Milmington Messenger.

WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1894.

ESTABLISHED 1867.

TELIGFAPHIC SUMMARY.

OF EDUCATION, BOARD

The South Carolina Legislature adopts a concurrent resolution, inviting President Cleveland to visit that body. There was some opposition from a Reformer, who wanted to table the resolution-Debs and his associates decide to go to jail and will not appeal from Judge Woods' sentences ---- The Southern Railway company notifies the representatives of employes in conference in Washington that it will submit in sixty days a new schedule of wages and rules, and the employes agree to await this-George A. Minetree, druggist, of Petersburg, makes an assignment-Will Myers, the assassin of Forest Crowley is sentenced to be hanged February 8th Charles M. Stedman and Gen. W. G. Danville Railroad company are dis- meeting was to make a sale of some of charged - Argument is heard in the the swamp lands held by the board. Federal court in the case of Carnegie's There now remain about 350,000 acres of suit for $125,000 against that company these lands. Some of them are good character, and during the course of the --- The State board of education ex- lands. The term swamp lands is in not hour that Baldwin was there he subtends the option on swamp lands held by a few cases a misnomer. the Real Estate Investment company, of Wilmington-Revenue officers seize three blockade distilleries ---- On arrival of the steamer Nachez a woman on board is arrested, charged with attempt to burn the boat ---- A negro in the station house at Denmark, S. C., attempts to burn his way out and perishes in the flames-The Norfolk and Southern railroad declares a quarterly dividend of 1 per cent-Maj Sprigg Harwood, clerk of the court at Annapolis since 1867 and his great nephew J. Harwood swamp," embracing 84,000 acres. The Iglehart die almost simultaneously-

The cashier of the Central National bank, of Rome, N. Y., is a defaulter to the sum of $27,000. The teller has disappeared, but the cashier says he is in no way connected with his shortage - The steamer Oakfield, cotton laden, 'Galveston for Liverpool, puts in at St. Johns with her cargo on fire -The Cushing has to put in at Lewes, Del., on account of rough weather ---- No one is allowed to visit the President on the Wistaria down, if they stick to it. and he declines all invitations. He will hold a reception at Georgetown Saturby wagons here is now over 6,000 bales. as compared with last season's receipts. day-Bahen the injured foot lall player is no better. His case puzzles show a decided increase over these a chicago Gas was the only stock on the Senate should pattern, especially in view

IT MEETS TO MAKE SALE OF MORE SWAMP LANDS.

More Propositions for New Counties-Proposed Reduction of Cotton Acreage-Christmas Week Gaicties-Improvements of Telephone System-Complaints About Bad Streets and Pavemen's --- Sudden Death at Warrenton. MESSENGER BUREAU, RALEIGH, Dec. 18. The State board of education meet today at Governor Carr's office. Hon.

Some time ago it was intimated that the State desired to secure a large tract submit new schedules of salaries of emof these swamp lands for use as a con- ployes, together with new rules and reg vict farm, instead of occupying leased lands. It was then found that the 30,- that the company could say at the 000 acres which were wanted could not present time, as it was necessary to be had in one tract and so the idea was make careful inquiry and study in the abandoned. At that time the Wilming- preparation of these matters. The deleton, Newbern and Norfolk railway had an option on what was considered the feeling displayed. most desirable land for farming pur-poses, this being the "White Oak railway has not paid for this land, so the latter reverts to the State board. A map is now being prepared here to be submitted to the Legislature in connection with a petition for the erection of a new county to be formed out of parts of Guilford, Forsyth, etc. This is the third project for a new county thus far heard of as to come before the Legislature. It is extremely difficult to secure to obtain a quicker settlement. the creation of new counties.

