THE LAST FUNERAL RITES OVER ALEXANDER III.

solemn and Impressive Service: -A Magnificent Pageant - Special Elaborate Burial Ceremonies For a Dead Czar Added to tne Usual Services of Church For the Barial of the Dead.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 19.-The entombnent of the remains of the late Czar Alexander III took place to-day in the cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul. The cathedral was packed with distinguished persons, including representatives of all the imperial and royal families of Europe. The funeral services were conducted by the metropolitan of St. Petersburg and the robed members of the Holy Synod, the metropolitans of St. Petersburg and Novgorod, the Czar's confessor, the clergy of St. Petersburg and vicinity, and the court of dignitaries, all robed in deep black. Beofficials, ministers, field marshals, genera's, admirals, secretaries of State, etc. all in full uniform and displaying many decorations; the Czarina's suite, the members of the State council, the members of the Senate and all of the foreign Ambassadors, including Mr. C. R. Breckinridge, Ambassador of the United States. Emperor Nicholas II and the imperial family appeared at the west door of the cathedral and preceded by the metropolitan of St. Petersburg and the members of the Holy Synod, all of them magnificently rabed in vestments of black and silver, passed through the body of the edifice towards the catafalque.

After the Czar and the imperial family and the Holy Synod had taken their places, the metropolitan and the clergy standing in a semi-circle around the head of the coffin. the metropolitan began the mortuary Mass, which, with the exception of the elaborate nusic and the general splendor of the oc-Audiffe had dead which is said for any other faithful disappointed.

At noon the air inside the church was heavy with incense and the dim light within Alabama, December 1st, and was starred with thousands of tapers, each mourner and visitor holding one. The scene was one of rarest beauty, the sanctuary and the body of the edifice sparkling as though jeweled with precious stones. present were standing, the Czar with the imperial family and the visiting royalties on the right side of the coffin. The Czarina, pale and fragile, and looking much affected. stood by the side of the Czar. The harmony of the male choir which sang without instrumental accompaniment was perfect. Their voices were of marvel ous richness and purity and the effect

The service began with a brief prayer, after which Psalm was sung by an unseen male choir. Then mpany H Forty-third followed the singing of Psalm 119, which died of blood poison- was divided into three stations, with an anthem after each part.

Six litanies were then sung by the metropolitan and the choir, each one having the refrain "Lord, Teach Me Thy Judgments."

A beautifully rendered "Gloria in Excelsis held in Boston this week. The break caeded by an intenation by the metropoli tan, "Lord, make Thy servant rest with the righteous and cause him to dwell in Thy court. As it is written; mercifully forgive his sins, voluntary and involuntary, and all offences, knowingly and unknowingly com-mitted, O, Thou Lover of Mankind."

The miserere and Psalm 51 followed this and then came an intonation: "All is yan-ity. Life is a shadow and a dream. Every earthborn creature disquieth himself in vain. As it is written; when we have eaped up riches in the world, we lie down in the grave where Kings and beggars sleep sould of Thy departed servant." Recitations of the "Beatitudes" followed, nterspersed with prayers for the departed. After an inscription to the Trinity and the

Then came the second lesson, verses 24 to 41 inclusive of the fifth chapter of John, and the prayer "God of All Spirits," was said as the metropolitan approached the catalfaque, preparatory to the ceremony of taking a solemn farewell of the dead. This was done by the chief mourners, the metrotan meanwhile repeating the following as from the mouth of the dead:

"Brethren and Friends, view me here, lying speechless and breathless, and lament. but vesterday we conversed together. Awful hour. Death has overtaken me. Come near all who are bound to me in affliction. and with a last embrace pronounce a last farewell No longer shall I sojourn among you, no longer shall I bear a part in your discourses. To a Judge I go, Who is no respector of persons. Master and slave, Soverich and solve and subject rich and poor are alike ereign and subject, rich and poor, are alike before Him. According to their deeds they are put to shame or rewarded. Therefore, let me entreat all of you to pray to God earnestly that I am not tormented with the wicked according to my sins, but am received into the light of life."

