Coroner David Jacobs, who went to Richmond. Va., with a requisition for Simion Prince, colored, arrived here with his prisoner yesterday at 5:45 p. m. by the Atlantic Coast Line. He was carried to jail and a Messenger representative called there last evening and had a talk with him.

Prince was wanted here for being one of the parties to a shooting affray in Dross Neck on Saturday night, March 27th, in which Walter Pemberton was through the head and instantly killed. The tragedy took place in a house occupied by Jim Whitley, col-game, laying down a greenback dollar. Prince says he laid down a quarter in silver, and won Shepard's money. Cape Fear Camp No. 254, United Confederate Veterans, is getting ready to attend the great re-union of the United Confederate Veterans at the Nashville convention on the 22nd inst. The old vets will leave here June 20th and hope to carry a full camp of uniformed men. Forty-five of them already have uniforms, and it is hoped that others will order uniforms at once. At the re-unions heretofore the music has embraced all the well known southern airs except the "Old North State." This omission will not occur at the reunion at Nashville. Mr. Morton B. Howell writes Colonel W. J. Woodward that he has instructed the bands that in no event shall they omit the playing of the "Old North State." Mr. Howell says "the music and words are not was here with the South Carolina ex- so familiar with us as they ought to be, and I trust that the 'Tar Heels' will be on hand in force sufficient to impress the old song and keep it in our memory.'
