Granberry, the chaplian of the camp, delivered the prayer which was | culated that a portion of another loan followed by the singing of the hymn "Nearer My God to Thee" by a boy choir. After the dedication the graves of veterans of the southern army were strewn with flowers. After an hour or so the visitors returned to the city where a reception will be given to Mr. Rouss this evening.

The monument is the finest in the cemetery. It cost $5,000. It is of New England granite, sixty feet high, on a base of ten feet. The pedestal is composed of only three pieces, and is nine feet high.

The following inscription is at the base of the monument: "Sacred to the memory of the heroic dead of the confederate veteran camp of New York."

The New Tunnel Under the Thames London, May 22.-The new tunnel under the Thames at Blackwell was inaugurated by the prince of Wales today. The royal procession consisted of two semi-state landaus, each headed preceded by two grooms. In these, be sides the prince, were the princess of Wales, Princess Victoria, of Wales, the duke of York, the duke of Portland, Mr. nel. The procession followed the Mail, of the tun. Here the royal party were met by the duke of Cambridge. the prince of Teck, and many military and other officials. The procession then proceeded through the tunnel which was illuminated by three rowa of electric lights. At the Greenwich end was a dais upon which the royal party took their places and from which the prince of Wales in the name of the queen declared the tunnel open to public traffic forever. An Historic Church Burned. Savannah, Ga., May 22.-Christ church, the oldest church in Georgia, founded by John Wesley before he promulgated the Methodist faith, was burned almost to the ground shortly after midnight tonight. The fire was discovered shortly after 12 o'clock and it spread rapidly. It is supposed to have originated from a gas jet left burning by some member of the choir which held a practice there tonight. It contained all records of Savannah and practically of Georgia since 1825, most of which are a total loss. The church cost about $25,000 and about as much more has been spent upon it. The price set upon the building and lot recently was $100,000. It is only partially covered by insurance. Christ church, standing on Bull street from the Johnson square is the mother church of Episcopal communion in Jeorgia. Christ church parish was founded as soon as the settlement of Savannah. The first edifice was begun in 1743, but was not completed until 1750. In 1796, it was destroyed by fire and was reby four bays driven by postillions and built upon enlarged plan in 1803. The next year it was partly demolished by a hurricane and was not re-built until 1810. In 1838, the corner stone of the present edifice was laid, the old church having been torn down and the building was completed in 1840.
