

The Messenger

New Advertisements. Munyon's Remedies. Special Sale—Johnson & Fore.

Weather Conditions. (Reported by C. M. Strong, Local Forecaster.)

U. S. Weather Bureau Office, February 25.

The barometer is lowest over the New England and southeast Atlantic coasts.

Freezing temperatures prevail north of the Ohio river.

LOCAL FORECAST. Local forecasts to 12 o'clock (mtd) Friday—Showers in the early morning, followed by clearing; northerly winds.

TEMPERATURE. Washington, D. C., Feb. 25, 12 o'clock (mtd) Friday. Generally fair, preceded by showers on the coast in the early morning; northerly winds.

FOR THE STATE. 1896-8 a. m., 42 degrees; 8 p. m., 43 degrees; highest, 52 degrees; lowest, 41 degrees.

Miniature Almanac—Sun rises 6:38 a. m.; sun sets 5:51 p. m.; high water at Wilmington, 5:23 p. m.; low water, 11:30 a. m.

MOON'S PHASES—New moon, 11:36 p. m.; first quarter, 9th, 2:17 p. m.; full moon, 17th, 5:03 a. m.; last quarter, 23rd, 10:35 p. m.

FIFTY LOCALS.

The Harmony Circle had an enjoyable German and supper at its hall last night.

Don't forget to attend the concert to-night at St. Thomas hall, if you want to enjoy a fine musical program.

The Southport Leader of yesterday says: "The body of a man was discovered in Elizabeth creek last Monday."

It was found to be that of a man who passed through Southport a week ago and was ordered to leave town (as being a suspicious character).

It appears that he was last seen alive about three miles from town, when he inquired about the road, but instead of taking the right way he went towards the marsh. The man was probably unaccounted for.

The body was buried by the county in the neighborhood where found.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. J. W. Morris, of Raleigh, is at the Orton.

Dr. J. P. Brown, of Lumberton, was here yesterday.

Mr. L. L. Mallard, of Wallace, made business calls here yesterday.

Mr. W. B. Elice, of Wallace, called on our householders yesterday.

Mr. R. J. Lewis, the well known caterer, will leave today to take charge of the hotel Aberdeen, on Ellis street, near Peachtree, in the vicinity of the hotel Aragon, Atlanta, Ga.

Southport Leader, February 25: "Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Drew arrived in Southport last Thursday. Since leaving here Mr. Drew has lived at Huntsville, Ala., and Mr. and Mrs. Drew were married at Wilson, N. C., only a couple of weeks ago, so that their trip to Southport is almost a wedding journey."

Widow-Banding. Mr. Herbert Wilder, one of the Atlantic Coast Line's clever train dispatchers, and Miss Jennie Bunting, the lovely daughter of Mrs. R. J. Bunting, all of this city, were united in marriage last night at the residence of the bride's mother on Fourth and Walnut streets.

The Rev. Dr. J. Carmichael, rector of St. John's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony in the presence of only a few relatives and immediate friends, the wedding being a quiet affair on account of the death of the groom's brother, Mr. Joe W. Wilder, a conductor on the Atlantic Coast Line, who lost his life in the recent accident at Warsaw.

Miss Fannie Corbett presided at the organ, and Mr. C. L. Loring, a brother train dispatcher of the groom, was his best man. The attendants were Mr. J. Hicks Bunting, brother of the bride, and Miss Willie Callaway, and Mr. Ernest Moore with Miss Fannie Smallbones, Mr. J. M. Bunting, the bride's brother gave away.

The happy young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable presents. They will reside at 412 Red Cross street.

Among those who were here to attend the wedding were Miss Rosa Wilder, of St. Stephens, S. C., sister of the groom, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Bunting, of Fayetteville. Mr. Bunting being a brother of the bride.

Remember Johnson & Fore are offering black silks at cost for today and tomorrow.

