Dr. PAUL BARRINGER,

Of the University of Virginia,

Recommends Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer

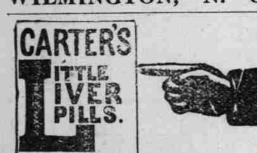

A perfect remedy for dandruff and falling hair. Mr. T. R. Neel, of Davidson College writes: In 1886 my little daughter suddenly and unaccountably lost all her hair. From the crown down and from ear to ear was as bald as the palm of the hand. Months and months passed and the frightful baldness remained. My physician, Dr. Paul Barringer, recommended Mrs. Grier's Real Hair Restorer. Determined to give it a fair trial I bought a half dozen bottles. Three bottles of it faithfully used, produced no visible effect, but one morning, soon after beginning the fourth bottle, to our surprise and delight, a new growth of hair appeared and so rapid and complete was the restoration that only one more bottle was needed. Ten years have elapsed and no one has a finer suit of hair.

Less than one bottle is often effectual in checking falling hair. Read interesting history of R. H. R. MRS. M. G. GRIER, Harrisburg, N. C.

a Man From Becoming a Cripple. Mr. Asa Armons, a well-known citizen of Jacksonville, Florida, was afflicted by a terrible ulcer. Medical skill seemed unavailing in stopping the ravages of the terrible disease. The leg was swollen and intensely painful, as the ulcer had eaten its way down to the very bone. All medicines and treatments having failed to effect a cure, the doctors said the leg must come off. Just when it seemed that Mr. Ammons would become a disabled and a crippled man, he tried P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy, and the result was wonderful.

Asheville Citizen: Two prominent business men of Boston, Geo. F. D. Paine and Geo. H. Springer, have been recent visttors in Asheville, one as a guest of the Battery Park hotel, the other a guest of Mrs. J. Taylor Amiss. Their interest in and admiration for this city seemed to be very genuine, and will, it is reported on good authority, be likely to manifest itself in such a substantial investment here as the purchase of "Gold View" mountain, a few miles north of Asheville, and the establishment of a substantial investment here as ablishment of a hotel there. Greensboro Record: Robert Gilchrist.

Greensboro Record: Robert Glichrist, living near a summit in this county, has been severely bereaved recently. About a month ago his little boy aged 4 years, died. His death so prayed upon Mms. Glichrist that she took ill and on Wednesday last died—of pure grief, it is said—A woman appealed to the commissioners of Guilford county at their meeting Monday, for assistance. By question the part it was found that she owned it. ing her it was found that she owned 114 acres of land and had $200 loaned out at nterest. She din't get any help. Jacksonville Times: Mr. Robert George, a highly esteemed and successful farmer who resides about a mile from Jacksonville, was killed by lightning last Friday afternoon. Mr. George came to Jacksonille last Friday, and about 4 p. m., he leparted for his home; a storm coming up ne sought shelter from the rain under a arge pine tree, \ ... being much higher than any other tree in the vicinity rendered it a conspicuous mark for the power ful bolt that shattered it from the top-most bough to the ground and brought instant death to one of our estimable and conservative citizens.