COMMERCIAL NEWS. Some farmers with whom your correspondent talked say they will next year plant only four acres of cotton, instead Stocks and Bonds in New York-The of twelve, to the horse. This is a big cut Grain and Provision Markets of thicago. The increase in local receipts of cotton

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 .- During the early session of the Stock Exchange the Sales of leaf tobacco here this season market was quiet almost to stagnation. But the House of Lords was surely not a body after which the United States

A SIXTY DAYS' TRUCE The Southern Railway to Submit New Schedule of Wages and Rules FURTHER ARGUMENTON THE to Employes in Sixty Days. HILL RESOLUTION. WASHINGTON, Dec. 18,-An effort made to-day to adjust the differences between the Southern Railway and its employes The Necaraguan Canal Bill Opposed over the cut in salaries made by the reby Senator Turple-Mr. Springer ceivers of the road when it was known Opens the Debate on the Caras the Richmond and Danville has relisle Bill-Notice of Amendments-The Bill a Comsulted in a two months' truce, arranged promise Measurc-Mr. at a conference between the representa-Walker's Opposition. tives of the employes and W. H. Bald-SENATE. win, Jr., third vice president of the WASHINGTON, Dec. 18 .- The bill ap company. The conference was held at propriating $100,000 to supply an urgent Harris hall and was attended by Chief Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomodeficiency for public printing and bindtive Engineers; Assistant Chief Wilson, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Fireing was received from the House and was passed without reference to the men; Chief Clarke, of the Order of Rail-Committee on Appropriations, Senator way Conductors; Chief Brown, of the Cockrell, chairman of that committee, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and about forty representatives of the men stating that the bill had been considered whose salaries were reduced. The proinformally and had been unanimously agreed to, as, unless it were passed to day, the work at the printing office would mitted and dis used what the company would do Mr Buldwin said that within have to stop this evening.

Senator Lodge offered a resolution the next sixty days the company would calling on the President for the record of the extradition proceedings in the case ulations, which it believed would be satof Gen. Ezeta, and it went over till tcmorrow. Senator Hill called up his resolution for a cloture rule and addressed the Senate in advocacy of it. He said that gates received Mr. Baldwin's statement the sentiment of the country seemed to curteously and there was the best of desire the adoption of some such rule-The demand for a change was not After Mr. Baldwin's departure the dellimited by any party environments. It egat s held a long session, during which the proposition of the company was conwas not sought merely to secure parti an advantages; but it reflected the deep sidered. The result was that an agree conviction that time was unnecessarily ment was reach d to meet the reprewast-d; that useful legislation was. sentatives of the company on February at times, unreasonably obstructed, and that the conclusions of a majority did not find adequate and prompt ex 3th, or sooner if the company were ready, to receive the new schedule and rules and to consider what action should pression. These views were widespread be taken with reference to them. It and could no longer well be ignored He was agreed that during this interim no asserted that the privilege of unlimited debate in a legislative body was inconeffort should be made by the employes sistent with, and destructive of, the right and power of legislation. An inaility to stop debate was an inability to egislate at all. It was a significant fact that some method of closing detate existed in the principal legislative bodies of every civilized Government in the world, except in the English House of Lords and the United States Senate.

ending June 30, 1896. list that showed any signs of life. Re- of its loss of public confidence, its defiance of public sentiment, and its wellknown antipathies to progressive legislation in the interest of the masses. Senator Hoar expressed his full agree ment with Senator Hill's view of the price was forced down to 693. Some arise, and ought to be dealt with with a official denials of these stories resulted in care and circumspection equal to what should be bestowed on an important day and a recovery of over 2 points to amendment to the Constitution of the account of the President's first day's GLOTURE IN THE SENATE them safe. The State bank notes, how-ever, would not be a legal tender. The proposition regarding State banks was different from the one discussed by the House at its last session-the repeal of the 10 per cent. tax. He LIVELY TIMES IN THE SOUTH did not favor the repeal of the 10 per cent. tax. He had not changed his CAROLINA LEGISLATURE. mind regarding the State banks; but Opposition of a Member to a Reso this did not prevent him from agreeing to a compromise. If this bill was lution Inviting Mr. Cleveland to enacted into law it would improve our Columbia-His Protest Against financial system. It would not only do this, but in his opinion it would give the United States the best financial system the Passage of the Resoluofany civilized country in the world "If we passed it," said he, "we would COLUMBIA,S. C , Dec. 18 .- In the House rec ive the commendation of our con-