Laid to Rest. The remains of Mrs. George W. Sandford, who died at Orange, N. J., arrived here yesterday morning, and accompanied by Mr. George W. Sandford, Mrs. Kate DeRoset, Mr. and Mrs. Armand DeRoset, Jr., of New York. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon at St. James Episcopal church, the services being conducted by the Rev. Robert Strange, D. D., assisted by Bishop Watson. The interment was made at Oakdale cemetery, the pallbearers being Colonel T. C. McIlhenny, Hon. A. M. Waddell, Captain J. Alvis Walker, Dr. George Gillette Thomas, and Messrs. Joseph H. Watters, James Swann, George W. Kidder, Thomas D. Lippitt and Julius Davis. Beautiful floral memorials were tenderly laid upon the grave.

Mr. Sandford, who came on with the remains of his wife, returned home last night. Mrs. Parker and Mr. Armand DeRoset, Jr., will remain in the city a few days as the guests of Captain A. L. DeRoset.

Now is the time to purchase a black silk dress while Johnson & Fore are selling silks at cost price.

Storm Warning Message. The following message was received at this office for the information of the public:

Washington, Feb. 25, 12:35 p. m. A storm apparently central and developing on south Atlantic coast, may cause high winds tonight on south Atlantic and Virginia coasts.

W. L. MOORE, Chief of Weather Bureau. Received at Wilmington, N. C., 12:41 p. m.

At 12 o'clock last night the weather bureau here received a message from Washington ordering the signals to be taken down.

DOWN ON THE BOSSES.

A Republican Mass Meeting Denounces What They Call Governor Russell's Bill. They Favor a Bill That Will Turn Wilmington Over to the Rabble.

In a circular issued by F. B. Rice, chairman of the republican county executive committee, a mass meeting of the republican voters of this city was called to meet at 8 o'clock last night. The interment was made in the cemetery at Southport, and the grave was covered with very handsome floral tributes. The following constituted the speakers: Messrs. J. B. Ruark, A. E. Starks, E. S. Starks, E. M. Fives, C. E. Gauss, R. W. Davis, W. J. Newton, Wm. Weeks, M. L. Craig, E. F. Davis, B. F. Newton, S. W. Watts.

The Southport Leader of yesterday is speaking of the death of Mrs. Harper, says: "Mrs. Julia Harper, wife of Captain John W. Harper and daughter of the late Captain Richard F. and Anne M. Foley, died suddenly at 10 o'clock in Southport, Tuesday evening, Feb. 24. She leaves a husband and five children, one infant six days old. Mrs. Harper was born in Laurinburg, this state, December 27th, 1854, at her death being 22 years of age. She was married in Wilmington August 17, 1885. Her gracious hand will be missed by the community as her generosity was always manifested towards those in need."

Death in Monroe. Mr. Walter Lee Whitfield died in Monroe yesterday morning at 2:30 o'clock. He was born in this city February 20, 1855. His parents were John and Mary Whitfield, who moved to Lumberton and in 1874 to Monroe. In this latter place Mr. Whitfield assisted his father for many years as a carpenter of the Carolina Central railroad. For several years he has been in the mercantile business and has done well. He was devoted to his parents and was planning to build them a house. He was particularly devoted to Mr. E. T. Wade, of our city, who is very sad over the loss of his son.

Mr. Wade with his wife and children left on the Seaboard Air Line at 3:20 o'clock p. m., yesterday to go to his parents and attend the funeral. Mr. Whitfield was never married. He stayed closely at home, leading a life in that respect worthy of emulation.

That the blood should perform its vital function it is absolutely necessary it should not only be pure but rich in life-giving elements. These results are best effected by the use of that well-known standard blood-purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Receipts of Cotton and Naval Stores. The following were the receipts of cotton and naval stores at the port of Wilmington yesterday: Wilmington and Weldon Railroad—60 bales cotton, 7 casks spirits turpentine, 54 barrels rosin, 15 barrels tar. Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad—37 bales cotton, 23 casks spirits turpentine, 59 barrels rosin, 46 barrels tar.

Carolina Central Railroad—1 bale cotton, 109 barrels rosin, 41 barrels tar, 33 barrels crude turpentine. Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad—16 casks spirits turpentine, 119 barrels tar.

Steamer Driver—1 bale cotton, 2 casks spirits turpentine, 20 barrels rosin, 91 barrels tar. Steamer Hawes—28 casks spirits turpentine, 169 barrels rosin, 43 barrels tar.

