The German minister at Athens, Baron von Plessen, has undertaken to protect Turkish interests in Greece during the severance of diplomatic relations between the two countries. The Greeks hold that it was an attempt upon the part of the Turkish forces to occupy a strategic position near Mount Analyipsis, not far from Nezeros, in the neutral zone, which led to the encounter on Friday between the Greeks and the Turks. This, it is added, was used at Constantinople as a reason for ordering Edham Pasha, to assume the offensive and led to the rupture of diplomatic relations between warmly commended for recalling the Greek minister at Constantinople and not waiting, according to the Greek version, until Prince Mavrocordato was handed his passports.

According to the general understand ing here, the Turkish plan of campaign is a concentration of the Turks near the important Greek frontier town of Tyrnavos, with a view of forcing the moun tain passes leading toward Larissa. One report, which is generaly credited has it that Edham Pasha, at the head of 12,000 men, has already begun this movement, and rumors in this respect are flying, the substance of them being that the battle which is expected to be fought at or near Tyrnavos has al-

Athens, April 18.—8 p. m.—In the fighting on the frontier the Turks have occupied Ana and Enilouna, but they have not succeeded in taking Kata. (Last Night's Dispatches.)

London, April 19.-The situation on the frontier has not, according to the latest advices, been materially modifled today. Both the Turks and the Greeks are resting from the tremen-dons exertions of Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The troops of Edam Pasha were half dead with fatigue and hunknown. Negotiations are pending for where they stood on the bare ground the settlement of the entire amount of to sleep. The Turkish commander-in-though his name had the shortage by the bondsmen, of the most studborn and savage character. The Turks fought like devils and the Greeks resisted in the spirit of their ancestors. The most inexplicanumber of killed. All the special corespondents agree as to this. The Turks appear to have fired as wildly with their rifles at Milouna pass a they did at Arta, where the fighting consisted of an artillery duel between the rival batteries on each side of the river, lasting about four hours in the afternoon. There they fired only one out of five shots with any effect and the Greeks, whose marksmanship was very much superior. The Turkish osses at Arta are believed to have been very heavy. On the Greek side there was not a man killed. Later (9 p. m.)—General Smolenitz. x-minister of war, is in command of 14,000 Greeks at Reven!, not far from Tyrnavos, northwest of Larissa. At this point Edhem Pasha, closely press-ed. was nearly taken prisoner. His plan was to force the pass of Reveni to enter the plain of Larissa, to cut off the retreat of the Greek army with his cavalry and thus to take Larissa without resistance. But this plan was defeated. General Demopoulos, at the nead of one Greek division, forced the Tyrnavo, and General Movromochale oke through at Koniskos. The two

The latest advices tonight are that the Greek troops are advancing to re-occupy their posiions at Milouna and at Grithovali, the latter of which, it is alleged, was abandoned, owing to a misunderstanding by the general in command who interpreted as an order of retreat what really an order to advance. Edhem Pasha has entrenched himself on all the and strong bodies of troops are stationed in the defiles between these two points. The inhabitants of Elassona have left the town en masse and are pushing northward, many of them going on to Salonica. Evidently they fear that the Greeks will defeat the Turks and actually reach this place. Edhem Pasha, the Turkish command er-in-chief, is a marvel of energy and caution. Roumania has practically established an allegiance with Germany by having a Hohenzollern upon the throne. Bulgaria has almost become a Russian province and Servia's king is the son of a daughter of a Russian colonel; so that unless the peoples of these countries act contrary to the influence of their leaders, there is not likely to be any combination against Turkey. The Turks can, and no doubt will, drive the Greeks back of the frontier. The Turkish army outnumbers ther. The Turkish army outnumbers that of Greece, two to one, and is better equipped. The entire army of Greece, including reserves, consists of about 80,000 troops and I do not think it has been possible for them to have ped himself for his mission, which, is it declared at the state department, is been possible for them to have been equipped with the most modern munitions of war.
