AT THE UNIVERSITY.

THE ONE HUNDRED AND SECOND COMMENCEMENT DAY. Meeting of the Alumni—Senior Class Exercises—Degrees Conferred on Graduates. Annual Address by Hon. W. L. Wilson.

University of North Carolina. Chapel Hill, N. C., June 2. This was the 102d commencement day at this university, and it was made delightful by perfect weather, and a large attendance and interest, and by well arranged programmes.

Four of the seniors delivered orations. A. T. Allen on "The Relation of Government to Freedom"; D. B. Smith on "America in Civilization"; Donald McIver on "Business and Knowledge"; B. H. Shepherd on "The Growth of Law." These were presented by the other thirty-four members of the graduating class of forty-two.

These were followed by the reading of the Declaration of Independence, the reading of the Constitution, and the reading of the address by Hon. William L. Wilson, president of Washington and Lee university, who was introduced by President Alexander.

His theme was a quotation from John C. Calhoun, "Liberty is a reward to be earned, a reward reserved for the intelligent, the patriotic, the virtuous and the deserving." and the speaker said: "This is the motto of the American people, and this is the fixed law of Providence. It has been the motto of the American people since the time of our independence, and it will be the motto of the American people as long as we have a free government."

FOREIGN. The monetary commissioners of the United States, by invitation, call upon the president of France. The Spanish cabinet tenders their resignation and it is accepted by the queen regent.

KENTUCKY DEMOCRATS.

IN THE SENATE. Unsuccessful Effort to Have Certain Taxes Placed on the Free List with the Warehousemen's Binding Ties—Senator Vest Gets the Duty on Anvils Reduced—Senator Tillman's Resolution of Inquiry Into the Dispensary Decision of Judge Johnston.

Washington, June 2.—The senate made greater progress on the tariff bill today than in any day since the debate opened, completing more than half of the important amendments. The speaking was done by the democratic senators, the republican senators, taking no part in the debate, except at rare intervals, to answer questions which would expedite the advance of the bill.

Senators Jones, of Arkansas, and Vest urged numerous amendments, embodying in the main the Wilson rates, but these were rejected with only one exception. This exception related to anvils, on which Senator Vest secured a reduction of the committee rate from 2 to 1 1/2 cents per pound. It was the first change made without the assent of the committee and was due entirely to the less than manner of the majority in voting.

Early in the day, Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, secured the adoption of the following: "Whereas, the supreme court of the United States declared in the case of Vest versus Hardin, that no state had the right to prohibit the sale of liquor within its own borders in original packages, and that such prohibition was an interference with inter-state commerce and."

Philadelphia, June 2.—Hughes pitched a steady, effective game for Pittsburgh this afternoon, the hits made by his delivery being scattered through five innings and the Phillies were consequently easy victims. Orth was hit harder than the score indicates, particularly in the innings in which the visitors scored. Pitches Carney and Grady were quiet, but Grady was hit by Catcher McFarland of St. Louis. Grady is willing to go to St. Louis but does not desire to play in the city. The latter remains obdurate, the deal may be blocked. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 0 0 1 0 0 0 1-2 6 3 Pittsburgh 0 0 3 1 0 0 0 1-5 10 1 Batteries: Orth and Doyle; Hughes and McFarland. Umpire Sheridan. Time 1:55.

Brooklyn, June 2.—When the St. Louis Giants pitched to the Brooklyn Dodgers this afternoon Tommy Dowd was missing and in his place was Hallman, who pitched a steady game. Turner and Hartman were almost the only players to meet their regular positions. The change did not bring any better results to the home team even in a walk. R. H. E. Brooklyn 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0-1 9 4 St. Louis 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0-1 8 7 Batteries: Daub, Fisher and Grady; Hall and McFarland. Umpire Sheridan. Time 1:53.

New York, June 2.—New York lost the game to the Philadelphia Athletics in the ninth inning. Up to that time the Giants had the game well in hand and were going easily. Stafford and Rogers were presented with flowers and a check when they came to bat for the first time. The score: R. H. E. New York 0 0 1 0 3 0 0 0 0-4 9 4 Philadelphia 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-7 7 Batteries: Stafford and Rogers; Rogers and McFarland. Umpire Sheridan. Time 2:15.

Washington, June 2.—Washington today's game because of two misjudged balls in the first inning, one of which was a home run. In addition to this Lange made another error, catching a play for which he is noted, catching a drive which seemed good for a home run. The score: R. H. E. Washington 1 0 2 0 1 0 1 0-5 10 5 Chicago 3 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-2 5 1 Batteries: McFarland and Farrell; Denzer, Griffith and Donohue. Umpire Emale. Time 2 hours.

Boston, June 2.—The Boston today, through terrific batting in the first inning and a home run by Cleveland, made a total of fourteen runs before Cleveland realized that the game had begun. Klobenz was making fine chases was overhauled by the Marbledash and Cleveland's batting was not so good as it was in the first two innings, after which Dwyer was given a trial with but little better result.