Steamer Croesus—75 barrels rosin. Fleet—4 bales cotton, 108 barrels tar. Total—108 bales cotton, 70 casks spirits turpentine, 488 barrels rosin, 463 barrels tar, 35 barrels crude turpentine.

As the name indicates, Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is a renewer of the hair, including its growth, health, youthful color, and beauty. It will please you.

Third Anniversary. Linden Grove No. 2, United Ancient Order of Druids celebrated its third anniversary with a banquet last night at its hall in the old Fawcett building, on Third street, opposite the city hall. Mr. Godfrey Hart delivered the anniversary oration and in speaking of the noble object of the order, entertained the members with wit and humor.

The occasion a sumptuous supper was then enjoyed by the large crowd present and numerous speeches were made around the board by different members of the Grove.

The affair was quite a pleasant one and will long be remembered by all whose good fortune it was to be present.

Races Postponed. On account of the bad weather, the Thursday races at the Newbern fair had been postponed until Friday. The Friday's races will come off on Saturday. In order to accommodate those wishing to go over on Saturday, the Wilmington and Norfolk Railroad Company has consented to run a special train on that day also, leaving Wilmington at 8 a. m., and leaving Newbern on the return at 5:20 p. m. The fare for the round trip, including admission to the fair, will be $2.25.

The entering wedge of a fatal complaint is often a slight cold, which a dose or two of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy might have cured at the commencement. Therefore, it is advisable to have this prompt and sure remedy always at hand to meet an emergency.

Work on the New Inlet Dam and Jetty. The Southport Leader says: "From Captain D. S. Bender, in charge of the government work, it is learned that it will require ten to fifteen days more to finish the repairing of the New Inlet dam. The work is progressing so well that it is not only being done good, but the dam is further strengthened and extended to the east and so as to extend to the old river sand reaches. About twenty-five men are on this work. The work at the Snow's Marsh channel jetty, also in charge of Captain Bender, is progressing. Two concrete piles will be driven along the west side of the present jetty, making a close wall of piling. The reason for this is that it has been found difficult and expensive to keep the brush between the two rows of piling and that a single close row serves the purpose better. The piles come from above Wilmington, all long and yellow pine sticks. The steam boiler Black is used on the work."

The present lot of 2,000 piles will be in the latter of March, but that number will not be sufficient to make the wall solid to the entire distance, now occupied by the brush.

The Yarmouco. The New York Journal's yacht Yarmouco came into port Wednesday morning, after lying outside the bar. The previous night, Captain H. H. Starnich is in command and is taking the command of the New York. Mr. Harry E. McNichol, correspondent of The Journal is returning on the Yarmouco after three weeks duty at Charleston. Captain Stanwood says that "The New York Herald's report of Captain Yarmouco's doing at Jacksonville were grossly exaggerated. At any rate McIntosh was not killed. He was badly as he could not have been so badly as was credited to him.—Southport Leader."

TO OBTAIN A COLD IN ONE DAY. Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refer to the Tablets if it fails to cure. 5c.

COLLIS

Munyon's Cold Cure cures colds in the head, cures the lungs, colds in colds, colds and obstinate colds, and all forms of grip, Stomach troubles, diphtheria, from the nose and eyes, prevents croup, croup, diphtheria, pneumonia and all throat troubles, cures whooping cough, cures all little pellets are absolutely harmless, have saved thousands of lives and prevented much sickness. Price, 25c.

Improved Homeopathic Home Remedy Company put up a separate bottle for each disease. At all druggists, mostly in Germany. Personal letters to Prof. Munyon, 1668 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., answered. Free medical advice for any disease.

Wilmington, in mass meeting assembled, that we have said and hereby instruct Representative Howe to introduce the same in the house at once, and use every effort to secure its passage.

Resolved, That we hereby instruct Representative Sutton to support the bill and use every effort to secure its passage.

Resolved, That we instruct our senator to support the bill and use every effort to secure its passage.

Resolved further, That Governor Russell is hereby respectfully, but earnestly, requested to withdraw the resolutions with members of the legislature to secure the passage of said bill.