of Representatives to day Mr. McGill, of stituents, which we did not receive at the last election.' Abbeville, introduced a concurrent reso Mr. Walker, Republican, of Massalution as follows: chusetts, followed. He said that if there WHEREAS, The President of the United ever was a case in which bread was asked and a stone given, a fish asked States and party are now visiting in this and a scorpion given, it was in this in-State, and stance. He wanted to go back to the Jackson-Benton Democratic platform of WHEREAS. The General Assembly is compelling the banks, in return for the now in session and desires to extend to franchise granted them, to maintain at the President and gentlemen accompanytheir own expense the parity of their ing him that courtesy due his exalted ofnotes with gold ficial position. In conclusion Mr. Walker said his bill provided for the appointment of a com-Resolved, By the House, the Senate mission consisting of five leading bankers changes in the law.

morrow.

sport:

concurring, that an invitation be exin the five principal redemption cities, who shall give the Secretary of the Treasury advice and counsel in all mattended to the President and party to visit the General Assembly and accept the privileges of the floor of the two Houses. ters relating to the financial matters of the Government. This was a measure of As soon as the resolutions were read, relief to the Secretary that was worth a Dr. Wich, of Newberry, moved to rewhole session of legislation. "Manning has died; Windom has died; and any ceived it as information.

Mr. Duncan, of Newberry, a strong reformer, then said: "I hope this mat-ter will not be disposed of in this way. Secretary who remains at the head of the Treasury Department for four years and does not die. hasn't done his duty. [Laughter and applause] am opposed to extending such courtesy to a President for whom we justly enter-Mr. Hall said the milk in the cocoanut tain so little respect. I, therefore, move of opposition to the Carlisle bill was contained in the statement in the minority to table the resolution report: "Whatever legislation is had The Speaker seemed to hesitate about with reference to the finances of the putting the motion. He said that, as the presiding officer, he doubted the procountry or banking, in its effects upon National banks, should be permissive and priety of such a motion.

not mandatory as to National banks Mr. Manning, a Conservative, said the while their present charters continue' matter had come before the House. "That is," said Mr. Hall, "these banks Any action looking to receiving it as information would have a bad appearare not to be disturbed in their present ance. He suggested that the resolution monopoly of the issue of notes, and that be withdrawn we must wait upon their convenience

tion and Denunciatory

of the President-The Resolution Adopted.

and desire in the matter of banking Mr. Patton, Conservative from Richland; said that such action would be At the conclusion of Mr. Hall's revery strange, that it would be worse than to consider it and vote it down. They marks the committee rose and at 5:15 o'clock the House adjourned until toshould remember that Mr. Cleveland was President, that this was an honor they should accord any President, no matter Just before adjournment Mr. Henderof what political faith, and no matter son, of North Carolina, reported the Postoffice Appropriation bill for the year how much opposed to his policy and politics they were. They should do Mr. Cleveland this honor, not because it was

---Mr. Cleveland, but they should pay their PRESIDENET CLEVELAND respects to the office. Mr. Watson, the Reform leader, then Declines to Receive Any One on the took the floor. He said he hoped the Wistaria or to Accept Any Inviresolution would not be withdrawn. The tations. To Hold a Recepmatter if withdrawn had gone so far that it would be given full publicity. tion at Georgetown, While they might differ in policy from CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 18 .- The President Cleveland, he was neverthe-News and Courier dispatched a special ess President of the United State. 'I hope we wont go down on record as reporter to Georgetown last night to see taking such action as this," he said. the President and received the following Mr. Tatum of Orangeburg, another

PRICE 5 CENTS.

- IS AS USUAL, -

Headquarters : for : Santa : Glaus.

WILL BE OPEN EVERY NIGHT UNTIL 9 O'CLOCK, AND EVERYTHING must be sold, so come early and make your selections. Everything must go before the first of January, prices marvelously low, so don't delay but come to .

Taylor's Bazaar.

No connection with any other Store. Presents for Old and Young.

118 Market St. Wilmington, N. C.

Christmas Presents.

Novelties in Brass and Copper.

Beautiful Carving Sets.

Scissors in Cases.

Pocket Knives.

