New York Stock Market. New York, February 4 .- The reduction in the Bank of England discount rate from 31/2 to 3 per cent, had comparatively little influence on the markets for securities at the opening today, partly because London failed to respond to the news. It was quite evident that the action of the directors of the bank had been discounted, a reduction in the bank rate having been foreshadowed by the declining quotations in the open market at London for some days past. Stocks, after advancing 1/4 to 3% per cent. soon developed weakness and under selling, chiefly for the short account, almost the entire list sustained losses varying from ¼ to 1 per cent. The downward movement was temporarily checked by the unex-

The bill introduced a few days ag by Senator Mills, to increase the pensions of the survivors of the war of 1812 from $12 to $30 a month, was reported favorably from the committee on pensions by Senator Gallinger, who said there were only twelve surviving pensioners of that war and that their ages ranged from 90 to 104. The bill passed.

The question that awakened interest was the conference report on the im-migration bill. The discussion upon that was short, however, as Senator Lodge, having charge of it, recognized the justice of the objections made to it by Senator Hill and other senators in regard to the shutting out the igno-rant wife of an immigrant, while the husband might pass the reading and writing test. The Chicago Markets.

Chicago, February 4 .- The French crop was in the main a factor in the wheat market today. Although information regarding that crop received was simply a confirmation of what was already known, still it was none the less effective in causing an advance. The market was irregular up to noon, the opening being weak on lower Liver pool cables, prices soon advancing on clearances at New York, good export but again declining because other seaboard points were not in line with New York. The final bulge was during the last hour and was due to the French news. Cash wheat was steady, closing firm and 1/2 to %c higher.

Alterations in the price of corn were very small, the business being of such light volume that it was remarkable that quotations uid not remain perfectly stationary. The strength or weak ness of wheat, however, started a slight influence, to which the changes were due. Cash corn was steady and prices were unchanged. There was very little difference in ats and corn markets. Moderate uctuations within a range of narrow imits took place. Cash oats were steady and unchanged. Hogs were up another 21% to 5c this morning, a circumstance which had a

Weyler Having to Fight His Way

Havana. February 4.-Since Captain General Weyler entered the Santa Clara province about a week ago, his columns have had a series of encounters with various parties of rebels, which were eventually dispersed. All the way from las Cruces, to Santa Clara, the shooting on the part of the rebels increased and their movements became bolder, a party of insurgents even firing upon General Weyler's camp on the River Sagua. The van guard of the Spanish columns also had to fight is way across the Sagua river and other bodies of roops were compelled to do likewise at different places along the river where they essayed to cross Despite these frequent encounters, the losses reported were insignificant on both sides. Only two rebels were killed and seven wounded. Various engagements have occurred in the vicinity of Sagua de Tanamo, in which the ebels lost over sixty killed and wounded and the troops had two privates killed and a naval commander and two privates wounded.

Pilfering in High Life.

New York, February 4.-The man who gave his names as Frank C An-drews, when arrested on January 28th in Grace church, for stealing a pocket. book belonging to Mrs. L. C. Dunlop, was arraigned in special sessions court this morning for sentence. Rev. Dr. Arthur C. Kimball, of St. Augustine chapel, Trinity parish, and the prison-er's brother-in-law from Baltimore, who efused to give his name, both told the justices that Andrews' real nome was Crane and that he was a member of one of the most highly respected fami-lies in Baltimore. Presiding Justice Holbrook said that extraordianry efforts had been brought to bear upon the justices for them to suspend sentence under promise that Andrews would return to Baltimore. Justice Holbrook said, however, that the court could not conscientiously suspend sen-tence, and then sentenced Andrews to three months in the city prison.