John H. Webber opposed the resolutions and William Evans spoke in favor of them.

T. C. Miller called on the crowd to vote the resolutions down.

John O. Nixon favored the resolutions, and urged their adoption.

John H. Webber, chairman of the earnest speech against the resolutions and defeated Governor Russell. He said if "Lockey had been elected city and county attorney, you would never have heard of this opposition."

Mr. Walker said he thought the colored voters ought to receive recognition, but he deprecated attacking the administration.

After many speeches and uproar beyond description, Chairman Rice tried to get in a compromise by offering the following substitute:

Resolved, That our senator and members of the general assembly be instructed to amend our city charter so that no law, ordinance or resolution be introduced or passed by the city council, as may be in accord with the fundamental principles of the constitution, until it has been approved by the fusionists of the general assembly.

The vote was taken amid confusion and the substitute overwhelmingly voted down.

Mr. Lockey's resolutions were then adopted almost without a show of opposition.

The meeting instructed the secretary to write the record of the resolutions and senator at Raleigh.

The meeting then adjourned.

Queer Talk About the Artesian Well at the Quarantine Station. The Southport Leader of February 25th says:

"The Artesian well at the quarantine station is advancing rapidly. The water is so pure and so abundant that it is now a legitimate item of new business."

As has been already told in this column, the Artesian well at the quarantine station is advancing rapidly. The water is so pure and so abundant that it is now a legitimate item of new business."

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

Neither Mr. Peake nor Mr. DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

"You may publish the matter if you wish," said Mr. Elsbatt. "I will say to the well and we did it. A man usually does what his employer tells him to do, and the piping does not reach the bottom. We put salt in the well water, and the water is now in Wilmington organizing a stock company to sink artesian wells and I am interested in the project."

It is due to Messrs. Peake and DeWitt to say that this story of the well was told by Peake and DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

Neither Mr. Peake nor Mr. DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

"You may publish the matter if you wish," said Mr. Elsbatt. "I will say to the well and we did it. A man usually does what his employer tells him to do, and the piping does not reach the bottom. We put salt in the well water, and the water is now in Wilmington organizing a stock company to sink artesian wells and I am interested in the project."

It is due to Messrs. Peake and DeWitt to say that this story of the well was told by Peake and DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

Neither Mr. Peake nor Mr. DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

"You may publish the matter if you wish," said Mr. Elsbatt. "I will say to the well and we did it. A man usually does what his employer tells him to do, and the piping does not reach the bottom. We put salt in the well water, and the water is now in Wilmington organizing a stock company to sink artesian wells and I am interested in the project."

It is due to Messrs. Peake and DeWitt to say that this story of the well was told by Peake and DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

Neither Mr. Peake nor Mr. DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

"You may publish the matter if you wish," said Mr. Elsbatt. "I will say to the well and we did it. A man usually does what his employer tells him to do, and the piping does not reach the bottom. We put salt in the well water, and the water is now in Wilmington organizing a stock company to sink artesian wells and I am interested in the project."

It is due to Messrs. Peake and DeWitt to say that this story of the well was told by Peake and DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

Neither Mr. Peake nor Mr. DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

"You may publish the matter if you wish," said Mr. Elsbatt. "I will say to the well and we did it. A man usually does what his employer tells him to do, and the piping does not reach the bottom. We put salt in the well water, and the water is now in Wilmington organizing a stock company to sink artesian wells and I am interested in the project."

It is due to Messrs. Peake and DeWitt to say that this story of the well was told by Peake and DeWitt, who were in Wilmington, Mr. Leach is in Wilmington. The remaining one, Mr. Elsbatt, was away here.

When the well was down 200 feet, the depth that the contractor called for was 250 feet. The contractor, however, found that the flow was inconsiderable and that the water was not so pure as he had expected. He therefore decided to sink the well 100 feet deeper. As a result, water was obtained at a fair quality, an analysis of which appeared in The Leader of last week.

Upon the subject of the salt water flow that resulted in obtaining money to sink the well deeper, talk has been going on for some time. It was told by Peake and DeWitt that the well was 200 feet deep, and that the water was 200 feet down. He did so by first plunging the well to stop the flow, which was in large quantities. He then said it, so that when it was tested on the succeeding day, it was highly saline and unfit for use.

