The Fighting Editor of the Virginian Gets in His Work.

NORFOLK, Va., June 1-A personal encounter occurred at noon to-day in the editorial rooms of the Virginian, between Editor Michael Glennan and Maj, D. Humphreys. a prominent insurance man and prohibitionist leader of this city. The difficulty grew out of a personal card printed in this morning's Virginian signed by Mr. John Whitehead, city editor of the Virginian, which was in reply to a personal attack make opon him by Maj. Humphreysthrough the columnsof the Pilot yesterday. Maj Humphreys rushed into the Virginian office, excitedly waving in his hand a copy of the Virginian and demanded to know of Mr. Glennan if the latter anthorized the printing of Mr. Whitehead's "scurrilous attack." Upon receiving an affirmative reply the major struck Mr. Glennan, whereupon the latter responded in kind, when both gentlemen clinched and Maj. Humphreys was struck several severe blows in the face by Mr. Glennan, before the two men were separated by the local editor. The affair caused a decided sensation, but no further trouble is apprehended.

Adjourns. MESSENGER BUREAU, RALEIGH, June 1.

Dr. G. L. Kirby, superintendent of the insane asylum here, will leave next Tue s. day for Denyer, Colorado, to attend the an nual meeting of asylum superintendents. Neither Dr. Murphy nor Dr. Miller will be able to attend.

There are now 342 patients in the insane aslum. They are crowded, but this will be the case only for a few days, as the new building will be thrown open next week . Then forty-five more will be received, the capacity of the new building being seventy five. Almost a year ago this addition was completed, but it required a legislative appropriation to make it ready for use, furnish

Last night the street cars were packed with people on their way to the two parks, in search of coolness. There were hundreds at Pullen park, where the bathing pool was especially popular. On the lovely and spacious lawn at the Agricultural and Mechanical college there was a large lawn party and the scene was a very attractive one. All the buildings were bright with electricity. The advance guard of visitors to the State university's centennial commencement left to-day. To-morrow the baccalaureate sermon will be preached.

The "Arrington triangle," otherwise, committeemen, after all, meets again in the near future. It has employed Thomas R. Purnell, Esq., as its attorney. "Associate Justice" Campbell writes from his home in far away Cherokee that he is coming just as soon as "Chief Justice" Bryan, of Chatham, calls the court together. Mrs. Arrington says that if the court does not meet soon she knows a way to compel it to assemble and transact business. She does

The intensely hot weather continues and causes a good deal of suffering. Yesterday afternoon a man named Cards, employed at the Seaboard Air Line shops as moulder, was prostrated. Two or three carpenters and four roofers were also affected by the fierce heat. The mercury in the sun rose to 130. To-day the heat began its work early, as if trying to see if it could not beat yesterday's big record of 98 degrees. The "weather sharps" say "we are badly behind in hot weather and will have a piping hot summer." It is a season of rejoicing for the summer resort managers. Cotton and corn are already be-

The Charleston News and Courier will devote ten columns of space to the address on Gen. W. H. C. Whing, delivered here May 10th by Capt. C. B. Lenson. The latter has a grateful letter from a sister of Gen. Whiting, who lives in Minnesota. Capt. Denson is paid a special compliment in being designated as one of the nine speakers at the great annual meeting of the National Educational association at Denver, Colo., July 13th. Of these speakers only two are from the South, the other being Chancellor Payne, of Tennessee. The subject assigned Capt. NATIONAL LEAGUE.

BROOKLYN, June 1-The League leaders received another setback in their game with the Brooklyns at Eastern park to-day. Colcough was an easy mark for the home team, eleven of the twelve runs being earned. Daly, Griffin, Smith and Cross made some pretty plays. Bierbaur lost the ball in the fourth inning and scored a home run. Anderson and Treadway made the circuit of the bases on long drives to the ropes. Rain stopped the game for ten minutes in the third inning. Score:

Boston, June 1—The Cincinnati team gave the Bostons a royal battle for seven innings to-day and then the home team jumped on Rhines' delivery for five singles and a double in succession, which earned four runs. Bannon's home run in the seventh. with a nan on first, turned the tide in Boston's favor. The ball cleared the right-field fence back of the 25-cent seats. It was one of the longest hits seen on the grounds for some time. Sensational fielding by Duffy and McCarty did much to win for Boston. The attendance was 8,000. Score:

Washington, June 1—The home team kept up its batting streak to-day. Zahner relieved Welch in the eighth inning. Ma-larkey and Coogan were substituted in place of Maul and McGuire at the end of the seventh inning. The feature of the game was a running catch by Clarke. Umpire Keefe was too ill to appear and Mr. Sneeder, of the Virginia league, was impressed into service. The attendance was 3,000. Score:

The big pitcher was hammered for twenty-nine safe hits, and the St. Louis players rolled up runs until they were tired. Breitenstein, on the other hand, pitched great ball and received magnificent support. The New York team is sadly crippled. Roger Connor got a great welcome, and satisfied his friends by going to the bat six times and making three singles, two doubles and a three-bagger. His fielding was excellent. The weather was very hot. Score:

BALTIMORE, June 1-The Champions and the Clevelands played one of the most in-teresting games of the season to-day, and by winning it Baltimore jumps into third place in the pennant race. Both pitchers were in fine mettle for the most part. A lightning double by Jennings and Carr, and the former's circus catch of a hot liner off Zimmer's bat, were features. Hot weather kept the attendance down to 3,500. Score:

A Fatal Affray in South Carolina. COLUMBIA, S. C., June 1—At Clinton this morning State Constable Duncan and the former chief of the constabulary force in the upper portion of the State, J. B. Work man, had a fatal shooting affray. Workman was a desperate man. He charged Duncan with being the cause of his removal from the force. The lie passed and it is said Workman fired the first shot. Workman was killed, but not until Duncan was brought down by two bullets in his hips. He is not thought to be fatally injured. There has been bad blood between Workman and Duncan for some time.

This morning liquor Constable Garden dropped his pistol in the State Capitel and shot Constable George Martin. It was a pure accident. Martin merely got a flesh wound in the leg.

SEECERTAIN DEFEAT IN THE

terest. LONDON, June 1-The decision arrived at by the Cabinet to resolutely continue the Government bills in the House of Commons until autumn, no matter how small the Liberal majority be, is chiefly due to the desperate position of the party through its unpreparedness for a general election. The latest report of the executive committee of the Liberal Federation shows that there are still from 60 to 70 constituencies that have hitherto been contested for the Liberals that are without suitable candidates. There are plenty of men offering to stand, but they would require the aid of the party purse, and they lack the local influence or general reputation that would give their candidacy a chance of success. A drain upon the funds of the party is inevitable, and the wealthier Liberals are again subscribing freely.

The business of the House of Commons has been so arranged for after the Whitsuntide holidays that the Local Veto bill. the stumbling stone in the pathway of the Government, will be thrown back until the end of July. If the supporters of the Local Veto measure persist in putting it in the front rank a general party conference will be summoned to decide upon the course to be followed.

The Unionists are eager to force the dissolution of the House. They talk of moving a vote of want of confidence in the Government as soon as the House resumes business, but the impatience of the rank and file is controlled by the leaders, who continuing confident of the defeat of the Government on the Local Veto bill, are willing to wait until July before they attempt to overthrow the Ministry. The Liberals will enter the electoral campaign, expecting to be defeated. The Unionists, who feel assured of a majority in the next House, are already discussing the composition of the next Cabinet. It is almost certain that there will be startling changes from the last Unionist Ministry. Nazrulla Khan the second son of the Ameer of Afghanistan, who is now visiting

England, is not a social success. When he makes visits, accompanied by some of the members of his suite, he becomes a social antiety. The natives of the party live in barbaric style at Dorchester house. They sleep on mattresses on the floor and cover themselves with rugs, declining to use the more comfortable beds. The English officials who are supervising the party had to correct their habit of pocketing the silver plate from the table of their entertainers, a habit which occasioned considerably more or less adverse comment during their stay in India, but which it appears, they were then allowed to follow if they could escape the observant eves of their hosts. According to the Afghan idea, this plate was intended as a present to Nazrulla Khan, and his followers therefore felt themselves to be at liberty to appropriate it to their own use. Nazrulla but he prefers to use his fingers, disdaining to use the table implements of civilization. A pipe bearer attends him and at every opportunity he hands to his master a pipe loaded with tobacco strongly charged with opium. The dignity of the Afghan Prince approaches sulkiness. He is greatly amazed by the position held by ladies in society here, and refuses to b reconciled thereto. At Lady Tweedmouth's party, where he first saw a large gathering of ladies, he refused to go into the drawing room and declined to give Lady Lansdowne his arm in going into the supper room. He scanned Lady Lansdowne attentively and then marched several paces in front of her into the supper room, Lady Lansdowne following, half amazed, half indignant. In his audience with the Queen, Nazrulla Khan spoke in broken French, the Queen helping him now and then with a timely word. He afterwards expressed amazement at overhearing Her Majesty speaking Hindu to her attendant, Munshi Addulkarim. Oscar will serve his two years' sentence in Wormwood Scrubbs prison. > San Francisco, June 1-The Examiner publishes this morning the following from its correspondent at Mazatlan:

cued.

