CITY MATTERS.

Called Meeting of the Board of Audit and Finance Yesterday—Action on the Bonds of City Clerk.

The Board of Audit and Finance met yesterday at 3:30 o'clock P. M., in called session, all the members being in attendance.

The financial statement of the clerk was read, making an exhibit of the receipts and disbursements of the city clerk and treasurer for March.

The chairman inquired if the Mayor, former chairman of the Board of Audit and Finance and the city attorney had answered the interrogative of this board as to the settlement of the city clerk and treasurer.

The clerk answered, no. Inquiry was also made as to the action of the Board of Aldermen on the inquiry to the balance in the failed bank.

The clerk stated that the Board of Aldermen had referred the matter to the finance committee.

Chairman Calder laid before the board the bond of F. B. Rice as city clerk and treasurer in the sum of $20,000 for the faithful performance of his duties and to indemnify the city in his duty of safely keeping and handling the city funds.

The Fidelity and Deposit Company of Maryland, of Baltimore, was brought to the aid of the bond, it seems, rests on the wording of the first clause, which refers to a statement made by the employer (the city) as to the duties, responsibilities and check upon the treasurer.

Chairman Calder said that as nothing was known of any statement that may have been furnished the Fidelity and Deposit company, it would be impractical for this board to accept the bond.

He suggested that the Fidelity and Deposit company be requested to furnish a certified copy of any statement that may have been made to them on the part of the city.

Mr. Hanby agreed with the chairman. Mr. Rice asked if the bond was not exactly the same as one accepted from Mr. Owen Fennell, the present clerk and treasurer.

The chairman replied that that had nothing to do with this matter. He said this inquiry was in no spirit of cavil about the bond but it was merely to find out what the board was doing in passing on the bond.

Mr. Yates moved that consideration of the bond be deferred until a certified copy is furnished by the Fidelity and Deposit company under their seal, of the statement in writing relative to the duties and responsibilities, etc., of the employee reported to have been made by the employer.

The other bond of City Clerk and Treasurer Rice for the faithful performance of his duties in collecting the taxes was presented. It is in the sum of $10,000 and the sureties are as follows: M. O'Brien in the sum of $5,000, Tom Taylor in the sum of $3,000 and Annie M. Shober in the sum of $2,000.

Consideration of this bond was also deferred until the other one comes up.

The official bond of Chief of Police John R. Melton for the sum of $1,000, with L. Volkers and E. P. Bailey as sureties, each justifying in the sum of $1,000, was accepted.

The official bond of Capt. John Cowan, chief of the Board of Audit and Finance, in the sum of $200, with W. Atkinson and R. J. Jones as sureties, was accepted.

Consideration of the bonds of the market clerks was deferred.

The matter of the contract with the Wilmington Gas Light company for lighting the city was called up, and Chairman Calder said he thought there was room here for the city to save something. The matter was deferred till the next meeting.

The board concurred in the action of the Board of Aldermen in awarding to Mrs. Jane Sheehan the contract for feeding the prisoners, to E. G. Jones & Co. for feeding the city teams, to Fore & Foster for furnishing lumber, and to S. G. Hall for doing specific printing.

Chairman Calder called attention to section 10 of the act creating this board and said that it made it the duty of this board to open to the lowest bidder the contract for cleaning, gutting or grading the streets, and referred also to sections 2 and 5 of the act creating the board.

Police Board touching the same matter. He expressed the belief that the city would save a great deal of money by letting this kind of work out by contract, and he asked the board to think over it until the next meeting.

Mayor Fishback said he would like to see the street work done in this way.

Chairman Calder stated that the Mayor had informed him that the budget of appropriations for the ensuing year was about ready, but he had thought the meeting would be too much occupied with other matters to consider the budget at this time.

He, however, submitted the following which he recommended to be sent as a communication to the Board of Aldermen:

To the Honorable the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the City of Wilmington.

It having been intimated to this board that the annual budget of appropriations and the accompanying tax ordinance for the ensuing fiscal year which you are required by law to submit to us for approval is about ready for presentation, we desire without presuming to encroach upon your prerogatives, while fully represented on this board and therefore protected so far as our powers go, let us yet of the representation upon your board to which we are by law entitled, the three wards from which the very large majority of taxes are collected having only one half of their usual delegation, and being in an actual minority upon your board.

Taxation without due representation being recognized as an American institution and traditions, we respectfully suggest that your recommendations you may be pleased to make will naturally have more weight if they come to us endorsed by a full delegation of the representatives of all the people lawfully elected to this board.

Mr. McQueen said he thought the position was well taken, but he did not think this board had the right to make the suggestion.

Mayor Fishback said the Board of Aldermen would fill the vacancies on the board before the week is out.

Mr. Yates moved that the communication presented by the chairman be sent to the Board of Aldermen, and the motion was adopted.

The board adjourned subject to the call of the chair.

YOUNG MAN AND CHRIST.

Twelfth of the Series of Dr. Hoge's Discourses to Young Men.

The Rev. Dr. Peyton H. Hoge, who has been delivering a series of interesting discourses to young men at the First Presbyterian church, concluded the series on last Sunday night.

He took for his subject "The Young Man and Christ," and among other things he said: "I would be sorry to know that any one had expected any other subject in the course of this series than the one just announced. I have endeavored to make each discourse entirely the subject of the subject might seem confined to the practical affairs of every-day life—point to him as the only one who could lead you to what they should be. And it is my greatest joy in looking back upon this course to know that the message of helping some to know Him as the Lord and Master of their lives."

And now that we have reached the close let us fix our gaze upon Him who is the author of all that we have seen and heard converge and in whom all his teachings are gathered together. That we may do this we will consider two things: (1) What Christ has done for young men; (2) What Christ expects from young men.

In answer to the first question I would say, first, Christ has given young men the perfect manhood. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.

He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be. He has made us what we are, and he has made us what we ought to be.