THE SANGUILLY RESOLUTION

THE SUBJECT OF A SPIRITED DEBATE IN THE SENATE.

The Senate Lays Aside the Appropriation Bills to Discuss the Cuban Situation. Senator Daniel's Vicious Protest Against Spain's Insult to Our Representatives from This Day to the End of the Session; That Shall Not Prevent Him from Doing What He Thinks is Right in Behalf of the Policy of the United States to Protect Its Citizens Against Unlawful and Insolent Treatment. I trust the time will not be long when an American citizen can be wronged or persecuted by any power, great or small. That is the way I feel now, in favor of protecting this American citizen, though he is a naturalized citizen. I am opposed to wrong and violence and tyranny wherever it is exercised, and when it is exercised against an American citizen I will stand up for him, even if I am alone.

The House bill to amend the act as to the appointment of receivers of national banks was taken from the calendar and passed without amendment.

At 10 o'clock a recess was taken until 8 o'clock p. m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. By a vote of 144 to 46, the house, after two hours' debate, passed the bill of Mr. Johnson, of Indiana, authorizing national banks to take out circulation the par value of bonds deposited to secure it, an increase of 10 per cent. over the limit now allowed.

Early in the session the bill was passed to confer upon postoffice inspectors in the enforcement of the postal laws the powers now exercised by marshals and sheriffs in the several States.

The resolution agreed upon today by the committee on foreign affairs, calling on the president for the correspondence of the United States with the Spanish Government in relation to the punishment of American citizens by the Spanish Government in Cuba was presented by Mr. Hitt and agreed to.

At the suggestion of Mr. Barrett, of Massachusetts, the speaker read the words of the permanent record of the words of the speaker of the house on the arrival of Mr. Bryan on the floor yesterday, together with the fact that he was received with cheers on the democratic side.

The House at 6 o'clock adjourned.

HYMENAL AND SOCIAL.

Campbell Glover—Wightman Pemberton. A Charming Debutante—Down With the Feisty Females of Fayetteville, February 25.

Not to the strains of Mendelssohn or the peal of bells, but in the freese light and quiet atmosphere of home, were celebrated last evening two beautiful marriages.

At 8 o'clock, at the residence of the parents of the bride, Mr. O. B. Wightman, of the firm of E. B. Cuthbert & Co., a grand nephew of the lamented Major Wightman—for so long a name of strength of the Southern Methodist church—was united to Miss Isabel, daughter of Colonel J. A. Pemberton, one of the leading insurance men of the state. Rev. J. W. Hughes, rector of St. John's church, very impressively rendering the beautiful ceremony. Very tasteful were the decorations of the handsome parlor, and the number and value of the presents attested the good wishes of the large circle of friends of the wedded couple. A collation was served to the guests, who consisted almost solely of the relatives of the contracting parties. Mr. A. S. Wightman, best man, and Miss Annie Taylor, the bride, were the prettiest, dower.

Major W. F. Campbell, a former commandant of the Fayetteville Independent Cavalry, and a well known and influential democrat of this section, was wedded last evening at 9 o'clock to Miss Louise, the lovely daughter of the late Edwin Glover, Rev. J. W. Hughes officiating. Mr. Campbell, giving the bride away, who formed the central figure of a beautiful picture; she wore white silk trimmed with green and white. The wedding gifts were numerous and valuable.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Haigh, was the scene, last evening, of a delightful gathering of friends giving eclat to the society of the bride and groom. The bride, Miss Annie Taylor, of Wilmington, returns home today, leaving many admirers here.

At the target shooting Monday, Major G. L. Pemberton won the medal (of course) Captain Garrison is better today.

Death of Col. S. S. Prigden. The Pender Star of yesterday says: "This esteemed citizen died at his home in the Calcutt section of Friday last. He was about 80 years of age. It pains us to note the loss of such a man. He was a soldier of the war, and his record as a quiet God fearing man, and his high character, his example in life is his monument."

