

NORTH CAROLINA.

No Raleigh papers since Sunday. Monroe Hunter, a well known Forsyth county farmer, is held to court on a charge of assaulting the wife of his tenant.

Governor and Mrs. Russell are so much pleased with the success of their first public reception that they intend to give others; perhaps one a month.

The Concord Standard says: "Twenty kegs, or two thousand pounds, of beer were shipped from Charlotte and Salisbury to this city during the month of April."

Raleigh News and Observer: The supreme court, during the term just closed, cleaned up its docket more completely than it ever has before, only four or five cases being left on the docket.

Raleigh Tribune: It turns out that Mr. Ransom's resignation as minister to Mexico has not been accepted. The nomination of Powell Clayton was promptly confirmed, but it does not suit Mr. Clayton's convenience to go to Mexico.

The New Bern Journal says a tarpon measuring 42 inches from tip to tip and weighing 28 pounds, was caught last Friday by Captain Samuel Willis off Fort Macon. A most remarkable fact is that the tarpon was caught in a net, something that is very unusual.

Fayetteville Observer: A correspondent requests us to give the dates of the earthquake shocks at Charleston. The first shock was at 10 o'clock p. m., August 31, 1886, another shock was felt the following afternoon and another at 10:55 o'clock p. m., September 1.

The Durham Sun says that Colonel Patrick H. Winston, formerly of North Carolina, now of Spokane Falls, Wash., is on a visit to his brother, Judge R. W. Winston, of Durham. He is at present attorney general of his state, and is east now partly on business, but mostly for his health.

Marion Messenger: A few days since 23 prisoners passed through Marion from Statesville, en route to Bakersville, where they are to serve terms in jail for violation of United States laws, Strangely, considerably over one-half—17, are females, two of them having infants.

Winston Journal: Mr. C. E. Lyman, supposed to be backed by a syndicate of Asheville capitalists, has purchased, so a reporter learns, several thousand dollars' worth of Winston and Salem real estate, which has been sold by the sheriff for taxes during the past year, and Mr. Lyman, or his representative, demand a deed to all this property, and by the laws of the state get one that is good as gold.

Winston Journal: Alderman W. H. White, who lives on Liberty street, fell from his stable loft yesterday and received quite a serious injury. One of two of his ribs were broken, and he was otherwise bruised up, so he had gone into the loft to throw down some hay, and while coming down from the loft he missed a round on the ladder and fell, striking a barrel, with the result above stated.

Rev. D. M. McIver, formerly of this state, now pastor of the Presbyterian church at Bolivar, Tenn., is editing a religious paper, The Bolivar Observer, at Greenville. Recently worshippers at the Presbyterian church Sunday saw for the first time a very handsome communion table that was recently placed there. The table was a gift to the church by a young business man of the town whose name we are not permitted to print in this column.

Concord Standard: The usual Sunday afternoon fight occurred on East Depot street yesterday, when Doc Lindsey went to the home of his brother, Will Lindsey, and engaged in boisterous conduct unbecoming a "cullied gentleman." He cursed and swore and raved like a maniac, finally chucking rocks through the windows and tearing a door down, doing considerable damage to the house, the property of Mr. A. G. Bost. "Old corn licker" was the cause of it all.

The Winston Journal of the 22nd very pleasantly tells its readers that Miss Sue M. Comer, a young lady living near Madison, brought her crop of tobacco to Winston. It was sold at Brown's warehouse and brought the young lady a good, round price. She raised the crop herself, came to market with it, and looked after the sale. They say all the warehouse force had their shoes blacked and their hair parted in the middle at the sale.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. E. B. Springs, independent democrat, was yesterday elected mayor over Mr. J. H. Weddington, the democratic nominee, by a majority of 405 votes.—Rev. Richard Burwell, familiarly known among his old friends as "Dee," is to be married Thursday, to a Miss Franklin, of Mississippi. Mr. Burwell is a brother of Judge and Mr. W. R. Burwell. His boyhood days were spent in Charlotte.—Winston, May 3.—A distinct earthquake shock was felt here at 2:17 today. It lasted three or four seconds but did no damage.