Charlotte Observer: A. H. Moore, better mown as "Bud" Moore, a well known ontractor of this city, is this morning resting under two bonds—one of $700; the other of $200. Fayetteville Observer: Mr. William Maxwell, of Cedar Creek, was in the city this morning, and reports a seere hall storm in the Cedar Creek neighborhood about 1 o'clock yesterday. He says that on his plantation hall stones ell as large as one's thumb, and that the damage to his crops was very great.—
As noticed in our last issue, the Battle of Bethel was duly celebrated at Lakewood on the 10th. In addition to those mentioned as present, Messrs. J. D. Nott and J. A. McPherson drove over from their homes, two or three miles away. Both these gentlemen, who had gone out as privates in one of our Cumberland companies, became officers, the former as a Lieutenant in the 5th N. C. Cavalry and latter as Captain in the 6th N. C. roops. Whist and fishing delighted the ld fellows when they were not discussing he appetizing viands that had been provided, and war reminiscences, chiefly of an amusing sort, occupied recounter and stener through the day. After the cere-nonious toast of The Day had been hon red, the health of Major James H. Lane afterwards the distinguished General, of Lee's army) who was so much beloved by our two Fayetteville companies, was drunk with a will, as was also that of Col. J. B. Starr, the only field officer of the Bethel regiment present, and that of Capt. J. B. Smith, who as a private in the same regiment was mentioned for gal-lantry in Col. Hill's report of the battle. Charlotte Observer: Mr. T. L. Ritch went to his farm in Sugar Creek several days ago. His fine shepherd dog went with him. On their way back, Mr. Ritch's horse was attacked by a mad dog. The shepherd dog, in turn attacked the mad dog, and they had a sharp battle. The shepherd was brave, but the mad dog bit shepherd was brave, but the mad dog bit him terribly. Parties who were pursuing the mad dog, came up, and killed the latter. Mr. Ritch, in turn, had to kill his dog. He valued him more than his horse he said.—Mr. J. W. At the top price Burlington showed an advance of 1%, Omaha of 1% and Northwestern 1%. Net gains were slightly below the highest in the grangers as in other stocks. The declaration of dividends on members of the Vanderbilt group had been discounted, as had been the passing of the dividend on the preferred stock of Cleveland, Cin-cinnati, Chicago and St. Louis. The common stock of this company, after a slight opening decline, made an unaccountable advance of 2 per cent. in face of the dividend rumor and a first week statement showing a decrease in gross earnings of over $24,000. Reaction carried the price below Saturday's close. Continued strength in the stocks of iron and steel companies reflected the improved outlook for business in that industry. Conspicuous strength was manifested also by the Goulds, Manhattan and Western Union each advancing over a point. The good buying of New Jersey Central also continued, resulting in marking up that stock 3 points, after an initial decline and some irregular fluctuations. Quite a feature of the trading was the number of fractional lots of stock that changed hands, indicating the outside purchases made through commission houses. These sales of odd lots were well distributed throughout the list. Sugar developed assured strength as the day progressed and showed a sharp gain on the day. Chicago Gas was active but irregular, ranging over 1% and closing with a net gain less than that.

The total sale of stocks today were 249,513 shares, including American Sugar 23,000, Burington and Quincy 17,100, Chica-

Cotton Futures. (Special to the Messenger.) New York, June 14.-The cotton market was extremely dull today. Liverpool declined 16-64d and the opening here was slightly lower. The prevalence of good weather in the south discouraged buying, but there was no pressure to sell. Liverpool sent some buying orders here, but most of the business was local. August opened at 7.15, declined to 7.13 and closed at 7.13 to 7.14, with the tone of the market quiet and steady. The general opinion here is that if the weather continues favorable the market will decline. Those who believe in higher prices, however, are still confident. RIORDAN & CO.

(By Associated Press.) New York, June 14.-The cotton market opened barely steady, with prices un-changed to 3 points lower. There was a further decline of 1 to 2 points and then the market turned to about Saturday's closing figures, with the tone finally steady at net unchanged prices to 2 points loss. Trading was slack, reaching only 37,900 bales of futures. The market was featureless and almost entirely destitute of outside speculative interest.

