The Jacksonville Times says that the loss in the burning of turpentine boxes by one fire last week in Onslow was $8,000. This is still something of a tar, pitch and turpentine state when $8,000 worth of turpentine boxes can be burned in one fire. Rev. W. S. Lacy, of Norfolk, a., for-merly the popular Presbyterian pastor at Jonesboro and Sanford, will deliver the literary address before Sanford high school at 3:30 o'clock p. m., May 25th. The closing exercises take place May 24th

Hendersonville Hustler: The family of Mr. Joseph Mull are slowly recovering from milk poison, and it is thought the malady will be entirely overcome in a few day's time. It is very pathetic to hear the mother's affectionate call for little "Keena" who now sleeps in a new made Windsor Orient: Mrs. Emelia White, who lives in Colerain township, is a most remarkable woman. She was born in 1811, being now 86 years old, and can sew, knit and read fine print without the use of glasses and without difficulty, and can walk without apparent fatigue. She is the mother of eleven children, ten of whom she raised to be grown and mar-ried. A count of her offspring a few days ago added 105 children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Raleigh Tribune: The sponsor for North Carolina, Miss Nannie Branch Jones, will be the guest of Hon. J. B. He has been elected professor at the State University and will assume his duties there in September. He may spend a short while in Chapel Hill this summer looking after his laboratory and making other arrangements.

Fayetteville Observer: Mr. Henry Jones, a large farmer and merchant of Beaver Dam township, near the Bladen line, died yesterday in his 65th year. The deceased leaves a widow and four children.-Ben Tew, an old colored man, makes his home in the county jail at present. He sleeps in one of the cells at night, eats breakfast next morning, and is then at liberty to go where he chooses The old man is the guest of the county, pending the amputation of his leg which will be performed by Dr. McGougan, the county physician, in a few days. The foot was amputated from the leg twenty years ago, but recently the stump has festered, and it is a question whether Tew will live under the operation.

aleigh News and Observer: Some Vinston, N. C., organized the firm of Vaughan & Co... wholesale grocers and from the start they have met with the success which their business tact that splendid environments deserve. The are now doing a business annually of $300,000 and upwards and no firm in the south is more conveniently situated for a busi ness of the kind. They have a splendid two story brick store 40x185 feet, with basement and on either side there is a side track so that goods can be loaded and unloaded direct from cars of the Southern, Norfolk and Western and Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroads, which is a great saving to themselves and customers in drayage and handling.

He Main and left him to guard the rear, then found Watchman Sims and had him watch the Patton avenue side. This done Mr. Smathers secured the help of Patrolmen Collins and Lyerly and went into a thorough search. While Officer Lyerly was searching the building Mr. Collins took a look in the abbreviated alley between the Redwood building and Penniman Bros. & Co.'s building. He found the pair hidden therein, arrested them, and soon thereafter the men were locked up. They proved to be John Johnson of Reidsville, N. C., and Ernest Suttle of Wilmington, Del., both negroes, each apparently about 20 or 22 years of age. When nabbed, one of the men had on three coats stolen from the Redwood stock. Their haul included four coats and a pair

Greensboro Record: Greensboro people have no idea of the high order of industrial school for the colored people that the state of North Carolina has provided in this town. It is one of the most interesting features of the superior advantages for education offered by Greensboro. Those who believe that colored youth are slow to take good education in agricu-l tural and the mechanic arts, should visit this school and look at the evidences of talent and industry. In this school the standard of excellence is as high as in any other similar school for either race, and the requirements as exacting in every particular .- Another murder has been committed in this county, the nrst however, in some years. This one took place near Stokesdale yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. About 5 o'clock while the officers were still in Stokesdale a man named Nelson drove in and said that Pegram had been shot and was dead. The officers secured a wagon and at once drove over to the place, near Price's mill, about five miles from Summerfield, and close to the house of a Mr. Winfry. bilton, of Stokesdale, and a liverydea dreve over with them. On their arrival they found the body of Pegram lying across the road with a plant bed eloth thrown over it and two pennies over the eyes. Removing the cloth it was seen that Pegram had been shot through the heart, the pistol used being put close to the body as was shown by the powder two barrels of whiskey which caused all the trouble. A man named Walker saw the shooting, as did Pegram's wife, who was at the house of Winfry. She at once dry salted shoulders, boxed, 5@54c; short

