THE ILL FATED ST. NAZAIRE.

Another of Her Boats Found—In It 8 Dead Bodies—Evidences of Children Having Been Among the Party.

New York, March 22.—The Crowwell Line steamer Creole, Captain Gager, from New Orleans, arrived at her dock about 11 o'clock this morning, bringing additional news from the ill-fated steamer St. Nazaire.

Captain Gager reports that on March 18, in latitude 24 1/2, longitude 74 30, he passed a boat full of water. Shortly afterwards he determined to ascertain if possible what it was and turned about for an investigation.

On reaching the boat he found it contained eight dead bodies, one of them supposed to be that of a woman. A hook was made fast to the boat's bow and it was pulled up towards the steamer.

The bodies were washed out into the sea. They had apparently been held fast by the beams of the boat, and were crowded under them. It was noted by the mate that two of the small boat's passengers were colored.

In the boat was found a woman's slipper, a child's shoe, a bottle of nursing bottle and several bottles of fresh water, which was found to be in the hands of the crew.

The boat was an old wooden one, and bore the monogram of the Creole. It was about 40 feet in length and could carry about forty passengers.

The prize fight deaths. Frank Connolly discharged—Samuel S. Perry held for Grand Jury.

Philadelphia, March 22.—Deputy Coroner Dugan today held inquests in the cases of Christian Kleinecker, who died on Saturday, after engaging in a boxing bout with Frank Connolly, and of Edward Gibson, who died the same day from the effects of a heart blow delivered by Samuel S. Perry on Friday night during a bout at the Tenth Ward Democratic Club.

It was testified that Kleinecker stumbled in a blink struck his head on a spike which was embedded in the floor. The autopsy showed that the fall broke an abscess which had formed on the back of the neck, and that it resulted therefrom. Connolly was discharged.

The Gibbons case, Peter Gillespie, the referee; James O'Neill, the second for Gibson; William Orr, the second for Perry, and the referee, and the coroner, the coroner's physician, deputed the death was caused by hemorrhage of the neck, nose, pharynx and brain, due to traumatic injuries.

The jury held Perry responsible and the county prison without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

THE NEW DIRECTORATE

The Governor's Peculiar Method of Treating this Matter—Mrs. Darby Appointed Executive Clerk—Baptist Female University to be Completed—Improvements to Be Made in the State Museum—The Frigate Ship—A Colored Postmaster for Charlotte Large Cotton Crop to be Planted.

Messenger Bureau, Park Hotel, Raleigh, N. C., March 22.—Work in order to be begun at once on the Baptist State Female university here; not to be again stopped until completed.

The superior court began a term here today. There are three murder cases on the docket, but only two will now be tried.

The supreme court will this week hear arguments on appeals from the Eighth district.

Mrs. Lizzie Darby, of Wilmington, is to be executive clerk to Governor Russell.

Persons who come here from the various counties of the state say that the farmers are greatly behind with work. The weather is now favorable and planting can begin.

The general impression appears to be that a very large cotton crop will be planted in the state this season. Indications point to this.

The large annex to the agricultural department building is nearly completed. Two of the rooms, each 40 by 40 feet, with ceiling twenty-five feet high will be used for special collections of the museum.

The improvements to be made in the State Museum are the purchase of a new microscope, the purchase of a new microscope, the purchase of a new microscope.