The Chicago Markets. Chicago, June 14.-All grain and provision markets were strong today on rather limited business. Wheat was affected by foreign crop reports of a bearish charac ter and dry weather west, the market closing at 1% to 1%c advance. Corn and oats followed wheat, scoring advances of about 1/2c each. Provisions closed at 10 to

Of the Boundary Treaty Between England and Venezuels-The Connection of Opr Government With the Matter Ended. Washington, June 14.-The final ratification of the boundary treaty between Great Britain and Venezuela was exchanged at the state department at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The occasion was marked with some formality The scene was the diplomatic reception room in the state department, in which the original treaty between Sir Julian Pauncefote and Secretary Olney was signed last December and where on February 2nd last, the present treaty was signed by the British ambassador and the Venezuelan minister. Today there were present in the room Sir Julian, Senor Andrade, the Venezuelan minister and his secretary of legation; Acting Secretary of State Day and Assistant Secretary Thomas Cridler, who has been instrumental in framing the 'various' treaties, protocols and other writings connected with the treaty What remained to be done today was to exchange the copies of the treaties held by each party and to sign what is known as the exchange protocols For this purpose Senor Andrade brought along the same magnificent golden penholder with its carle quil preserved as a relic.

tions, not to be used again, but to be When the signing was over and each of the parties held the exchange copies of the treaties, there was a mutual exchange of congratulations and Mr. Cridler was thanked for the pains he had taken to prepare all the documents for the occasion. The treaty now becomes binding upon both governments, Great Britain and Venezuela, and they must at once begin the preparation of the cases to be submitted to the arbitrators who will meet in Paris for organization, probably some time next winter.

With today's ceremony the connection of the United States government with the negotiations ceases, and the two governments will be left to work out the boundary dispute to a conclusion, unless there should be some totally unexpected interruption in the workings of the machinery which has been so carefully prepared to ensure a settlement of this celebrated cause.

Goldsboro Items.

(Correspondence of The Messenger.) Goldsboro, N. C., June 14. There is a good deal of building going on here now. While Goldsboro has never had a boom, it has steadily grown and now has as large a trading section as any city its size in the country.

The excursion of Hatch & Bro. from here to Wilmington day after tomorrow, promises to be well patronized. The shipment of beans is nearly over. Truckers have done better this year than usual. Several years ago there was very little trucking in this section. Mr. R. E. Pipkin, an energetic merchant here, deserves a good deal of credit for the benefits derived from the trucking business. He has not only engaged in it himself, but he has bought from year to year the different truckers' crops until he has worked up tremendous business, and made arangements in many northern cities for the handling of everything that can be sold in the way of vegetables. Crops in this section are clear of grass, but are unusually small. Cotton on bottom land seems to be growing less. H. Weil & Bros. are arranging the best system of warehouses in the state for their increasing trade. They are also adding an elegant private office to their establishment. As the railroad election failed Green county, there was no vote had here today, as was proposed. The vote here would have been favorable if Green had gone for it. The negro boy who was brought from Wilmington here, charged with shooting another boy, was tried today and held only for carrying a pistol.

As they rode together towards the road which my friend was seeking, the Boer recounted with grateful satisfaction the many good deeds performed by the elder Lindley, but of them all the best to him was that represtented by a sound thrashing he had once received at the hands of this venerable missionary. For it appeared that this particular Boer, in his youth, had been sent to a school taught by Lindley; that the Dutchman was noted for his size and strength, and had bragged of his capacity to down the teacher, and had actually sought the opportunity by refusing obedience. But he soon learned that he had made a gross mistake, for this particular missionary was also a noted athlete, and gave him such a hiding with a bullock-whip that the young giant roared for mercy before the whole school. 'And for this and similar deeds the Boers loved the elder Lindley, and this particular Boer venerated his memory. "Your father," said he, "did me a service so great that I can never repay it—he gave me the worst thrashing I ever had-he saved my character, and I am a better man today, thanks to him." My friend cheerfully promised to grant the request, puzzling his head as to what was going to be required of him. The Boer was mounted upon an excellent horse, which he prizzed beyond anything he owned. He dismounted, put the rein's in Lindley's black forest as though the devil was after him. Here was no Indian-giv hands, and then ran away into ing. This Boer had put it out of the power of the American to discover the name or whereabouts of the strange giver.

It is a story typical of the Boer, and serves to illustrate many apparent contraditions in his nature. He does not hate Englishmen in general; hates only those who seem to threaten his peculiar quality of independence.