The New York Stock Market, New York, May 22 .- The conditions in the day's stock market were not essentially different from those prevailing for several days past. There was a marked undercurrent of strength through the whole list, and the tendency of prices was uninterruptedly upward with the exception of the coalers, but this failed to incite any outside participation in the market and then dealings were small and most of them in a few active stocks. The market wholly lacked breadth, many stocks in the usually active list having not a single transaction to their credit Sugar also continued to be neglected, the dealings in the stock being quite ostentatiously curtailed. The traders seem to have made up their minds not to see any cause for alarm in the Cuban question and disregard the news on the subject in a manner that offers a strong contrast to their views on former occasions. They also attach a large degree of importance to a rumor circulated in very explicit form that the supreme court will hand down a decision on Monday next in the so-called Nebraska maximum freight rate and inter-state commerce cases and that the decision in the former case would be in favor of the railroads. This case is of importance to the grangers and the belief that the decision will be in their favormaterially strengthened the group and made it the leader of the advance. The buoyancy of the general speculation on Houston-Quiet at 7 5-16c; net receipts the London exchange also imparted confidence to the local market. The announcement of an additional ship ment of gold for next Tuesday of $500,00 was without marked effect on the market, and the statement of a decrease of $232,075 in the gross earnigs of North-western for April did not effect the strength in the granger group. · Chicago Gas continues to receive inside support and tended upward. The Gould shares reached somewhat from the strength of yesterday, Manhattan and Western Union selling off a sharp fraction in the reaction and failing of subsequent recovery. Many stocks failed of complete recovery to the high point and last prices were genrally a small fraction below that but with net gains on the day. The extreme decline in New Jersey Central was 21% and Delaware and Hudson %. Leather preferred, rost 11%, with a slight reaction Baltimore and Ohio and Hocking Valley gained large fractions.

The characteristic of the market for the week has been its underlying strength in the face of unmitigated dulness and almost of apathy, the outside interest being nil, and with some very serious drags upon it. The devlopments in the Cuban question were apaprently not as as fearful as traders had supposed last week and when President McKinley's message was presented to congress on Monday, it had the effect rather of strengthening the market. Government bonds displayed some little irregularity, but the variations were extremely narow and trading very light. Total sales of stocks today were 54,574 shares, including New York Central 14,000.

Cotton Futures. (Special to The Messenger.)

New York, May 22.-Great dullness and a gradually sinking market havemarked this week in cotton. The decline has been of some importance and has fully justified the expectation that in view of the unsatisfactory condition of general business and with the strength of the statistical position as the sole support to prices, some recession was almost a foregone conclusion. Today the market was very dull. Liverpool held her own on future quotaions, but the sales of spot cotton in changed to 1/3c lower. No. 2 red, May 80c; net change for the day was triling. Au-

July 76 9-16677 9-16c, closed at 77%c; September 72¼673½c, closed at 72%c; December 73¼674½c, closed at 73%c.

Corn—Spot steady; No. 2, 29%c; elevator 30%c. Options opened steady and was dull all the morning, closing unchanged to ½c opportunities for scalping operations, but not lower that closed at 20%c. July 20%c. little inducement for a serious campaign on either side. The fluctuations promise to be governed at present by the weather reports from the south and the takings of actual cotton by consumers from day to day. The progress of the new crop will of course, be the all important factor in determining the ultimate course of prices. In spite of the glowing optimism of our local bears, we do not think its condition at present can trutifully be said to be more than fair. But the southern advices report a steady improvement and a week or two of beneficial weather may work wonders. No improvement can be noted in general business conditions nor in any of those outside influences which have effect upon cotton. Without some serious set back to the new crop, the chances seem to us to favor lower pdices. The summer months might, if shrewdly manipulated or if business at the manu-facturing centres was to revive sharply sell at very high prices, but we regard it as far more likely from the pdesent outlook, that the world will make the supply, small as it undoubtedly is, prove sufficient for its wants without disturbing values vicently. RIORDAN & CO.