Before the war he was prominent in the affairs of New Hanover county, and during the turbulent times of the war he was true to his people and to his country as the needle is to the pole. His business transactions with the past twenty years justify our high esteem of his unswerving honesty and purity of character. His example in life is his monument.

Special Notices. HAVE JUST RECEIVED FINE FRESH TOBACCOES, Choice Virginia, Choice Havana, Choice St. Domingo, Choice No. 1, Choice No. 2, Choice No. 3, Choice No. 4, Choice No. 5, Choice No. 6, Choice No. 7, Choice No. 8, Choice No. 9, Choice No. 10. Also, Choice No. 11, Choice No. 12, Choice No. 13, Choice No. 14, Choice No. 15, Choice No. 16, Choice No. 17, Choice No. 18, Choice No. 19, Choice No. 20. Also, Choice No. 21, Choice No. 22, Choice No. 23, Choice No. 24, Choice No. 25, Choice No. 26, Choice No. 27, Choice No. 28, Choice No. 29, Choice No. 30. Also, Choice No. 31, Choice No. 32, Choice No. 33, Choice No. 34, Choice No. 35, Choice No. 36, Choice No. 37, Choice No. 38, Choice No. 39, Choice No. 40. Also, Choice No. 41, Choice No. 42, Choice No. 43, Choice No. 44, Choice No. 45, Choice No. 46, Choice No. 47, Choice No. 48, Choice No. 49, Choice No. 50. Also, Choice No. 51, Choice No. 52, Choice No. 53, Choice No. 54, Choice No. 55, Choice No. 56, Choice No. 57, Choice No. 58, Choice No. 59, Choice No. 60. Also, Choice No. 61, Choice No. 62, Choice No. 63, Choice No. 64, Choice No. 65, Choice No. 66, Choice No. 67, Choice No. 68, Choice No. 69, Choice No. 70. Also, Choice No. 71, Choice No. 72, Choice No. 73, Choice No. 74, Choice No. 75, Choice No. 76, Choice No. 77, Choice No. 78, Choice No. 79, Choice No. 80. Also, Choice No. 81, Choice No. 82, Choice No. 83, Choice No. 84, Choice No. 85, Choice No. 86, Choice No. 87, Choice No. 88, Choice No. 89, Choice No. 90. Also, Choice No. 91, Choice No. 92, Choice No. 93, Choice No. 94, Choice No. 95, Choice No. 96, Choice No. 97, Choice No. 98, Choice No. 99, Choice No. 100. Also, Choice No. 101, Choice No. 102, Choice No. 103, Choice No. 104, Choice No. 105, Choice No. 106, Choice No. 107, Choice No. 108, Choice No. 109, Choice No. 110. Also, Choice No. 111, Choice No. 112, Choice No. 113, Choice No. 114, Choice No. 115, Choice No. 116, Choice No. 117, Choice No. 118, Choice No. 119, Choice No. 120. Also, Choice No. 121, Choice No. 122, Choice No. 123, Choice No. 124, Choice No. 125, Choice No. 126, Choice No. 127, Choice No. 128, Choice No. 129, Choice No. 130. Also, Choice No. 131, Choice No. 132, Choice No. 133, Choice No. 134, Choice No. 135, Choice No. 136, Choice No. 137, Choice No. 138, Choice No. 139, Choice No. 140. Also, Choice No. 141, Choice No. 142, Choice No. 143, Choice No. 144, Choice No. 145, Choice No. 146, Choice No. 147, Choice No. 148, Choice No. 149, Choice No. 150. Also, Choice No. 151, Choice No. 152, Choice No. 153, Choice No. 154, Choice No. 155, Choice No. 156, Choice No. 157, Choice No. 158, Choice No. 159, Choice No. 160. Also, Choice No. 161, Choice No. 162, Choice No. 163, Choice No. 164, Choice No. 165, Choice No. 166, Choice No. 167, Choice No. 168, Choice No. 169, Choice No. 170. Also, Choice No. 171, Choice No. 172, Choice No. 173, Choice No. 174, Choice No. 175, Choice No. 176, Choice No. 177, Choice No. 178, Choice No. 179, Choice No. 180. Also, Choice No. 181, Choice No. 182, Choice No. 183, Choice No. 184