anthracite coalers, some of the purchases NEW YORK, Oct. 31 .- Only one witness besides Police Commissioner Sheehan was before the Lexow committee to-day. The other man was a district Tammany leader whose examination was interesting but was lost sight of when Sheehan stood up. The commissioner had brought some bank books with him, concerning which he said: "Because I have my bank books it does not mean that I will tell what is in them unless I am accused of depositing money illegally, and then I will produce them."

Mr. Goff read an interview with Commissioner Sheehan published years ago. He laid stress on the extract in which Mr. Shee han was purported to have said: "It is also true that arrangements have been made by Tammany hall to stop the payment of police blackmail."

"Is that true?" asked Mr. Goff. The commissioner wanted to explain. He would not answer positively. "You can be committed for contempt," exclaimed Mr. Goff. "You'd better try it," defiantly retorted the witness. "You'll answer the questions as counse wants," Chairman Lexow said. "I'll answer them in my own way."