Columbus Enquirer-Sun: One feature of the celebration of Memorial Day in Montgomery, which touched the heart of every veteran in that city, and which will impress every one who hears of it, was the presence of Mrs. Jackson, the wife of "Stonewall" Jackson, and her visit in the morning to the old capitol, the house in which the confederacy was born. How appropriate it was that she, the wife of Jackson, who died upon the woeful field in Chancellorsville, should upon the day set aside by the wives of confederate soldiers as a memorial of the dead, be present in the "Cradle of the Confederacy," to take part in the exercises.

Raleigh Press: The Chatanooga and Norfolk vestibule, which reached here yesterday morning at 11:45 o'clock, the usual schedule hour, sent a man to eternity after leaving Durham. Newman Ray was the name of the unfortunate victim who was killed at about the same point where Mr. A. G. Bower of this city and Mr. Charles Norton, of Durham, were so seriously injured. Newman stepped on the main track some distance ahead of the engine and though the engineer blew the whistle continuously the man paid no attention to it. The engineer was expecting the man to step aside, but he did not and the engine caught him and crushed him under the wheels. Ray's body was terribly mangled and torn. Life was literally crushed out of him. Ray once lived in Raleigh and married a daughter of John Price, the butcher.

New York Stock Market.

New York, May 5.—Today's market was reactionary throughout and very many stocks showed a loss of a point or over on the day's transactions, the gain of yesterday being for the most part lost. The activity of the dealings was also considerably diminished as compared with yesterday, the total of the shares being some 50,000 less than yesterday. Near half of the sales were Sugar and Chicago Gas. Outside of these, Western Union was the only notably active stock on the list. The Gold stocks, all of them, and the coalers were depressing influences in the market to some extent, the former seeming to be totally lacking in resiliency until the final transactions of the day, when they rallied a fraction. There was what looked like liquidation in all of these stocks and many rumors bearing on this were set afloat to help on the decline. The turbulent rush of cover of the shorts last night left that interest largely depleted in today's market and there was no resulting pressure to buy. There was besides the natural reaction from yesterday's upward rush on profit takings. The lower prices of Americans in London aided the decline to some extent, though not fully to the London parity, until that market had sold several thousand shares of the leading international stocks in this market. These were all contributory causes to the depression; but the principal motive of the selling was undoubtedly a modification of the view held yesterday that the tariff bill was assured of a speedy enactment into law. Reports found currency early in the day of expressions of dissatisfaction with the bill by prominent members of the house of representatives, and especially of determined hostility to schedules which are viewed with most interest in Wall street. Seeing the tenderness of the market, the traders embarked upon a selling movement to the extent of the tariff bill, and American treaty in the senate, the vote upon which was not taken when the market closed. There was no evidence in this of any deep seated timidity on the part of capital lest the defeat of the treaty should lead to international complications. It was rather a maneuver of present traders, which was effective in a narrow market and which was based on a supposition that London will sell American securities on the defeat of the treaty. The day was marked by a further decline in the rates of sterling exchange demand touching $4.87, and sixty days $4.85, and the consequent subsidence of apprehension of further gold shipments on Saturday, which are now considered highly improbable. Rumors of an agreement by an exchange house not to ship more gold were denied, but there was coupled the statement that further shipments were not likely this week. The total sale of stocks was 157,347 shares, including American Tobacco 6,300, American Sugar Refinery 44,800, Burlington and Quincy 9,900, Chicago Gas 25,100, Manhattan Consolidated 9,000, St. Paul 10,600, Western Union 9,900.

Cotton Futures.

(Special to The Messenger.) New York, May 5.—The private advices from Liverpool gave very bullish news this morning and the cables reported an advance in that market of 1-64d. Stimulated by the news from abroad, our market opened 7 points higher, August selling on the first call at 7.40. The feeling was cheerful and there was more disposition to buy; but one house, which was the largest buyer last week, sold heavily today and this selling was more than sufficient to supply the demand. Under it the market gave way. August declined to 7.36. The local bulls came to the support of prices and August advanced again to 7.40. In the last half hour there was fresh realizing and prices weakened. The market closed quiet with 7.37 bid for August. The talk of manipulation in Liverpool was renewed today. We expect higher prices.