OWEN F. LOVE & CO.

that Bowen came to his death through properly developed, and only one ware neglect of the club's not having the floor house out of three is open. Not much cently it has been depressed on reports of the ring padded ---- It is rumored that tobacco is planted in this county. Years that the company had an unwieldy ago the farmers lost heavily and since floating debt, was unable to pay its divithe Seaboard Air Line becomes the that time have touched this crop lightly. property of the Southern Railroad company—The Such Carolina Senate passes the Metropolitan Police law— is to be a Christmas week galeties will be hut passes the Metropolitan Police law club and the Carolina Cotillion club will assaulting a white girl-The body of the Streeet Car company was begun to-Capt. Overguard, captain of the steamer Don Juan, wrecked in December 1893 and dynamos. has been washed ashore, well preserved OPTIONS ON SWAMP LANDS Held by the Beal Estate Investment along than organization.

Company of Wilmington Extended -Blockade Distilleries Captured. (Correspondence of the Messenger.]

The chairman of the street committee RALEIGH, N. C. Dec. 18 -The State asserts that the aldermen do not do that board of education renewed for twelve months the option on all swamp lands that no further improvements can be cial circles. It serves no good purpose held by Charles M. Steadman, president It is contended that the city's income of the Real Estate Investment company, of Wilmington.

Collector Simmons is notified of the seisure of three illicit distilleries, one hand. by Depute Collector Moffitt on an island in the Pee Dee river in Richmond county, owned and operated by J. R. McRae and two by Deputy A. F. Rhodes to Miss Lucy Garrett, of Ringwood, down to 98; in the last ten minutes, but in Caswell county.

THE SOUTHERN RAILWAY esteemed there and here.

The Receivers Discharged-Carnegie's Big Suit Argued.

RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 18 .- Judge Goff entered orders in the United States Circuit court to day, discharging Messre. James M. Hines, of Newbern, a store-Foster and Huidekoper as receivers of keeper and gauger. the Richmond and Danville railroad, and confirming the sales of Richmond and Danville property recently made. office of the State Treasurer and began their resignations.

Arguments were heard this afternoon day afternoon. The inspection of the in the case of Carnegie against the Rich- bo ks, vouchers, etc., is very tedious, mond and Danville company for $125,000 All the books and papers examined have for steel rails furnished. The court re- been found in admirable order served its decision.

A Steamer's Cargo of Cotton on Fire. | ard's letter, declining to accept the cer-ST. JOHN'S, N. F., Dec. 18,-The British steamship Oaktield, which sailed Saturday morning, in the reading room from Galveston, November 26th, via of the Yarboro, very kindly read to your Newport News, December 8th, for Liver- | correspondent his very manly letter and pool, with a cargo of cotton, has arrived permitted some extracts from it to be at this port with her cargo on fire. Last Saturday, when off Cape Rice, smoke was seen issuing from the forward ven cilator. The pumps were at once set to work and the hold of the steamer thooded with water. The vessel was points, but got this back and then adheaded for this port. Sunday morning vanced 1 to 2 points, closing quiet and the officer of the steamer, thinking that the fire had been gotten under control, continued on the voyage to Liverpool but during the afternoon the fire again gained headway and the steamer once more turne i towards this port. The extent of the fire is thought to be considerable, owing to the difficulty experienced in keeping it within bounds.

Another Bank Embezzlement, ROME, N. Y., Dec. 18 -An examination of the books of the Central National bank of Rome by National Bank Ex-

Trad

Christmas week gaieties will be nu. dend in cash and would ask helders to A negro is lynched near Ocala, Fla., for both give balls. A large addition to the power house of the covering of short contracts for today. This will be for the engines, boilers 718. There was little or nothing doing in the general list until the last hour or The Telephone company here (the so of business, when trading became Southern Bell) is beginning $3,000 worth more active. The increase in the volof work, including a new multiple board, ume of business, however, was at cabling, etc. The new telephone com- the expense of values. The with pany has not as yet got any further drawals of gold from the sub-treasury gave the bears an opportunity to create There is a great deal of complaint about bad streets and sidewalks here. uneasiness, because it was impossible to obtain from the sub-treasury officials the actual amount taken. The efforts to surround the matter with the greatest committee justice, but handicap it, and of secrecy is not approved of in the finanmade unless there is an issue of bonds. and plays directly into the hands of those operating in the stock market. barely meets its expenditures. During Washington reports that the sugar tariff three or four months of the year, in the will be revived in the Senate hurt that summer and autumn, when work can stock The decline in prices ranged from best be done, there are no funds in 1 to 1 per cont. Sugar, the Grangers, Southern Railway, common and pre-

