

Everybody Needs

A Spring tonic. The peculiar conditions at this season produce a depressed, care-worn, languid feeling, which pervades the entire body. When nature, unassisted, attempts to get rid of the accumulated impurities, the energies give way, the appetite fails, a worn-out, run-down condition is the result. All of which can be avoided by a few bottles of which promptly purifies the blood and thoroughly renovates the entire system, tones and strengthens the stomach, and renews the appetite. It is the only safe, being purely vegetable, and the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no arsenic, sulphur, mercury, potash or other mineral substance, which is of so much importance to all who know the injurious effects of these drugs. Nature should be assisted by nature's remedy, S. S. S. Insist on S. S. S.

DEFEATED

For Three Years He Suffered - Could Hardly Breathe at Night - One Nostril Closed for Ten Years.

Mr. A. M. Ramsey, of De Leon, Texas, was a sufferer from Catarrh in its worst form. Truly, his description of his sufferings seem little short of marvellous. Instead of seeking his couch, glad for the night's coming, he went to his room, realizing that another long, weary, wakeful night and a struggle to breathe was before him.

Metzger Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.

Before the undersigned authority, on this day, personally appeared A. M. Ramsey, who being duly sworn, says on oath that the foregoing statement made by him is true to the best of his knowledge and belief, and that he is the person named in the foregoing statement.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this August 4th, 1907.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga.

Dear Sirs:—I sold three bottles of P. P. P. large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today.

The P. P. P. cured my wife of rheumatism winter before last. It came back on her the past winter and a half bottle of P. P. P. relieved her. She has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of the best small ones, one took sick and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up hallowing 'g' and 'w'.

Yours respectfully,

J. N. McELROY.

NORTH CAROLINA. Biblical Recorder: The legislature has killed a bill to prohibit public officers accepting free railroad passes. It will be a some day.

Raleigh Tribune: The experiment station annex will be completed by April 1st. The work is being done by the Carolina Car Company, and cost about $50,000.

Goldboro Argus: Rev. A. C. Barron, D. D., who is to hold a series of meetings with the First Baptist church, on Monday evening, March 18th, is a native of Georgia.

The Raleigh Tribune says Roscoe Mitchell, of Graham county, who was a page in the legislature, has gone to Washington to take a position as page in the United States senate.

The Weekly Dispatch says that Mr. James Whitehurst died at his home in Raleigh, N. C., on Monday evening, the 9th inst. He was the oldest man in North Carolina.

The Concord Standard says a meeting of editors of afternoon papers of the state will be held in Concord next week for the purpose of organizing the complete afternoon press disintegrated.

The Charlotte Observer says Mr. J. M. Cornelius, of Moore's county, has been elected to the chair of merit of which he has been elected and therefore shined more conveniently.

Wilson Times: The county fall has in present only two or three acres of corn. The number will remain small until the next year, when the corn will be the next year.

Winston-Salem: Senator C. D. Barringer arrived from Raleigh Wednesday morning. He was in the city for a few days, but without a speech. The legislature of 1907 was an admirable success for the old North State.

Stateville Landmark: The indications are for an increased crop of cotton. Much fertilizer has been sold and several farmers in their neighborhoods will be increasing their cotton crops.

Scotland: A colored man named Willie Brown, who works on the railroad near Tillery Sunday afternoon, was shot and killed by a colored man named H. B. Dickens, who was run over and killed by a cow a few days ago.

Winston-Salem: Mr. J. H. Long, representative from Raleigh, who was in the city the past week, collecting for the Friends' Orphanage near High Point, N. C., returned to his home in California, and President of the Sentinel Publishing Company, in the city looking after his newspaper interests.

Wadesboro Messenger: Captain J. C. Lashley has been receiving $2 per month as superintendent of the Anson State farm under democratic management. The Republicans had nothing to say for him in the saddle and we are reliably informed that one of their acts was to raise the salary of Mr. Reinhardt, the present superintendent.

The Marion Messenger says Jack Avery, a colored well known man, was shot and killed by a white man named H. B. Dickens, who was run over and killed by a cow a few days ago.

Lenoir Topics: Dr. H. H. Moore, of Clinch County, is spending this week with his brother, Mr. J. Frank Moore, at his home in Clinch County, N. C.

Sanford Express: The Express has found a mile 22 years ago. It is owned by Mr. Petty, who lives near Sanford, and is still able to do good work.

THE WESTERN UNION'S BLAZE.

Sequel to a Night of Lightning—The Office in Charlotte Completely Destroyed—Destruction of Architect Milburn's Hand-some Offices.

The Charlotte office of the Western Union Telegraph Company was completely gutted by fire Sunday morning. The Western Union office is a two-story brick building, above it on the second story, tower the walls of the Central hotel, and on the south the walls of Mr. H. G. Spring's new building, the Central hotel.

Over the roof of the building, the fire runs the covered way connecting the Central and annex. The entire ground floor of the building was occupied by the Western Union. The second floor was used as a store for the Central hotel.

A fierce fire raged for perhaps an hour. It was kindled by lightning, and the machine made kind, but of the kind that would echo the rattle of the thunder, and the fire ran up the tower of the Central hotel, and on the south the walls of Mr. H. G. Spring's new building, the Central hotel.

ENGLAND'S ATTITUDE.

Government Leaders in Both Houses of Parliament Decline to Give Information Regarding the Cretan Situation.

London, March 16.—In the house of commons this evening, Mr. A. J. Balcanquhall, minister of foreign affairs, in the following announcement on behalf of the government: "We have today addressed a communication to the powers in regard to Greece, but it is impossible, as it would be improper and against public interest, either to state the terms of the communication or to encourage debate on the subject."

A dispatch from Malta says that 600 British troops were ordered to Crete from the station today. Answering a question by the Earl of Kimberley, late minister of foreign affairs, in the house of lords today, Lord Salisbury said that instructions had been sent to the admirals commanding the foreign warships in the Cretan waters to put the blockade of the ports of the island of Crete into operation.

Lord Kimberley asked that the government make a further and more explicit statement in regard to the Cretan situation, but Lord Salisbury referred him to the admirable speeches delivered by Lord Salisbury, Lord Salisbury and Premier Melne in the French chamber of deputies yesterday. In the words of Lord Salisbury, the British situation is a most unfortunate one.

Lord Kimberley said that I should prefer to have a statement of Great Britain's policy by Great Britain's ministers. Lord Salisbury said that the British situation is a most unfortunate one.
