

BEAUTIFUL ENTERTAINMENT.

The Washington Tea Party East... The ladies of Wilmington are famed for the elegant entertainments given under their auspices.

The handsome parlors and drawing room at the Washington were quite tastefully decorated for the tea party, the decorations consisting of bamboo sprigs upon the walls and pictures, a pretty arrangement of japonica palms and ferns and a tasteful draping of numerous national flags that gave patriotic zest to the occasion.

The party lasted from 5 p. m. till 10 p. m., and was indeed a recherche affair. The ladies wore powdered coiffures and their costumes were appropriate to the day and time of Washington. Many of the gowns were heightened by blinding diamonds and other ornaments. Three hundred of Wilmington's best people attended and were courteously ushered in by two manly and dignified waiters, Masters Almand Elliott and Oscar Peck, who wore knee breeches and powdered wigs.

The affair was a most beautiful one and socially was very delightful. Its success was due to the tact and consideration of the ladies who got up the entertainment. During the evening the company was delighted with music by Mrs. C. J. Jellison, who is a pianist of rare skill and accomplishments. Her fine technique in the rendition of classic music was especially admired.

The supper and refreshment feature of the occasion was one of special note and marked enjoyment. The table was beautifully ornamented with flowers and the menu consisted of ice cream, chocolate, tea, coffee, cakes, bonbons, sandwiches, etc. The guests were charmingly served by demure and lovely Puritan maidens all appropriately costumed. The maidens were Misses Bettie DeRosset, Anna Peck, and Lizzie Robinson.

Miss Elliott and Miss Cumming served the chocolate, tea and coffee, and the ladies who superintended the supper were Mrs. W. R. Kennan, Mrs. F. J. McQueen, Mrs. E. B. Bowyer, Mrs. C. H. Robinson, Mrs. T. H. Sprunt, Mrs. Stella Thompson, Miss Kate DeRosset, and Miss Nellie Draper.

The party was one of the most pronounced success and was extremely successful. The refreshments were served without a hitch, but there was a mite box for contributions to carry on the noble charity of the Ministering Circle at the Shelter of the Silver Cross the coming summer. The contributions amounted to about $55.