Rev. Dr. I. McK. Pittinger, rector of ferred, Reading, Louisville and Nashville the church of the Good Shepherd, is to and New York Central scoring the greatbe married in that church January 9th est losses. The last named was raided Halifax county. Miss Garrett, who Halifax county. Miss Garrett, who lives in this city with her sister, is well in the stock were only 1,4(0 shares. Early known in the Halifax section and greatly in the day the stock was quoted at 1004 to 100%. The market closed steady at

Mr. John White, one of Warrenton's declines ranging from 1 to 1 per cent., oldest and best known merchants, died Sugar leading. Chicago Gas rose 14 and very suddenly last night. He had just Bay State Gas 1. United States Cordage, reached home and as he entered his door guaranteed, fe 1 24 to 224 and Panhandle, he fell dead. He was widely known and preferred, 14 to 454. The bond market was weak. Sales of listed stocks aggrehas an extensive family connection. Revenue Collector Simmons appoints gated 89,000 shares; unlisted, 50,000. CHICAGO, Dec. 18,-In the strength of the Northwestern markets, where an The joint Legislative committee toadvance of to #c from yesterday ruled day completed its examination of the most of the day and in the gradually Messra. Foster and Huidekoper tendered work in the Auditor's office. Senator diminishing primary receipts, wheat in Chicago found important relief to day. Within a half hour of the close heam became a notable seller, presumably of long wheat, prices showing the maximum of the session's weakness whilst that pressure was on the market. Previous to that time a steady feeling was The News and Observer to-day makes apparent in the undertone. Cash wheat some inquiries about Mr. John E. Woodwas weak and ic lower.

Corn had none of the elements of firmtificate of election in the Third district ness in the trade to-day. Business was solicitorship matter. Mr. Woodard last quiet, but the tendency was lower. The receipts of oats were thirty-five cars less than estimated, and prices for that grain displayed some independent firmness around the opening on that

The Sun's Cotton Review.

NEW YORK, Dec. 18 -The Sun's cotton review says: Cotton declined 1 to 2 leclined to to day. efter opering with a decline corresteady with sales of 69.900 bales. New Orleans advanced 2 points on March, but lost it. Spot cotton here was dull and weak, at unchanged prices with no sales. Liverpool to day declined 1-32d on the spot, with sales of 8,009 bales, with 2,-Janary ribs.

000 added to the sales of yesterday, mak-ing them 10,000. Futures declined 1 point and closed quiet and steady. In Manchester yarns were in buyer's favor and in moderate demand. There is said to be a large short interest in New York New Orleans to morrow exp ets 12,0 0 to 14.00 b. les, usinst 15,826 on the same day last week and 17.807 last year. Port held this morning, decided to go to jail

United States. After further discussion, Senator Hill's esolution went over untill to-morrow. The consideration of the Nicaraguan anal bill was resumed.

Senator Turpie continued his argument begun yesterday) against the bill. fuch of his sprech was devoted to the to see the President returning from the engineering difficulties in the way of the day's hunt in one of the Wistaria's napenterprise, particularly as to the imprac- | tha launches. In the launch with the ticability of maintain ng earthen embant. President were Dr. O'Reily, Capt. Evans, ments in tropical or sub-tropical regions. U. S. N., and Mr. Jefferson. As the and to the unreliability, as he contended, of the estimate of cost.

