The Landmark says the purpose of the bill before the legislature to amend the charter of Statesville is purely political. It would take a lot of negroes in the cor-neration ing and beautifying soap in the world, as well as purest and sweetest for toilet, bath, and nursery.

Raleigh Tribune: Ben. Johnson, who has been confined in the Wake county jail as a Federal prisoner, charged with counterfeiting yesterday succeeded in giving bond and was released. Johnson was from near Sanford.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Raleigh Press: Commodore Bobbitt, one of the immortal nineteen says: "We will fight to the last ditch for the peni-tentiary. Reinhardt would have been bet-ter off if he had delivered his speech in Caparrus county or some where else in-stead of in our caucus last night." It is understood that there is a strong senti-ment among the minority populists in fa-vor of Senator McCasky.for the peniten-tiary

Raleigh News and Observer: Duncan E. McBryde, of Robeson, is a member of the house from Robeson county. He was a Confederate soldier. The people of his county are greatly chagrined, surprised and mortified, because he voted for a ne-gro for doorkeeper in preference to an old wounded comrade in arms. P asident old wounded comrade in arms—P.esident Charles E. Taylor, of Wake Forest col-lege, was here yesterday. Dr. Taylor is devoting all the time he can spare from his college duties to the preparation of a "Life of Dr. Matthew T. Yates." The book is now almost complete and will soon be given to the publishers. It will comprise same 500 pages and will be one of the most valuable contributions ever made to the history of the Baptist de-nomination in this state and its mission VERVE AND BRAIN TREATMENT nomination in this state and its mission work. Greensboro Record: Last night Deputy Sheriff Wray, of Rockingham county, came to Reidsville with some prisoners, placing them in the calaboose until this morning when he took the train for this place. During the night the men set fire to their blankets, hoping to escape, but before any means of egress was discov-ered they found they were in immediate danger of being smothered and called loudly for help. The fire was put out without much trouble, and this morning they were brought over and carried on to Raleigh, all except one, a white man named J. Ester Shaw, convicted of sland-ering a woman, who was sentenced to work on the roads in this county for six months. Of the four taken to the pen, two go up for twelve months and two for three years each. Their offenses were robbery and burglary. Greensboro Record: Last night Deput Wilming-

hours constitute a days labor the opera-tives have discussed the matter pretty freely among themselves, and from what we could learn from various ones they are opposed to any change in the hours. Statesville Landmark: Last Friday Claude Fesperman, who lives in the vi-cinity of Troutman's, met Shirley King, a colored boy, beyond the depot. Fesper-man was carrving a gun and the boy was carrving a rabbit. Fesperman asked per-mission to shoot the rabbit, but the boy told him it was already dead. Notwith-standing this answer. Fesperman blazed away. Whether he hit the already dead cotton tail was not in evidence, but he
