The force of Wanamaker's powerful arraignment of the republican party is the absolute truth of it. Of course every prophet is hated and despised by those who feel his words apply to them.

Contrary to the wishes of certain gentlemen of "gold only" politics, the members of the commission appointed by President McKinley to promote the cause of international arbitration...

Every loyal democrat must heartily endorse the ringing and patriotic words of Mr. Bryan in his "New York Journal" published in last Sunday's issue of that paper.

The people under monarchical governments like that of Great Britain, where there is a limited popular representation and a certain degree of local self-government...

Between the regular democrats and the bolting democrats, Mr. Bryan thinks there can and should be the friendliest personal relations, but that harmonious political association is possible between them except at the expense of the advocates of bimetalism.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris says that the republican party has the dry rot—Press Visitor, May 19th.

Six hundred thousand children, the flower in which sleeps the North Carolina of twenty years hence, are without schools of any kind nine long, forgetful months every year.

The above remark was made in some strictures Mr. Harris was making upon the administration at Washington regarding its supposed policy toward Cuba.

Messrs. Lippman Bros., Savannah, Ga. Dear Sirs:—I sold three bottles of P. P. P. large size yesterday, and one bottle small size today.

The P. P. P. cured my wife of rheumatism winter before last. It came back on her the past winter and a half bottle, $1.00 size, relieved her again, and she has not had a symptom since.

I sold a bottle of P. P. P. to a friend of mine, one of the turkeys, a small one, took sick and his wife gave it a teaspoonful, that was in the evening, and the little fellow turned over like he was dead, but next morning was up hallowing and well.

Yours respectfully, J. N. McELROY, Savannah, Ga., March 17, 1891.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the East Carolina Council, in Session in Goldsboro, for the Last Two Days of the Session.

Goldsboro, N. C., May 21. At the session Thursday afternoon of the council of the East Carolina diocese there was no business transacted that would be of interest to the public, save the appointment of committees by the bishop, which are as follows:

On Election—Rev. Edward Wooten and Messrs. H. R. Bryan and D. L. Davis.

New Parishes—Rev. S. McQueen and Messrs. J. H. Hill and Macon Bonner.

Unfinished Business—Rev. F. Joyner and Messrs. L. V. Morrill and D. M. Partrick.

Evening prayer was held by the Rev. E. G. Grand, of the diocese, and addresses on the missionary work of the diocese were made by Rev. F. B. Ticknor, E. Wooten and F. B. Joyner.

The offering of the congregation was received for the Thompson orphanage.

FRIDAY'S SESSION. The council met at 9:30 o'clock, and after the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Bishop Watson read his annual report to the council, which covered his entire work for the diocesan year.

It is quite a lengthy document and occupied an hour's time in reading. His occasional reference to deceased members of prominence in the church was clothed in beautiful language and was full of tender solicitude and tempered with consolation for friends and relatives of the deceased.

His closing lines upon the general state of the diocese and of New Zealand, which he acquainted with the world at large, that could only be acquired by years of study and careful observation.

After the bishop's address the reports of the several committees were taken up in their regular order.

Rev. Mr. George read the report of the committee on finance, which was adopted without discussion.

The bishop appointed the following new committee of finance: L. L. Winn, J. W. Hughes, William Calder, G. W. Roberts and H. G. Smallbones.

Mr. William Calder read the report of the committee on Episcopal residence.

Rev. Stewart McQueen read the report of the committee on incorporation of the Episcopal fund.

Mr. William Calder read the report of the trustees of the diocese.

Dr. Carmichael read the report of the committee on canons.

Colonel DeRosset moved that the part of the bishop's address which had reference to St. Mary's school be referred to the trustees of the school.

Dr. Carmichael presented a tabulated statement as a report of the committee on the state of the church.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON. The council reassembled at 4 o'clock, and after the reading of the minutes of the morning session by the secretary, Rev. F. N. Skinner, the bishop announced the report of St. Mary's school, Raleigh, as the special order for that hour.

The report was read by Dr. Carmichael, and showed the school to be in a thriving condition.

Dr. Carmichael reported that the diocese of North Carolina had bargained for the property of St. Mary's school, for which they had promised to pay $50,000, and that the board of trustees had been incorporated.

There are to be sixteen trustees in all—eight from the diocese of North Carolina, four from the diocese of East Carolina and four from the missionary jurisdiction of Asheville.

A payment of $10,000 must be made on the school property in the near future, and it was proposed by members of the council to devote the $3,000 which they now had on hand for educational purposes toward this payment.

This met with much opposition, and a lengthy discussion ensued. The matter was referred to a special order for 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Rev. Stewart McQueen, the clerical trustee from this diocese of the University of the South, made his annual report, which showed the university to be in a prosperous condition.

There are to be sixteen students that for many years.

SATURDAY MORNING. The council met this morning pursuant to adjournment yesterday, and after the minutes had been read the reading of the reports in their regular order occupied the greater part of the morning session.

By a close vote the council decided to appropriate the $3,000 which they now have on hand for educational purposes toward making the first payment of $10,000 on the St. Mary's school property, at Raleigh.

The session of the East Carolina diocese of 1897 will be held in the city of New Bern.

The council adjourned at 2 o'clock to meet this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when the business of the present session will come to a close.

A few of the delegates left town this morning and a great many more left on the trains this afternoon, but there are several who will remain over to hear the last of the session and to be present at the big services that are to be held in St. Stephen's church tomorrow morning and night.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY. The delegates from the parish branches of the Woman's Auxiliary to the board of missions of the East Carolina diocese held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the vestry of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, in this city.

Mrs. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, is the diocesan secretary, and besides the following delegates were present: Miss James and Miss Mary Messers, of Wilmington; Mrs. Daggett from St. James, Wilmington; Miss Fill, of St. John's, Wilmington; Mrs. F.