After the repetition of the "Holy. Holy, and the Lod's prayer, the metropolital repeated thrice: 'May thy memory endure market. The weakness of grain, particuforever. Oh, our brother, who was worthy to be blessed with remembrance." The choir sang this three times and the metropolitan selling orders. The close was 71c lower than then pronounced the words of absolution for the dead: "The Lord Jesus Christ, our lod, who gave divine commandments unto his holy disciples and apostles to bind and loose the sins of the fallen and from whom we have again received authority to do the like, forgive thee, O, spiritual child. what-ever thou has done in the life that is voluntarily or involuntarily now and eyer, and o ages of ages. Amen. After a pause, during which silent prayer was offered up, the Crar stepped forward to the coffin and kissed the lips of the dead imperor, the other members of the imperor. rial family and those bound by ties of blood or marriage followed. Then eight generals appeared, bearing the lid of the coffin, which was fastened in its place. The Grand Dukes then lifted the coffin to their shoulders and bore it to the entrance to the im-perial yault, which opened in the pavement, and a moment later the mortal remains of Alexander Itl were lowed into the resting place of his imperial ancestors. At the moment, the coffin was lowered, a gun was fired, and the Czar stepped forward and

REPUBLICANS OPPOSED

TO A JOINT CAUCUS ON THE ELECTION OF SENATORS.

Proposed Changes by the Fusionists in County Affairs-State Guard Appropriation to Be Reduced -The Hayseeder After the Baptists-A Short Mast Crop-An Interesting Taxation Case.

MESSENGER BUREAU. RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 19. The remarks made by Col. Robert M Douglas in opposition to a joint caucus of the Populists and Republicans find an echo in some quarters. It is estimated that this question will bear with much weight on the senatorial matter. It is alleged that Jeter C. Pritchard's friends will bardly favor such caucus, as they would prefer a straight Republican caucus, hoping to concentrate the extreme element of the party in his favor and against Ewart. It is said furthur that Western members, with the extreme Eastern members, will prefer a caucus of both Populists and Republicans to select Senators. With a caucus of that character the aggressor and he landed his left full on Marion Butler would be relieved of the responsibility of expressing a preference as between Republicans. Still further, it is > and perhaps, as was the case in Georgia recently, the caucus will hear from the Senatorial aspirants personally.

> There is little doubt that the Legislature will greatly lessen the appropriation to the State Guard, Leading Populists so say. They attacked the Guard during the cam-

The crop of acorns this year is one of the smallest on record. The great frost and freeze late in April is said to have been the cause of the short crop. There are also few hickorynuts, walnuts or persimmons. Saturday night at 11 o'clock a governing wheel at the electric car power house broke, and the engine "ran away." Things were made quite lively for some time.

The Hayseeder, Otho Wilson's Populist organ, rather goes for the Baptists. It says that Rev. H. W. Norris, fusion nominee for the Serveto in Welvern, the Senate in Wake, was an avowed oppo-nent of State aid to the university, while Ed. Chambers Smith, Esq, was an avowed supporter of an appropriation. Yet at Wake Forest precinct Norris fell thirty votes beahead of his. This moves Mr. Wilson to say that the Baptists do not vote as they pray. He intimates that the attacks on the then improved. The rally in the general university will, by reason of these facts, be Governor Carr declines to order a special

Quite an interesting case will be agreed before the Supreme court this week by Clement Manly, Esq., of Counsel. The commissioners of Forsyth county have put apon the tax list certain property of the United Brethren or Moravians, the property in question being that from which they de rive an income. It is an interesting question and of importance. It is said that the fusionists in repealing county government intend to let the people elect magistrates, commissioners and school committeemen; that they propose to abolish the office of county superintendent and the school boards, and to place upon the chairman of the county commissioners the duties of the public school superintendent Another new feature which is proposed to have in each county a board of audit and finance, (on the Wilmington plan) to be of the opposite political party to the commissioners, no draft on the be valid until approved by the board of audit and finance. The Cruiser Montgomery at Mobile. MOBILE, Ala., Nov. 19.—The cruiser Montgomery, which arrived in the lower bay on Friday evening, was met this morning by the Secretary of the Navy Herbert, the mayor of Mobile, and the committee representing this city and given an official welcome. Subsequent to this ceremony the cruiser was escorted up the ship channel to the city and was saluted as she cast anchor at the wharf.

