted, yeas, 170; nays, 78; present and not voting, 27. Mr. Richardson, rising to a question of personal privilege, sent to the clerk's desk the Senate's Advance Sheet of the Evening News of yesterday, relating to the charges contained in local columns, connecting Mr. Richardson's name with certain transactions in his estate. This real estate had been purchased by the Eckington Street Railway company, and the news stated that the railroad company had proceeded the presentation of a report to the House by Mr. Richardson.

At the close of Mr. Richardson's remarks the members in evidence, which came from both sides. The speaker then declared the House in committee on the whole and the reading of the bill was begun. In accordance with the understanding that the agreement for debate proposed by the Senate should be adhered to, Mr. McCreary gave half an hour to the provision of the bill directing the transfer of the Indian tribes in the treasury to the credit of the Indian trust funds.

At 5 o'clock the House took a recess until 8 o'clock, the evening session being for the consideration of private pension bills. The "Deceased Wife's Sister" Bill Defeated. LONDON, June 15.—The Earl of Darnley moved in the House of Lords to-day the second reading of the "deceased wife's sister bill." He said that the experience of the United States and Canada which did not forbid a man marrying his deceased wife's sister, was a sufficient refutation of the objections of the bishops. It was a hardship and a cause of expense that a man, to marry his deceased wife's sister, and legitimate children by her, must go abroad to have the ceremony performed.

Lord Herschell, the Lord Chancellor, spoke in favor of the bill. The archbishop of Canterbury and Lord Selborne and Dudley spoke against it. The bill was lost by a vote of 189 to 130. The prime minister, Mr. Rosebery, and most of the Liberals supported the bill. Lord Salisbury, the Duke of Norfolk, most of the other Tories and some twenty bishops opposed it.

UNABLE TO AGREE. Members of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association are Making Slow Progress in Their Work of Settling Differences.

New York, June 15.—The annual convention of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association, following the meeting of the executive board, which has been in session at the Waldorf for the past three days, was not called to order until nearly noon to-day. The failure of the executive board to agree to the restoration of rates has had rather demoralizing effect on the convention, and but little interest is taken in its proceedings.

Nearly all the officials were late in arriving and many of them did not put an appearance at all. This was especially the case with representatives from the Southwestern lines. Samuel Felton, who has been an important factor in the meeting of the executive board and who is generally known as the "king of the road," leaves for his home in Cincinnati to-day. The general opinion is that the association will adjourn tomorrow and meet again at the Oriental hotel, Manhattan Beach, some time next month. It is understood that the meeting will be held in Long Island sound which will probably be made in Long Island sound which will probably be made.

The San Francisco, on being relieved at Bluefield, is under orders to take the United States mail to New York. The general railway rates were not changed to-day. The amount of the gold exports has failed to stimulate the stock speculation. The gold exports were $1,000,000, against $1,200,000 yesterday. At the start an advance of 1 per cent to 8 1/2 took place. In the afternoon the stock returned to 8 1/2, but was unchanged for the day at 9 1/4. Chicago Gas fell to 7 1/2 but pool brokers held it at 7 1/4. Union Pacific took another dip and touched 12 1/2 on continued liquidations, due to fears of a big assessment, but it rallied to 13 1/4. Some of the junior bonds of the subsidiary lines of the system, however, broke badly.

Chicago, June 15.—The drought in the Northwest has been broken and wheat declined on that news to-day. The enthusiasm for the wheat market has generally been a passing fancy, but something may happen to cause a recovery, but are not willing to back their opinion to too great an extent, being wary of the price of wheat. The ruling quotations of July wheat, the opening to-day was weak. The market held in the afternoon, but the blue lodges slight rally from the extreme low point of the day at the close. July wheat opened at 98 1/2 to 99 1/2, sold between 98 1/2 and 99 1/2, and closed at 98 1/2 bid. Cash wheat was in good demand.

July corn opened at 41 1/2, closed at 41 1/2 and 40 1/2, at net. The price of sugar is moderate demand for cash corn. Offerings were fair at prices ranging from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2. Oats made a decidedly good start to-day, but, unfortunately for prices, the weak wheat and corn markets were too weak to sustain the price of oats, in their maintaining the strength shown early. Yesterday's firmness was carried over to the opening to-day, but the price of oats declined, excepting for June, set in. That delivery closed to higher than yesterday, but July 1st closed trading in decline, and demand is higher than yesterday. Provisions were almost lifeless. The opening was weak in reference to the decline in the price of hogs, and the speculative feeling in grain ruled. Packers did a little buying but not enough to cause an improvement. The explosion in the John and Franziska mines at that place. About 300 miners are said to have been killed. The explosion took place in the shaft of the mine. The disaster was sent. The ventilation shafts were destroyed and the fire was spreading in all directions. The explosion took place at 10 o'clock p. m. in the pit of the Franziska mine and resulted in the death of 120 miners there. This explosion was followed by a series of explosions in the mines, the most disastrous being in the Johann pit, where eighty miners were killed. The explosion in the Johann pit occurred at 5 o'clock this morning also. The ventilator shafts of several pits were destroyed, and the fire spread in all directions. Assistance has been sent to the scene of the disaster from all directions. The Johann and Franziska mines are owned by Count Von Larisch.

J. Thomas, a purchasing committee of the Drexel, Morgan & Co. reorganization committee. Their bid was $2,000,000. The foreclosure and sale were under the third mortgage and subject to the gold debenture and equipment mortgage. The sale was immediately confirmed by the court, and this act constituted the reorganization committee of the corporation under a charter granted by the last Legislature. The committee will meet Monday and reorganize the road, giving it the name of the Southern Railway company.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT. NEW YORK, June 15.—Bradstreet's to-morrow will say: The practical arrival of the midsummer season and the usual slackening of business, extreme heat and need of rain in the Northern and Southern States, continued uncertainty as to the tariff, and the fact that the market with the large number of idle wage-earners in industrial, mining and other lines, all combine to produce dullness in business.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The torpedo boat Ericson, lately completed at Dupaque, is ready to be tested over the Navy department decides whether the contractors' proposition to deliver her to the Government at New York should be accepted. The contract called for the Ericson's delivery at Pensacola, but there is no water near there for testing the vessel, and the Government would be compelled to fit her out far from a base of naval supplies. The contractors offer to cruise round the Cape of Good Hope to New York in order that the trial may be made in Long Island sound which will probably be made.

COMMERCIAL NEWS.

Stocks and Bonds in New York. NEW YORK, June 15.—Trading at the Stock Exchange was entirely professional to-day and at 8 o'clock, when the room operators stopped their backing and filling, not one of the prominent stocks showed a change as much as a point either way, as compared with yesterday's finals. There was a marked falling off in the volume of business, the sales amounting to only 152,000 shares, against 227,000 yesterday. Of sugar, 81,100 shares were sold against 90,500 yesterday.
