One and probably more of our business houses will commence the half-day weekly holiday next week, as they observe from the 1st day of May to the 30th of September.

Mr. G. W. Westbrook, of Wrightsville, sent The Messenger some marvellously fine strawberries yesterday, the largest we ever saw. Some of them were six inches in circumference, and the flavor of the berries was delicious.

They were of the variety known as "Glen Mary."

Enjoyable Concert. The concert given last evening at Luther Memorial building under the auspices of the ladies of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, was an enjoyable affair and grand success.

The rostrum was tastefully and beautifully decorated with flowers, and evergreens decked the walls of the hall.

The select programme was exceedingly interesting from beginning to end, and was as follows:

1-Instrumental Duet, Mrs. Geo. Haar, Miss Glameyer.

2-Vocal Solo, by Miss Adrian.

3-The "Hunting Chorus," Mrs. G. Haar, Mrs. J. H. Rehder and Misses Strauss, Adrian, Glameyer and Stotler.

4-Vocal Solo, Mr. Will Rehder.

5-Dialogue, Miss Mary Mohr, Miss Kate Stotler, Mr. Carl Schuklen.

The participants were heartily applauded and all the numbers were accorded, attesting the high appreciation of the excellent singing and music.

The ladies served delightful refreshments, and everybody present greatly enjoyed the evening's entertainment.

Fine Band Concert in Prospect. The Second Regiment band had a fine rehearsal last night, preparatory for an elegant concert to be given in the near future.

The band is better than ever and Wilmington should be proud of this organization. It has been ordered by the band and will be here in time for the band when it plays for the memorial services on the 10th of May.

By the way, it would be a graceful and encouraging thing for our citizens to aid the band in paying for their uniforms, and we know that a contribution from any of our citizens will be highly appreciated. Give the boys a lift.

To Leave Us. Mr. E. S. Tennent will leave us the first of next week for Charlotte, where he will remain a month or more pointing himself in the stock and affairs of the Charlotte Mill Supply Company.

He will later become manager of a branch of the same at Spartanburg, S. C., the centre of the milling industry of that state. Mr. Tennent is one of Wilmington's most superior and progressive young business men and Wilmington will hate to see him transfer his home to another city. The Messenger heartily commends him and wishes the measure of success.

CITY AFFAIRS.

Approval of the Contract of the Street Railway Company to Furnish Electric Light-The Wilmington Gaslight Company to Furnish Gas and Light the Market.

A conference of the board of audit and finance was held last night to consider the contract for lighting the city.

All the members were in attendance, viz.: Chairman William H. Chadbourn and Messrs. H. A. DeCover, C. W. Yates, H. A. DeCover, and John H. Webber.

Eugene S. Martin, Esq., representing the Wilmington Gaslight Company, George Rountree, Esq., President H. A. Whiting, and Manager M. F. H. Gouverneur, representing the Wilmington Street Railway Company, and Mayor S. P. Wright were present.

Chairman Chadbourn stated that under the act creating the board, the number of meetings authorized for a month had been exhausted, but the board would have a conference and at the next regular meeting to be held next Tuesday would approve whatever was agreed on in the conference touching the award of the contract for lighting the city.

Captain John Cowan, the clerk read a communication from the board of aldermen, stating the action of that board in awarding the contract to the Wilmington Street Railway Company for lighting the city with electric lights, and in awarding the contract to the Wilmington Gaslight Company for lighting the city with gas.

The clerk was then called on to read the bids of the respective companies, upon which the board of aldermen took action. The bid of the Wilmington Gaslight Company was to furnish 73 arc street lamps at $9 each per month, to light the three markets as now wired, at $28.50 per month, to furnish gas for lighting the street lights at $2 per month for each lamp, to furnish gas for lighting the alley lamps at $2.50 per month for each lamp, and to light the city hall with gas, at $18.50 per month.

The bid of the Wilmington Street Railway Company, (Electricity alone), was to furnish 73 arc street lamps at $7 per month each, two arc lamps at Front street market, at $10 per month each, and incandescent lights at 50 cents each.