"The steamer San Juan has arrived here with twenty-one passengers picked up on Tuesday from the wreck of the steamer Colima. From the passengers your correspondent has learned of the particulars of the dreadful disaster, which they say happened on Monday at noon, when the Colima was about forty-eight miles out of Manzanillo and ten off shore. All the rescued are badly bruised. They were all picked up from pieces of wreckage and rafts, with the exception of A. J. Sutherland, who had clung to a boat after it had capsized five times and drowned all the others who attempted to escape from the wreck in her. All were afloat lashed by the fiercest gale of years and buffeted by the angry seas for about twenty-four hours.

'The steamer was heavily laden and had large deck load of lumber. When the storm struck her she made bad weather of it, the captain having great difficulty in keeping her head to the sea. The wind increased in fury until it is said to have been the fiercest storm known along this coast in twenty years. The sea rose rapidly. Water was head over the vessel and started the deck load. As the waves rose and the storm increased the management of the steamer became impossible. One of the seas, a mighty wave, struck her with such force that the beams trembled as if she had struck on a reef and most of the passengers thought this the cause of the shock.

"The passengers were pretty badly stunned by being pitched about, but rushed up on the deck in a panic, Here they met another danger. The gale tore parts of the deck load of lumber from its fastening and whirled the heavy planks about with appalling violence. Many were struck and maimed. At least one passenger was killed by having his head crushed by flying timbers. The survivors say that the officers of the steamer were brave and active in this

"Capt. Taylor stood upon the bridge with Chief Officer Griffiths. At an order Griffiths ran forward to superintend the launch ing of life boat No. 5, while Second Officer Langhorn was in charge of boat No. 3. The latter was successfully launched and filled with passengers. Then the ship went down and Langhorn's boat was capsized. All in both boats are supposed to have perished. "Capt. Taylor went down with the vessel, and as the vessel sank he blew three blasts of the whistle as a good-bye signal. The engineers and firemen went down at their posts. Night Clerk Berry was in his room and went down with the vessel. Third officer Hanson was among the saved. He sprang from the ship as it went down and succeeded in reaching a piece of wreckage. There he clung for twenty-four hours, washed and buffeted by the waves. He saw men and women sink about him and was powerless to render aid. He saw naked and mangled bodies floating by, and the horror of it made him sick. Hanson says that as the steamer foundered her boilers burst."

The Sun's Cotton Review.

NEW YORK, May 25-The Sun's cotton re view says: Cotton fell 9 to 12 points, and closed easy, with sales of 119,300 bales. There was a holiday in Liverpool. Spot cotton here was 1-16c lower, with no sales, Khan can use a knife and fork in eating, The weather at the South was generally clear and warm. New Orleans showed more weakness than New York and fell 16 to 17 points. The Liverpool market is closed for

One firm said: "The best illustration of the spot market condition in America is that New Orleans, at the threshold of the cotton producing country, with her 150,000 bales of cotton in stock, has practically cornered June. Yesterday in New Orleans August was only 4 points lower than August in New York. North Carolina's acreage is estimated at 25 per cent less than last year. Texas and Louisiana crop advices are unfavorable. During the past week 35,142 bales came in sight, against 16,811 in the same week last year with total in sight of 9,553,393 bales, against 7,243,627 at this time last season. To-day's features were: Clear and warmer weather in most parts of the cotton belt together with considerable long liquidation for local and Southern account, and a sharp break in New Orleans, where there is less said about an impending corner, led to a decline here, and the market closed at the lowest figure of the day. The weather has been warmer and fair for several days in most parts of the cotton belt, but copious rains were again reported in Texas, where they were not wanted, and Texas is of course one of the most important of the cotton States. Furthermore, rain is wanted in Arkansas and in parts of Mississippi. It is still contended that the crop is backward and in poor condition. There was no Liverpool news, and some operators on the long side preferred to liquidate their holdings, pending further developments.
