We have not only "high grade" Pianos, but medium, as well as cheap

As we buy our instruments "right out," we can sell (to say nothing of the superior grades) for what consignment dealers have to pay when they settle. Again, when Planos are consigned, the dealer has to sell what is sent, new ones, old ones, indifferent ones, which is rather risky business. You can form no idea of Pianos where only a single make is kept. As we pay for our goods, we can demand the best, and we instantly return any defective instruments. Call and see us before purchasing and you will see that everything is as we represent it. We state facts, not fiction. Pianos carefully and properly tuned at correct prices by Prof. J. G. Russell.

Dr. PAUL BARRINGER

Of the University of Virginia,

Recommends Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer.

A perfect remedy for dandruff and Mr. T. R. Neel, of Davidson College, writes: In 1886 my little daughter suddenly and unaccountably lost all her hair. From the crown down and from ear to ear was as bald as the palm of the hand. Months and months passed and the frightful baldness remained. My physician, Dr. Paul Barringer, recommended Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer. Determined to give if a fair trial I bought a half dozen bottles. Three bottles of it faithfully used, produced no visible effect, but one morning, soon after beginning the fourthbottle, to our surprise and delight, a new growth of hair appeared and so rapid and complete was the restoration that only one more bottle was needed. Ten years have elapsed and no one has a finer suit of hair. Less than one bottle is often effectual in checking failing hair. Read interriss, Son & Co. The New York Stock Market, New York, May 11.-Today's market for tocks continued to be strong and prices

London exchange was in session to impart its buoyant influence to the local market. The dealings showed some animation and increased volume, and the rise in prices was easy and uninterrupted. But the spirit of pessimism was too strong to outlast the adjournment of the London exchange, even with London con-tinuing to buy quite heavily in this market after the close of its exchange. The prices of Americans in London have halted somewhat up to this time in spite of the general improvement in that market, growing out of the subsidence of alarm over the war in the east, because London walted for New York to give the cue for an advance. Today, however, the general tone in London was so strong and the improvement so general that it extended to the Americans, without waiting for New York's picture. for New York's iniative. The cessation of the day's trading in London was followed by the announcement here of a $500,000 gold shipment on Thursday and this was followed by a vague rumor that shipments for the week would probably reach a total of $7,000,000. Although gold shipments have been expected and confidently predicted for this week the bull. fidently predicted for this week, the bulls lost heart in face of the annual announcement and the whole market sold off with no subsequent recurrence of decisive strength. As a matter of fact, exchange rates eased perceptibly with the offer-ing of bills against the gold shipment and the large purchases of securities by London here, estimated at 15,000 shares of stocks and some large blocks of railway bonds. The improvement in the price of Kaffirs in London today is another factor to be considered in the exchange situation, as the heavy liquidation of Paris holding of these securities on the London market is the reputed cause of the Paris demand in London for gold, and, Indirect ly, of the shipments of gold from New York to Paris. These elements in the situation make the volume of gold to be shipped from here this week still more problematical, with a growing likelihood that they will be less rather more than was anticipated; but these considerations did not allay the apprehension of the traders and they allowed prices to de-cline, As a consequence, net changes on and Western Union were the most active folk and Western common, and in Oregon Navigation, preferred, two usually inac-tive stocks. The total sale of stocks for the day amounted to 159,612 shares, inton and Quincy 15,200, Chicago Gas 26,700, Louisivlle and Nashville 5,800; Manhattan Consolidated 12,200, Reading 6,100, Rock Island 5,600; St. Paul 18,500, Western Union Telegraph 11,600. RIORDAN & CO. (By Associated Press.) New York, May 11.—The relative strength of actual cotton as compared with the future list, continues to be the prominent feature of the cotton market without exciting the speculative interest that the situation might easily attract in normal conditions of business. Very little lesirable spot cotton is available, excep in the way of high grades on which the demand is not running at present. The scope of fluctuations today was only a natter of 5 to 8 points, taking the swing of the more active positions. The English cotton market news was not satisfactory and crop news, while quite abundant, was more or less conflicting, with a bearish average, as to private accounts. After opening at 1 point advance to 2 points de line, the market was inactive, but finally steady in tone at a net advance of 3 to Exercises Simple but Impressive-Death Busy-Court Proceedings-News Budget. (Correspondence of The Messenger.) Fayetteville, N. C., May 11.

Your correspondent is writing with his foot in the torture boot of rheumatism; please charge thereto any disjointed remarks. At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon Captain A. B. Williams, chief marshal, formed the Memorial procession in front of the Fayetteville Military Academy, the Independent Light Infantry and the cadets heading the column in fine military display, with the schools and other organizations, and the line of march was taken to the cemetery. After prayer by Rev. Mr. Graham, and most appropriate music by Mr. Novitzky's faultlessly trained choir, came the decoration of the graves and the salute of musketry by the battalion.

The absence of the regular memorial address was deplored, in that it foreshadows a falling off in that interest which should ever be kept in full life o advance all around as long as the and fervor. The question is asked: "Is this annual ceremonial necessary?" Well, no; no more than a railing about the grave and a headstone above it are necessary. But that people will but feebly make history which is lax to guard the treasures of history and the ashes of heroic men. That nation will attain but a dwarf statute in the future the fire of whose genius is all too dim to illuminate the annals of the past.

This afternoon will be held the funeral services of Captain W. C. suddenly at his residence on Haymount Earlier in the evening he had been in the parlor talking cheerfully with several guests, but retired before the gathering dispersed. Later in the night he was seized with an acute pain in the side, and expired in about half an hour. The Messenger's heartfelt sympathy goes out to the bereaved wife and family. Mr. Brandt was a German, aged about 75 years, and found his home in Fayetteville long prior to the war, sustaining for forty years a record of first rate business cangely and high loss to save their country without and the same treatment of the unclassified service. the president of Trinity college, lectured at Elon college in the chapel. We got in a few minutes after the doctor had begun his lecture, but we understand that his subject was "Christian Education." He talks well. * The doctor ridiculed anything like love of your native state He said that he was born in South Caro line, that he supposed that he was—that he didn't care. That he had just as soon have been born in North Carolina and as soon anywhere else as there. Now that is another place we are forced to differ with the doctor. We love our native state and we want to see every other man do the same. To us there is no state that is

and three of the things that we are proudest of is our university, our Normal and Industrial college and our Agricultural and Mechanical college, and we love the state because she has given them to us We know that the students of Elon listened attentively to the doctor, but we sincerely hope that this part of his lecture failed to impress them.—Burlington News. The convict problem is one of the great est problems of the age. It does no belong to North Carolina alone but i present in every state in the union an every country in the world. What to do with convicts is to all governments a serious question. When the penitentiary was established in this state under republican administration, the convicts were put in it and supported in idleness at an enormous expense. After the demo crats got control of the state they tried hem at shoemaking and in other indus trial pursuits, but complaint was made that their labor in these departments came in competition with free labor, and so it did. Besides, the experiment did not pay. The same complaint was made, with more Besides, the experiment did not pay.

or less justice, when they were worked on the railroads, but the railroad work stopped, after awhile, and so this ticular matter took care of itself. Finally the democratic party conceived the idea of buying and leasing farms and putting the convicts to raising crops, and this plan has been prosecuted until the convicts have been brought to a self-supporting basis—the state treasury has ceased o be charged with their care, and, agri culture being a wide open, world-wide field, there has been no complaint of con-vict competition with free labor.