Chairman Chadbourn stated that the question to be considered in connection with the bids was as to the competency of the Wilmington Street Railway Company as a bidder.

Mr. Gouverneur submitted to the board the proposition that the proposal of the Street Railway Company to give bond for the faithful performance of the contract, settled the matter of the company's competency.

Mr. Martin addressed the board and explained his contention before the board of aldermen that the Wilmington Street Railway Company was not a competent bidder, as it did not have a plant ready for carrying out the contract and that its proposition was to begin lighting the city June 1st.

He submitted that the law required the contract to be awarded annually and urged that the custom is to date the contract from April 1st, that his company has been lighting the city since April 1st, and being a competent bidder should be awarded the contract.

He proposed that the bid of his company could be revised to meet the wishes of the board. He spoke of the fairness of his company in years gone by in reducing the charges for arc lamps from $12 to $10 and then to $7, without being solicited to do so.

Mr. Gouverneur in response to a question of Chairman Chadbourn said his company in a day or two could get the lights along the street railway line ready, that in two weeks they could have 30 lamps ready, and in two weeks more they could be ready to fulfill the contract. He stated that his company has sufficient dynamo power, and that the newest arc lamps, such as are used in Washington would be put up.

George Rountree, Esq., attorney for the Street Railway Company, read the law, providing that the contract for lighting the city shall be awarded annually or at such other times as may be necessary and spoke at some length as to the competency of his company, and its ability to give bond and carry out the contract. He submitted to the board that his company was the lowest bidder and there could be no other course but to approve the contract.

For further discussion by the attorneys, the members of the board agreed, at its next meeting, to approve the contract with the Street Railway Company for furnishing the 73 arc lights, and to approve the contract with the Wilmington Gaslight Company for furnishing the city gas lamps, gas at the city hall, and for lighting the three markets.

Spring is full of terrors to all whose constitution is not able to resist the sudden changes of temperature and other insalubrities of the season. To put the system in condition to overcome such a state of things, in so effective as Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take it now.

Two Cents a Day Will sustain the life of a man, woman or child for one day in India. The greatest calamity of this century is now taking place in India. Successive failures of crops resulting from repeated lack of rains have brought 80,000,000 of human beings to the very verge of starvation; and millions will succumb to the terrible fate which has destroyed already the lives of great numbers.

The appeal in their behalf is pitiful; and the facts brought from this region of untold misery are indeed heart-rending. The demand is urgent that these stricken people should receive support and aid from the Christian countries that can well spare a little out of their abundance.

The United States government has very generously placed 4,000 tons free transportation to India at the disposal of Dr. Talmage and his co-workers, and resolution has lately been passed by congress to allow two more vessels to carry aid to the starving people of India.

We know that there are a great many of our people who are awaiting an opportunity to contribute something to this cause. We should be glad to receive any contributions for the purpose. Mr. James Sprunt, British vice consul, Messrs. C. W. Yates & Co., Mr. W. M. Cumming or Mr. Andrew J. Howell, Jr., will also be glad to receive and forward contributions.

Do not fail to co-operate generously with the other sections of our country that are contributing so promptly to this cause. Remember that 11,000 people are now dying daily in India of starvation.

THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Second Day of the Special Term-Several Recruits for the Penitentiary-The Murder Trial Set for Today-The Howland Case Will Be Tried Thursday.

Pursuant to adjournment for recess and Monday evening, the circuit criminal court of New Hanover county met yesterday at 10 a. m., His Honor Judge Sutton, presiding.

During the day's sitting the following cases were disposed of:

State vs. Edward Sharples, colored, charged with the murder of Sam Register, colored, at Castle Haynes, last March 17th, was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The trial of the case was set for this morning at 10 o'clock.

State vs. Andrew Anderson, colored, assault and battery with a deadly weapon, verdict not guilty.

State vs. Robert Johnson, larceny, pleaded not guilty, verdict guilty. Judgment suspended.

State vs. Robert Johnson, larceny, pleaded not guilty, verdict guilty. Sentenced to five years in the state penitentiary. Johnson is a mulatto and came here three or four months ago, representing himself to be the body servant of General Robert E. Lee. When he landed in town he told a pitiful tale about having his home in Virginia burned together with his three children, and his story induced many persons to give him money and extend him favors.