The revenue cutter Forward left the wharf at 7:45 o'clock this morning, having on board Secretary Herbert, Congressmen Clark of Alabama and Meyer of Louisiana, and a number of representative Alabamians, besides a party of ladies and gentlemen from Mobile. The Montgomery was sighted at about 10:30 o'clock lying inside of Fort Morgan. A half hour later the Forward anchored a short distance from the cruiser, which then fired a salute of seventeen guns in honor of the Secretary of the Navy. As soon as the cutter came to anchor, Commander Davis and two officers put off from the cruiser and came on board the cutter and proceeded to where Secretary Herbert was standing, to whom Commander Davis paid his respects.

Mayor Lavretta formally welcomed Com-mander Davis on behalf of the city of Mobile, the mayor having been formally visited last night by an officer of the Mont omery and officially notified of the arrival of the cruiser. An invitation was then extended to Commander Davis, and to the officers of the cruiser to partake of a collation on board the revenue cutter. The invitation was accepted and in a few minutes the cruiser's long boat brought the Montgomery's officers alongside the Forward. weighed anchor and started for the city,

Shortly after the collation both vessels which was reached at 4 o clock when the cruiser was saluted with seventeen guns, fired by Battery ('A'' of the Alabama State artillery, which was responded to by the oruiser, and Kolb to be Sworn in as Governor and Issue a Proclamation—Such Attempt to be Followed by Arrest for Treason.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 .- A special this afternoon from Montgomery, Ala, says: When the Legislature met this morning it leaked out from among the Kolbites that Kolb would to-day or to-morrow come to Montgomery and be sworn in as Governor and then issue a proclamation to the people of the State, declaring that he has been legally and lawfully elected. What further steps, if any, he proposes to take or whether or not he will attempt to establish a dual government, is not known. It is believed Governor Jones will at once have Capt. Kolb arrested for treason if he attempts to be sworn in. The intention of Kolb and his followers caused a sensation when it got noised about to-day.

Mentgomeny, Ala., Nov. 19.—Kolb's manifesto was issued late this afternoon at Birmigham. The following is a short interview with Governor Jones on the subject Governor Jones was about to take the train for Mobile to take part in the ceremanies attending the reception of the cruiser afontgomery. He was shown telegrams from Birmingham in reference to the Kolb manifesto. He declined to be interviewed but when shown the despatch about the Kolb manifesto, wherein Kolb says that by the grace of God he will take his seat on December 1st, quietly remarked: "William C. Oats has been elected Governor by the fairly expressed will of a ma-jority of the people of Alabama, and has been so declared by the General Assembly, the only tribunal which has the right or authority under the Constitution to declare the result. It is my duty to see that he is duly installed, and by the grace of God, he will be. I do not anticipate that any number of men will be foolish enough to heed Kolb's advice, but if they do, the con-sequences will be on their own heads."

Capt. Kolb's manifesto, issued to-day, concludes:

The official count, as declared by the Speaker, gives Oates a majority of 27,582. Election frauds committed in the counties named in the protest of Senator Goodwin, of which we have positive and sworn evidence, would be more than sufficient to wipe out all the majority claimed for Oates. "I have determined to discharge my full duty to the people of Alabama. I will not fail to respect the pledges which I made to the people who have given me thir confidence and stood by me so heroicly and de-yotedly during the past four years.

"You fellow-citizens, have twice elected me Gorvernor of this State and this time, by the grace of God, and the help of the good people of Alabama, I will be Governor. December 1st is the day fixed by the law for the inauguration of the Governor. On that day I shall be in Montgomery for the purpose of taking the oath of office and my seat as Governor. And I hereby call upon the good people in every part of the State to aid me all in their power in the proper and peaceable upholding of the law and to set aside the powers of the traitors and usurpers in Alabama.

"I appeal to my friends and supporters from all parts of the State to be in Mortgomery on the first day of December 1894. there and then to give me their aid and support in a lawful and peaceable manner, to vindicate their liberties. I counsel against any unlawful demonstration, but ask the presence and co-operation of freemen in a necessary effort to enforce the law and carry out the will of the people.'

CIVIL SERVICE RULES.