Without concluding his speech, Senator Turpie yielded to a motion to pro, seat and pulled off his overcoat ceed to executive business and at 4:25 while the boat was being made fast. o'clock the Senate adjourned until to- after which, with the assistance of two morrow.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The debate upon the currency and plan proposed in the Carlisle bill reported bers of the crew and others who have rom the Committee on Banking and Currency, was begun in the House to troubling him badly, the ailment being day, according to the notice given yesrheumatic gout, terday by Chairman Springer. Objection was made to Mr. Springer's request | men of the party went up the side the for unanimous coasent that general de- hands took out the guns and the result bate should be closed with the adjournment of the House for the holiday recess, and it began with no agreement of mallards. imitation in sight. The first speakers to-day were Mr. Springer, in favor of the bill, and Mr. Walker, Republican, of along side and the reporter was cordially Massachusetts, who advocated the adoption of his bill, which, he said, he would offer as a substitute for the Carlisle bill. These gentlemen, recognized as the aders of the forces for and against the allow one not connected with the yessel bill, spoke without limit, and were to come on board. The reporter then listened to attentively throughout by a asked the captain of the Wistaria to aslarge proportion of the members of the House

The last hour of the session was occupied by Mr. Hall, Democrat, of Missouri, a member of the Committee on Banking and Currency, who reviewed at length the objections to the Carlisle bill made in the report of the minority of the committee. He declared them to be absurd and said that the condition which con fronted the House was that if any relief were desired from the unequality and oppression of the present National Bankng law, the Carlisle bill must be passed. The debate, in accordance with the present understanding, will continue the fact The weakness of wheat and corn remainder of the week, affected the market later and a frac-Mr. springer, in opening the debate, analyzed and explained the bill. He tional recession took place. Business was duil and unattractive. Cash oats said it did not represent the views of any member of the committee, or of the ponding to the loss in prices of live hogs House in its entirety. It was a compromise measure, and submitted as the best at the yards, product settled into a conlition of inactivity to-day, comparative steadiness ruling at the decline, There was nothing to the trade worthy of es-pecial notice. The close was 5c under greater stability and confidence to the United States and to the whole world. yesterday for January pork, 21 to 5c The financial world, Mr. Springer said, lower for January lard and 21c lower for had come to the conclusion that a bond security was no longer necessary to the to tender the President a reception arestablishment of a circulation. The bill rived and came alongside. The d-lega-Debs and His Associates to go to before the House does not require it.

Prison. Mr. Smith asked what provision, if any, had been made in the bill for the by Capt. Evans, but not allowed to board CHICAGO, Dec. 18 .- President Debs protection of depositors. and his associates, at a long conference Mr Springer responded that it was a currency measure, and was not intended to interfere with nor change the regula-dent good luck in his shooting.

leading Reformer, took the floor and tried to help Mr. Watson control the House, He said they could not afford to vote this resolution down. Nobody GEORGETOWN, S. C. Dec. 18 .- As the reporter for the News and Courier was more opposed to Mr. Cleveland's policy than himself, but it was time to steamed up in his special tug to the buoy tender Wistaria in Muddy bay, this after noon at 3:45 o'clock, he was just in time Mr. Williamson endorsed Mr. Watson's remarks. He said this was a duty they owed themselves and their State. The Speaker then took a hand, saying they were assuming an opposition to the resolution which did not exist, soffar as launch reached the float at the bottom he had seen. He said he had noticed no of the steps up the side of the Wistaria, opposition. He suggested that the vote the President rose laboriously from his be taken on the adoption of the resolution. Quickly he put the motion on a viva voce vote. 'No nays were heard and of the party, he stepped from the launch to the float. He climbed the steps unhe declared the resolution "Unanimously" adopted.

In the Senate D. Byrd and one other aided, however, and did not seem very Senator voted against the resolution but lame, although it is learned from memthere was no discussion nor any incident, At the night session of the House Mr. seen him, that his foot and ankle are Duncan brought the matter up again. He introduced the following sensational resolution, which was signed by himself After the President and other gentleand Mr. J. H. Blackwell, of Williamsburg. It was sent up to the Speaker who asked Mr. Duncan what he proposed of the day's shoot, viz.: A large raccoon and forty-nine ducks, chiefly Euglish to do with the resolution, to have it passed and recorded in his own behalf, or something else As soon as the launch got out of the Mr. Duncan said he wanted it spread way the News and Courier tug went on the minutes.