A colored woman gave him a dollar to change so she could give him some change and he disappeared with the dollar. The stealing of the dollar contained the ground for the first case against him. He stole a watch from another colored woman, and this was the second case. While playing his game around the city Johnson kept soaked full of mean liquor and he was the man of whom The Messenger said that his breath smelled so loudly of rum that he did not get near enough with his position at this office to get a contribution.

State vs. Charles Fisher, colored, abandonment of his wife, verdict guilty. Sentenced to six months in the county workhouse. The county commissioners were authorized to hire him out.

State vs. William Fisher, colored, larceny, verdict guilty. Sentenced to 12 months in the state penitentiary.

State vs. James Davis, colored, larceny, verdict guilty. Sentenced to two years and six months in the penitentiary.

State vs. Sarah Walker, colored, adultery, verdict guilty. Judgment suspended.

State vs. John Dobson, colored, larceny, pleaded guilty. Sentenced to two years and six months in the penitentiary. Dobson is the man who robbed Mrs. R. E. Goldboro, on a train at Front Street railway station on the 17th of last August. It will be remembered that he snatched from her arm a satchel containing a gold watch. Bruce Williams, Esq., of Burgaw, attorney for the Atlantic Coast Line appeared with Solicitor Richardson in prosecuting the accused.

Beckie Clardy, colored, charged with stealing $5 and other change and a bill of Brazilian currency from a sailor, was placed on trial and at 5 p. m., when the court adjourned the jury was still out. At 7 p. m., Judge Sutton went to the court house to receive the verdict of the jury but they came into court and informed him that they could not agree, ten being for a verdict of guilty and two for acquittal. He reheard a portion of the evidence and instructed them on the law, and they retired again. At 9:40 p. m., having failed to agree, Judge Sutton went to the court house, and a juror was withdrawn and a mistrial ordered.

The case of the state vs. Fred P. Howland, charged with setting fire to the naval stores yard of Robinson & King, was set for a hearing at 10 a. m. next Friday.

The court took a recess till 10 o'clock this morning.

Annual Meeting of the Wilmington Gaslight Company. The annual meeting of the Wilmington Gaslight Company was held yesterday at the company's office, No. 114 Princess street and was called to order by Col. J. W. Atkinson, who acted as chairman. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, after which the directors for the ensuing year were duly chosen, viz: Dr. A. J. DeRosier, Messrs. E. S. Martin, G. H. Smith, George R. French, George W. Kiddie, John F. Dwyne, and Don Mackie. The new board met and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President-E. S. Martin.

Secretary and Treasurer-R. J. Jones.

Superintendent-J. W. Reilly. The board of directors adjourned until next regular meeting.

The Wrightsville Beach Hotel. Mr. George Campbell, of Charlotte, president of the Wrightsville Beach Hotel Company, and who is to be the proprietary manager of the hotel, arrived in the city yesterday. He went to the beach yesterday afternoon to see how the work was getting along on the new hotel. He reports that the work is progressing finely and that the hotel will be completed in time for the opening of the season about June 1st or not later than June 10th. He has already given out the contract for the furniture and equipments of the hotel.

Disposition of the Convicts. Colonel F. W. Foster, chairman of the board of commissioners of New Hanover county, accompanied by Judge Thomas H. Bates, of the circuit criminal court, Solicitor M. Richardson, and a county representative, drove out to the county home and workhouse yesterday afternoon. Colonel Foster took the judge and solicitor out to inspect the home.

Mr. T. A. Watson, superintendent of the home, showed the party the party and showed them over the home. Every thing about the premises was neat and clean and the appearance of things was highly creditable to the superintendent. There are now twenty-four inmates in the home.

The workhouse was also inspected, and in this department Superintendent Watson is making some commendable improvement by putting banks in the cells for the prisoners.

Judge Sutton's visit to the home was especially to ascertain what disposition is made of the convicts sent to the home. When told that the convicts were sent to the home, he said they should have the benefit of their labor on the roads or in some other manner. He stated last evening that he will make a recommendation to the grand jury along this line.