Again Extended by the President-Heavy Drafts Still Made on the Gold Reserve-No Reply Yet From Japan.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19 .- Gold was withdrawn at the New York sub-treasury to-day in exchange for currency by the following parties in the sums named: Third National bank, $1,000,000; Emmerson & Turnbull, $300,000; Central National bank, $200,000: Asiel & Co., $48,000; National Bank of the Republic, $100,000; total $1,548,000.

Corrected and official figures received at the Treasury Department show that the net loss of gold on Friday and Saturday by the treasury was $1,485 135, as follows: For United States notes, $1,468.581; treasury notes, $16.555. The treasury stated balance to-day is $101,162,000; of which $61,832,000 is in gold. This statement of the gold does not take in upwards of $2,000,000 of gold withdrawn at New York to-day and Saturday last, which will not begin to show in the treasury books until to-morrow. So far, slightly over $3,000,000 in gold have been withdrawn at New York since November 13th and $100,000 at other points. Otherwise, except for the gold withdrawn to bid for bonds, the treasury has been gaining gold, as it did before, from mintage and in the Western sub-treasuries. Secretary Gresham says he has received no reply from Japan to the guarded offer of mediation made by the United States November 6th, and, in the opinion of other State Department officials, no definite reply from Japan is expected in the immediate future. On the recommendation of the Postmaster General, the President has extended the benefits of the civil service to the employes of postal transfer or sub-stations. About 300 people are affected. They were inadvertently left out of a former classifica-tion. The President signed the extension order Saturday and it will go into effect without delay.

OF CONGRESSMAN BLACK TO MR. WATSON.

He Declines the Proposition For Commission to Pass Upon the Election in Their District, But Proposes to Resign on March 4th so as to Have a New Election Ordered.

Augusta, Ga. 19.—The Chronicle will publish to-morrow the reply of Congressman J. C. Black to Mr. Tom Watson's proposition to appoint a commission to purge the recent Congressional election in the Tenth district of illegal votes and abide by the eliminated count. Congressman Black, after a conference with his political friends and advisers, says: "In that conference, the decision was reached promptly and unanimously that Mr. Watson's proposition was wholly im-

After giving the reasons for this conclusion, he says: "But I am in hearty accord with Mr.

Watson in his motive for making the proposition 'for the purpose of putting an end to the terrible state of affairs in the Tenth district.' I am in no way or degree re sponsible for this 'terrible state of affairs,' for I have preached no gospel of bitterness. I have appealed to no prejudice. I have not sought to array the country against the town. I have not persuaded one class that they are the victims of another and leshed them into frenzy at of another and lashed them into frenzy at the thought. It is my belief that if all illegal votes were eliminated I would be found to be elected by the legal voters. In nearly all parts of the district there were excessive otherwise illegal voting and practices. Well informed persons assert that the vote in several counties that went for Mr. Watson was proportionately more excessive than in Richmond. Moreover, the excessive Populist vote in Richmond itself contribu-ted to the general excessiveness of Rich-

"Two methods remained by which to set-tle the matter. One is a decision by a Re-publican House; the other a new election. Does Mr. Watson prefer that forum for the trial of the case to that of the people of the Tenth district, especially when it is probable that his fullest measure of success, if any, would be, after all, an order for a new election? If he prefers that forum, of course, he can have it; for I have, in order to bring about that result, only to remain in the position where the law places me. This, of course, I shall and must do, unless Mr Watson accedes to the proposition which, in the spirit of harmony and desire to restore peace and good feeling in the district, I hereby make and which is unanimously approved by the conference referred to. will take my commission as a member of of the Fifty-Fourth Congress; but I will resign it, the resignation to take effect March 4th, 1895, whenever Mr. Watson will agree within the time allowed by law for notice of contest, to refer the matter back to the people to determine by a new election who shall represent them in the Fifty-fourth Congress. I name that date, to-wit: March 4, 1895, for three reasons: My term will not commence till then sons: My term will not commence till then.
It is desirable to postpone a new election as long as possible so as to let feeling subside, and view of a municipal election in Augusta in December and of county elections all over the district in January. It is probable that by that date a new and more satisfactory election law than the present, may be a present. election law than the present may be en-