received by the genial captain of the Wistaria, who said that although glad to The resolution reads as follows: Resolved, That with all due respect for the office of President of the United see him, he could not a low him to come States, and with due deference to the on board, as his orders were strictly not policies and principles of parties, we wish to be recorded as ever ready to do Store Will Be Open Every Evening. honor to him to whom honor is due. certain if the President would receive but, in our opinion, Grover Cleveland, having prostituted the high office of him, as he had come with an invitation President of the United States, in using for him to vigit the city of Charleston. his opportunities in the betrayal of the In a few moments a striking looking gentleman limped to the side of the ves-Democratic party and the repudiation of sel, and, with great courtesy, introduced himself, proving to be the famous Democratic principles, we record ourselves as opposed to the resolution passi "Fighting Bob Evans," now commander by this House, doing honor to the ge at of the New York. "The President est party wrecker in the history of American polities. directed me to say" he said, "that he is

After the matter had been read, Mr. fatigued by the day's hunting and is una-Pollock and several members jumped up ble to receive you, and while appreciatand addressed the Speaker. ing highly the courtesy of the invitation The Speaker-The matter is not debat-you bring to visit Charleston, that he is able. here only for sporting purposes, and for Mr. Winkler-I move to lay the resorest and cannot accept any invitations."

lution on the table. The reporter then asked the Brasident The Speaker put the question and it was laid on the table-three no votes) grant him an interview. This the Bresident declined on the ground of fabeing distinguished.

The House then got back to its work To the question by the reporter as to but Mr. Duncan was not yet done. In who killed the coon, there was no anabout ten minutes he arose again with a swer, except a burst of smiles. After that can be hoped for at the present this there was nothing to do except to copy of the State Constitution in his time. It is believed to be a stop in the leave, especially as Commender Evans. hand. He said he rose to a question of right direction, in the direction of giving although exceedingly courteous, looked personal privilege. He quoted a section from the Constitution giving any memas though he wished the News and Couber the right to object to anything adopted by the body, and to have his As it pushed off a steam launch bringing a delegation from the Palmetto club reasons for his protest recorded in the journal. It was a home-strike. He said after reading the section, that he asked accordingly that his resolution be tion, which was headed by the Hon. Mr. recorded. Morgan, mayor of the city, was received

The Speaker ignored the request and started to continue the regular work. the vessel. The committee handed over Mr. Duncan-Mr. Speaker, I want your ruling on my point. I want to know if this House can openly violate the gunwale a large horse shoe of exquithe Constitution?

Holiday : Goods

-OF-

IS NOW OPEN FOR INSPECTION.