(By Associated Press.) New York, May 22.-The cotton market advanced 3 to 5 points today, chiefly on coverings, following a better class of cables than looked for, and reported threat of a cold wave from the northwest to the southwest, and continued activity in the spot department. The sales of spot cotton today reached 3,078 bales, including 700 bales export and 2,378 bales for spinners. This business was reported at full quotations. Shorts tried to cover

Chicago, May 22 .- Foreign news had almost exclusive control of the wheat market today and caused a 11/3c advance in the July option. The most influential news came from France in the shape of disturbing crop reports and made shorts scramble to cover. Corn and oats closed firm and substantially unchanged after early weakness. Provisions were weak from beginning to end and closed at declines ranging from 71/2 to 171/2c.

Some Day

(By Rebecca Cameron, in Christian Observer.) Some day the mists will clear away, That now obscure our sight, And things that here the darkest seem, Shine in a clear, white light. And we will see how wisely planned Was both the sun and shade, And how for us our Father's hand, Unerring choice had made.

Hillsboro. N. C.

He is now Cured, and He Thanks God and P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, For It.

Mr. George Briggs, of Moore, Okla., suffered almost indescribable torment for three long years. Neuralgia held him captive. The right side of his face was so badly affected that the slightest touch would cause the unfortunate man intense agony. For several weeks he could open his mouth just wide enough to be fed with liquid nourishment, and in this manner life was sustained. Read the following extract from his letter: "Truth is stranger than Fiction."

NEURALGIA, CATARRH AND RHEUMA-TISM COMPLETELY CURED. George Briggs, of Moore, Oklahoma, writes that P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, cured him of catarrh, facial neuralgia and rheumatism, after three years of intense suffering. The pain lay in his cheek bone and temple, down the right side of his face, along his upper lip, and from the slightest touch he suffered agonies for weeks at a time. Could only open his mouth wide enough to admit a teaspoon, and any acid in his food would put him in torture. He had a consultation of the best physicians in Texas, but all to no purpose.

Catarrh and rheumatism were also causing him much trouble, until he tried P. P. P. He says he is well and will swear that there are no cases of neuralgia, catarrh and rheumatism, no matter how chronic or how old the cases are, that P. P. will not make a total cure of. Mr. Briggs winds up his testimony by saying he thanks God and our medicine, P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, for the great cure.

Kidney troubles, if neglected, bring about serious and painful and very often fatal results. P. P. P. removes the irregularities, and cures the diseased parts.

Dyspepsia and indigestion, skin and blood diseases, can be speedily removed by P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy. Ladies, take P. P. P. and rid your face of pimples, blotches, freckles, yellow or muddy skin, wrinkles and vulgar redness.

A perfect remedy for dandruff and falling hair. Mr. T. R. Neel, of Davidson College.

Recommends Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer

writes: In 1886 my little daughter suddenly and unaccountably lost all her hair. From the crown down and from ear to ear was as bald as the palm of the hand. Months and months passed and the frightful baldness remained. My physician, Dr. Paul Barringer, recommended Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer. Determined to give it a fair trial I bought a half dozen bottles. Three bottles of it faithfully used, produced no visible effect, but one morning, soon after beginning the fourth bottle, to our surprise and delight, a new growth of hair appeared and so rapid and complete was the restoration that only one more bottle was needed. Ten years have elapsed and no one has a finer suit of hair. Less than one bottle is often effectual in checking falling hair. Read interesting history of R. H. R. MRS. M. G. GRIER, Harrisburg, N. C.