Miss Robeson Appointed Court Stenographer. Miss Edna Robeson, who was engaged by Colonel F. W. Foster as stenographer for this term of the circuit criminal court of New Hanover county, has so pleased Judge Sutton by her efficiency that he has appointed her stenographer for the entire circuit composed of New Hanover, Craven, Wilson, Halifax, Warren, Nash and Edgecombe counties.

By the way, Robeson county was named for Miss Robeson's great-grand father, Colonel Robeson, who was one of the heroes of the revolutionary war. Readers of history will see his name mentioned along with those of Lillington, Stanhope, Garden, Forest, and Moore's creeks.

Miss Robeson is a very competent stenographer and Judge Sutton is to be congratulated upon his selection. While he was in the last legislature it was he who amended the circuit criminal court act providing for a stenographer. The employment of a stenographer is an economy on the part of the court, as named will endorse, for it facilitates the work of the court and saves witness and jury fees, and not to mention the usefulness a stenographer is to the judge and lawyers of the courts.

THE COAST LINE CASE. The Atlantic Coast Line Can Now Unite and Operate its Roads as One System. (Columbia State, April 27th.)

The test case to determine whether or not any of the railroads now operating by the Atlantic Coast Line Company are parallel or competing was argued yesterday at 10 o'clock in the court of Judge Sutton, presiding.

The test case was argued in favor of the Atlantic Coast Line Company, and a verdict returned in favor of the roads. Attorney Barber represented the railroad commission and Mr. J. T. Barron the railroad. Only the officials of the Atlantic Coast Line and Chairman W. D. Evans, of the railroad commission, were witnesses.

The last legislature passed an act consolidating the railroads constituting the Atlantic Coast Line Company, provided that none of such roads were parallel or competing in the meaning of the constitution. To determine whether or not any of the parallel or competing case had to be taken to the courts and left to a jury. Bidders will present their bids to be filed. This was the test case tried yesterday.

Colonel V. G. Elliott, president of the Atlantic Coast Line, was the first witness called. He explained that his company, which runs the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta, and the North and South Carolina, and the Florence, the Manchester and Augusta, and the Central roads, controlled them and operated them as one system. Each road was run in the interest of the others, though each had its own rates, and each made its own expenses. The earnings of each were kept separately. This being the case, he did not think it would be a wise or a just substitution of any of them were competing or parallel.

Colonel Elliott explained how the present suit, the legislature before the last, failed, and how he required that all railroads operating as one system to put into effect a straight mileage rate. Prior to that time the freight passenger had in effect different rates on each of the lines leased or operated by the Atlantic Coast Line Company. He mentioned that a continuous mileage rate had been proposed by the Atlantic Coast Line Company. This, he said, would have made a considerable reduction in the profits of the roads, which would have been a disadvantage to the public. Continuing, Colonel Elliott stated that the management of the Coast Line Company is now in the hands of the railroad commission. He said that he would have made a considerable reduction in the profits of the roads, which would have been a disadvantage to the public. Continuing, Colonel Elliott stated that the management of the Coast Line Company is now in the hands of the railroad commission. He said that he would have made a considerable reduction in the profits of the roads, which would have been a disadvantage to the public.

Mr. T. M. Emerson, traffic manager of the Coast Line Company, did not think the roads were competing. On either of the two roads that left Wilmington the rate was the same to the same point.

Mr. W. D. Evans, the only witness for the state testified to virtually the same facts as Colonel Elliott did. He closed the case and after arguments the court turned a verdict in favor of the railroad, which permits them to consolidate.

Death of "Weldon." Many of our citizens and the traveling public especially, will be sorry to learn of the death of Weldon Perryington, the ever polite porter in the Orton house bar. He was taken sick on Saturday and died yesterday morning of a strange affection which seemed to baffle the physicians, but which they finally determined was erysipelas. At first it was believed Weldon had been poisoned.

He was drawn around and he was caught between what are known as the nigger heels, causing instant death.

Roonoke, Va., April 27.-A special grand jury today indicted Moses Dennis, colored, for highway robbery.