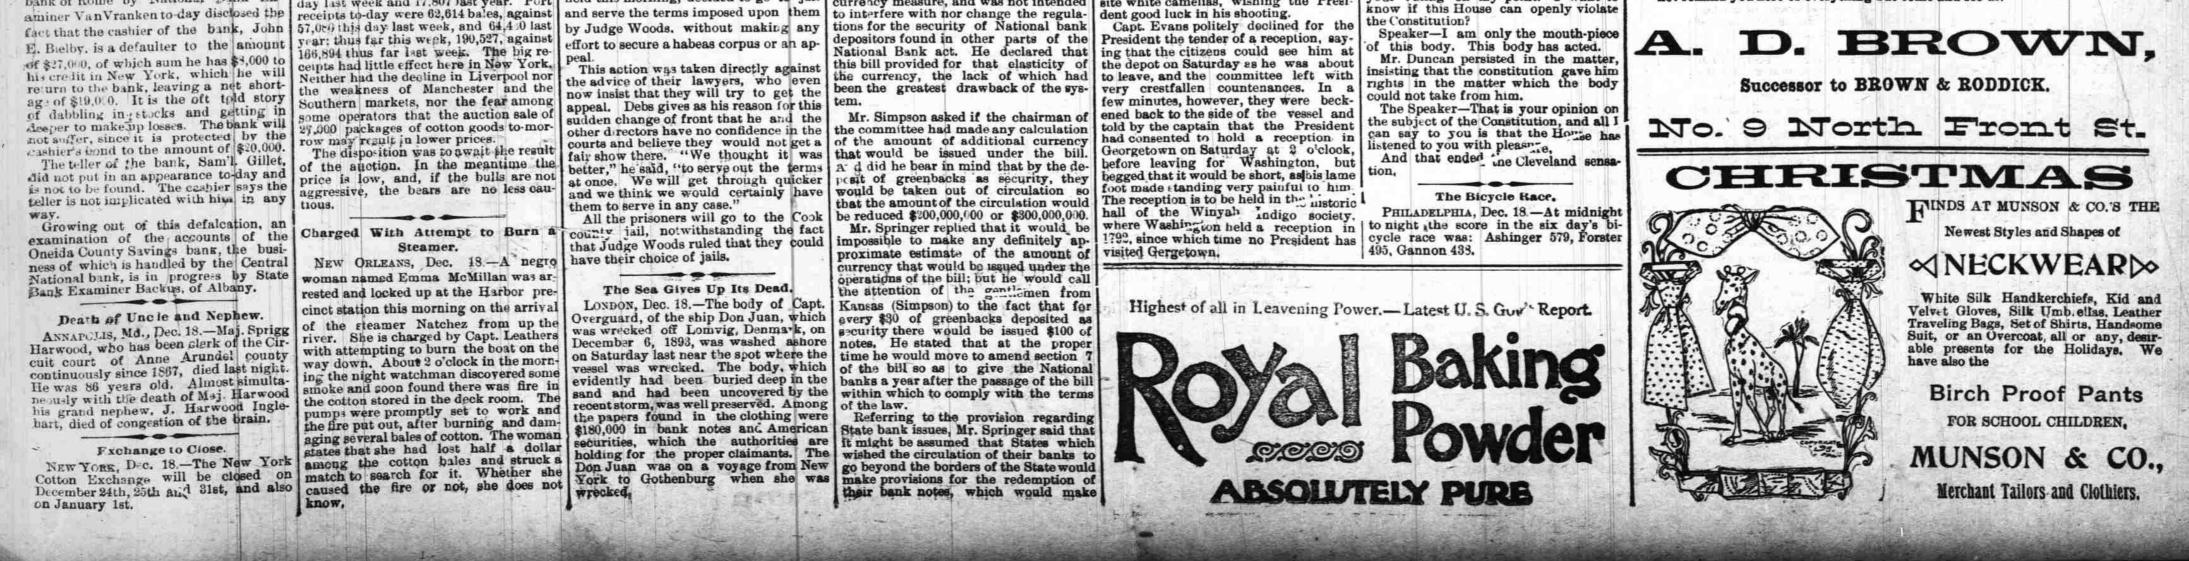

No Other Like it in The City.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO CALL AND SEE US.

FOR SOME PRESENT TO GIVE THAT FRIEND OR KINSMAN OF YOURS?

Then let us help you by calling to your attention some of the many useful articles we have. What is more appropriate than a nice pair of Wool Blankets, or a pair of Portiers which which we have in Chenille, Damask and Oriental Negus, all colors. Those beautiful Silk Finish Curtains in va-rious colors with Lambrequins to match. Then there are both Chenille and Damask Table Covers. Now we come to Rugs and Art Squares. The Moquet Rugs and Squares all sizes. Imperial Smyrnas in Rack 30x36 inches, 86x40 and the small Mats 18x31 inches. Other Smyrnas in Alack Soxyo inches, 86x40 and the small Mats 18x31 inches. Other Smyrnas in all sizes. See ah Rug, Fur Rugs, in gray, black and white. Baby Carriage Robes, Crib Blankets, Shawls in both Cashmere and Wool. Ladies' and Misses' Cloaks and Capes. Lace Curtains from 75c a pair up to $7.50 A new and useful present is the "Gilroy Curtain Stretcher." Screens, both filled and not filled. Trunks and Valises, Hand Satchels, Window Shades and Curtain Poles. A good Window Shade with fringe 25c, a line of colors. We can not remind you here of everything but come and see us.

ti rue.

rier a tug in sheol.

Jones, chairman of the committee. thinks it will finish its work by Thurs-