WILMINGTON, N. C.

SATURDAY, 'APRIL 24, 1897.

THE PROGRESS OF THE REPUB-LICAN SCHEME OF ROBBERY.

The impression in Washington relative to the course of the republican senatorial sub-committee is, that it will not mend matters-that the iniquitous bill will be as unjustifiable, as oppressive, as absurd, as sweeping as a whole as the house bill is that passed. It is thought that it will reduce have flopped as easily and quickly, and here and there and increase here and there.

The point is, as we gather it, that time? Is it not enough to bolt the western men will kick unless they get what they want, and eastern grab-alls low to "grub and glory." Wimbish is will kick too unless they get a full share of the robbery contemplated. The two greedy, conscienceless sections will probably agree to the rapacity of each. and a bill of sweeping robbery and manifold unrighteousness will be passed, even some so-called democrats voting for the infamous bill. In the house six of this bad stripe voted for the bill. In the senate two or three democratic traitors will swallow the monster at a gulp. The proposed wool tax is the greatest outrage ever attempted against a free people. It deserves the execration of every American voter. The whole bill in the senate is permeated with wrong and outrage, and is a positive disgrace to any party or country. It is loaded to the muzzle with absurdities and robberies.

It has been given out that the republican sub-committee have been greatly perplexed and vexed. They have encountered many and great difficulties from contending interests. You see,

We could probably call over a dozen or fifty of the leading office-seekers who can find the hour when they were neophytes, hungry and anxious, seeking grub. The trouble is with the floppers they get in and want office at once, shoving aside "the fire tried" who have borne the burden and the accusation and the shame of being

It appears that a committee from the National Reform Press Association-populist newspapers, we take - has been harrowing up the tender feelings of Marion Butler with a request that he call the populist national ommittee together "for the purpose of calling a national delegate conference of the people's party not later than July 4th." Senator Butler paid no attention to the request, having no use whatever in his husiness for a convention, either of the populists or any other. Nevertheless the Kansas populists are up in arms against Mr. Butler for his refusal to call a convention