RIORDAN & CO.

(By Associated Press.)

New York, May 5.—The cotton market had the advantage of better cable advices that had been looked for and started steady, at an advance of 4 to 7 points. The opening figures proved to be the best of the session, except that May, after call, improved 1 point, June 2 points, July 1 point, November 1 point and January 2 points. From this basis, the market sort of off 3 to 5 points and closed quiet at a net advance of 2 to 5 points. The undertone was rather steady throughout the session. Crop accounts were more or less conflicting, though the main showing rather better conditions. Buyers in Liverpool account was a feature of the early market. Later in the session Wall street selling more than offset the foreign demand. In the afternoon, the market was in control of the local contingent and showed very little feature.

The Chicago Markets.

Chicago, May 5.—Wheat showed weakness for a time today, but, later, recovered a 1/2 loss and advanced 1/2c besides. Weak Liverpool cables were the main cause of the weakness and mild firm reports of the harvest strength. Corn and oats were benefited to the extent of 1/2c and 1/4c respectively. Provisions closed unchanged to 7/8c higher.

Tribute to Miss Romeyn.

Taken in all its varied phases, the court-martial just adjourned at Fort McPherson was a remarkable affair. Its like has never been seen or heard of in all the years of our military history, and it is extremely doubtful if any man now living will see or hear of such a case again.

The official record and accounts which were printed in the daily papers throughout the country related a friendship and jealousy. But the record was cold and callous and newspaper men are sometimes given too strongly to looking at the heartless side of things. This is the reason that the public know do not of the tenderest and most affecting scenes of the trial.

The most noteworthy and impressive feature of the trial was the brave way in which Miss Nina Romeyn stood by her father. Fearless soldier that he is, he must long since have faltered in the trying hour he had undertaken but for her loving support, her unflinching loyalty and devotion. She stood by him as bravely as any man could do, and left nothing undone to cheer him in his hour of trouble. Never was a woman placed in a more trying position; never did one acquit herself more nobly. Morning, noon and night she labored bravely in her father's behalf, assisting him in the preparation of his case, and during the recess of the court calling to bid the old man to retain his hope.

Whether or not Captain Romeyn was justified in making unfavorable comment on the character of Mrs. O'Brien is for the court to determine, but whatever may be the decision of the court, the old warrior can carry with him through the remainder of his days no sweeter, purer, loftier thought than the recollection of the nobleness with which his daughter attended him. In these days, when family ties are not so warm as they were wont to be, it does the heart of any true man good to witness this old-fashioned, faithful devotion of Miss Romeyn.—Aaltina Journal, May 4th.

Savannah, Ga., April 26, 1896.

Having used three bottles of P. P. P. for impure blood and general weakness and having derived great benefit from the same, having gained 11 pounds in weight in four weeks. I take great pleasure in recommending it to all unfortunate like

Yours truly, JOHN MORRIS.

Office of J. N. McElroy, Druggist, Orlando, Fla., April 20, 1891. Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga. Dear Sirs— I sold three bottles of P. P. P. large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today.

The P. P. P. cured my wife of rheumatism winter before last. It came back on her the past winter and a half bottle of $1.00 size, relieved the pain, and she has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of the turkeys, a small one, took sick and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up hollowing and well.

Yours respectfully, J. N. McELROY, Savannah, Ga., March 17, 1891.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga. Dear Sirs—I have suffered from rheumatism for a long time and did not find a cure until I found P. P. P. which completely cured me.

Yours truly, BLIZA F. JONES, 16 Orange St., Savannah, Ga.

Whether or not Captain Romeyn was justified in making unfavorable comment on the character of Mrs. O'Brien is for the court to determine, but whatever may be the decision of the court, the old warrior can carry with him through the remainder of his days no sweeter, purer, loftier thought than the recollection of the nobleness with which his daughter attended him. In these days, when family ties are not so warm as they were wont to be, it does the heart of any true man good to witness this old-fashioned, faithful devotion of Miss Romeyn.—Aaltina Journal, May 4th.
